LARKSPUR JOB DONE TWICE

This 380 feet of 18-inch pipe, being pushed across Corte Madera Creek, broke yesterday, leaving the job to be done again today. The project behind Bon Air Shopping Center is part of an $83,555 contract between the City of Larkspur and MGM Construction Co. of Concord to replace the old 10-inch force sewer main from the Larkspur pumping station to Ross Valley Sanitary District's station across the creek. The Corte Madera Flood Control District is putting up $25,000 of the cost.

Won't Rehire Negroes, Bridge Manager Says

Adam Denies Any Bias

By WAT TAKESHITA

Two Negro painters, fired last April from their jobs on the Golden Gate Bridge, will never be rehired in any capacity, "unless I am ordered to do so by the bridge directors, backed by the courts," bridge General Manager James Adam declared today.

He made the statement this morning at a press conference at the bridge plaza administration building in reply to charges that he is guilty of racial discrimination and "unbelievable" conduct in negotiations with the Fair Employment Practices Commission.

An angry Adam today fired back at Dellums, charging that "the Commissioner himself was guilty of serious abuse of his office in making such a statement in advance of any formal hearing by the commission."

Adam also charged that Dellums had betrayed his previous assurance that conciliation proceedings before the FEPC would be treated as confidential.

"The FEPC act specifically forbids members of the commission and staff to discuss what transpired in the course of such endeavors," said Adam. "In fact, the law makes it a misdemeanor to violate the re-

Manager-Engineer Consolidation Proposal To Be Revived; May Mean Sumbardo To Go

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

Consolidation of the positions of Fairfax city administrator and public works director is expected to be proposed at the Fairfax City Council meeting Monday at 8 p.m.

The idea is not new, but may be pushed to a showdown now because of a budget bind for fiscal 1968.

The original budget submitted by City Administrator David J. Sumbardo showed expenses exceeding revenues by ap-proximately $25,000. A revised budget, not yet discussed by the council, brings income and outgo into balance but calls for cuts in public works and recreation, and in a contingency fund for emergencies. Some councilmen object to these reductions. Mayor Peter J. Arrigoni, who urged before the city administrator was hired three years ago that the job be combined with public works director, said the consolidation is likely to be considered Monday "as an economic matter — not becuase of any dissatisfaction with the persons holding the jobs."

Effect of such consolidation, however, would be to eliminate Sumbardo, since he is not an engineer. Richard Nelson, Fairfax public works director-engineer, would be eligible for the combined job. However, Mayor Arrigoni said whether he would be retained for it has not yet been considered.

Sumbardo's salary for this year is $12,758; Nelson's, $11,976.

Reagan, Unruh Reach Truce In Tax Fuss

Agreement Could Clear Way For Assembly Action

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan and Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh have agreed on a compromise to the legislature's tax disppute, aides sadi today.

The agreement, reached in private yesterday afternoon could clear the way for passage of the governor's $1 billion tax increase. (See also page 3.)

The agreement was confirmed by Michael Manley, legislative assistant to the Democratic speaker, and Paul Beck, press secretary to the Republican governor.

Manley said Unruh agreed to Reagan's plan of paying off a $194 million cash debt in a single year.

The debt—left over from the last administration—has become a major part of the dispute slowing up action on Reagan's $1 billion tax increase, needed to balance his $5.08 billion budget.

DEBT ISSUE

The debt is really money the state owes itself. It was shifted to the General Fund from special funds last year when tax collections took a seasonal dip but expenses remained the same. The money, however, was not repaid when the fiscal year ended June 30.

Manley said Unruh also agreed to cut the tax bill by no more than $50 million.

Reagan, in turn, made some concessions, Manley said. He said the governor agreed to $150 million in school aid—less than Unruh had sought—for this year.

MORE AID

But next year, Manley said, Reagan will add some $200 million to that. The governor, said Manley, agreed to put an amendment in his tax bill guaranteeing the additional aid.

Reagan and his aides also sought some more direct property tax relief for next year.

Powell Said Flying Back To New York

NEW YORK (AP) — Deposed Congressman Adama Clayton Powell was en route to New York today to begin an attempt to appeal a criminal contempt of court citation, a spokesman for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People said.

The spokesman said Powell would arrive at Kennedy Airport by commercial airliner from Miami at 11:32 a.m. Two Eastern Airline flights from Miami were due to arrive at that time. The first landed on time and Powell was not aboard. The second was delayed until 12:25 p.m.

There was a flurry of activity at the airport and two attorneys for the congressman were at the Eastern terminal at Kennedy.

The NAACP spokesman said Powell was to be met at the airport by the city sheriff, who would place him under technical arrest. He said Powell would not be detained.

Train Kills Africa Nobel Laureate

DURBAN, South Africa (UPI) —Albert Luthuli, a Zulu chief who won the 1960 Nobel Peace Prize for his untiring efforts on behalf of equality for South African blacks, was hit and killed today by a freight train.

The 78-year-old former president of the banned African National Congress was pronounced dead at 2:25 p.m. despite the efforts of a neurosurgeon to save his life.

Police said Luthuli was hit by a train while walking across a bridge spanning the Umvoti river, a bridge not normally used by pedestrians.

The South African Government barred him from going to Stockholm to accept the prize.

Luthuli had been gradually going blind and it was assumed he simply failed to see the train coming until it was too late to get out of the way. He had lost the sight of one eye and had undergone surgery on the other in Durban in April.

Luthuli, onetime chief of the Amakholwa clan of the Zulu nation was known throughout his life as a dedicated proponent of the concept of non-violence.

His often expressed credo was that only patience and Christian example would enable Black South Africa to throw off Apartheid and attain equal rights.

ALBERT LUTHULI
Fought for equality

The South African government twice sentenced him to remain silent as much as five years at a time. The order meant no word of his activities could appear in any South African newspaper or magazine or be reproduced in any way for public attention. It was for the South Africans as if he had vanished.

Luthuli, considered too moderate by his followers and too radical by the government, was barred from political activity in March, 1960, when he burned his passbook—hated symbol of racial segregation—to protest the bloody Sharpeville riots.

Nasser Again Shuffles His War Cabinet

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Cairo Radio today tersely announced President Gamal Abdel Nasser has named a new Egyptian war minister. Diplomatic reports in London said Nasser's leadership of the Arab world was under fire with his prestige waning in all but Egypt.

The Cairo Radio broadcast said Amin Huweidy, state minister in the current cabinet, became war minister in the second switch for that key post since the Arab-Israeli war.

In London, diplomatic sources said Nasser's prestige was fading noticeably in Arab quarters outside Egypt. They said a major power struggle was under way with Moscow holding off crucial Mideast decisions until the outcome is clear.

Increasing attention was said to be focusing on Algeria's austere President Houari Boumedienne who has been playing a leading role in post-war diplomatic maneuvering.

There were indications Moscow was eyeing the taciturn Boumedienne with growing interest.

It was also reported from the tense area that precise site of the Israeli-Egyptian threatened peace along the Suez Canal.

Israeli officials said Egypt told the head of the U. N. truce observation team it would not recognize any cease-fire line

Tshombe Extradition To Congo Is Ordered

ALGIERS (UPI)—The Algerian Supreme Court tolay ordered former Congolese Premier Moise Tshombe extradited to the Congo where he faces execution on the gallows on treason charges.

Tshombe had been tried in absentia in the Congolese capital of Kinshasa and sentenced to die. He was in exil ein Spain at the time.

On June 30 a plane carrying him from one Spanish island to another was hijacked and flown to Algiers where he was jailed. The Congo immediately asked for his extradition.

Just before the Supreme Court announced its decision Tshombe said he was a victim of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and "of my popularity in the Congo."

The 48-year-old former premier, known as a "rubber man" because of his ability to bounce out of difficult situations, faces execution by the government of Gen. Joseph Mobutu, his chief rival for power.

The court heard the case on Wednesday and announced its decision would be announced earlier today. Twice the decision was postponed until late in the day.

Tshombe was brought back to the court from El Harrash prison in an unmarked vehicle guarded by plainclothesmen to hear the verdict.

Final approval must come from Algerian President Houari Boumedienne, but Boumedienne is not an admirer of Tshombe and informed sources said that was a formality.

380 Reds Die; Three MIG Kills

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese and South Korean troops reported killing 380 Communist soldiers in two savage battles today while, over North Vietnam, American carrier pilots blasted three MIGs from the sky and probably downed a fourth.

The aerial action was the first significant dogfight over the North in six weeks.

South Vietnamese headquarters said an elite airborne battalion killed 240 enemy soldiers in northernmost Quang Tri Province along the coastal plain in a fight with what was evidently a Communist battalion of about 500 men. The Communists were reported to have abandoned 89 weapons on the field.

About 100 miles to the south in coastal Binh Dinh Province, troopers of South Korea's White Horse Division overran jungle headquarters of the Viet Cong's 95th Regiment and reported killing 140 guerrillas. They captured 70 weapons.

The Koreans were still in pursuit of scattered guerrilla forces at last report. They said their losses were light.

Heavy Communist weapons losses in both fights indicated clear-cut victories for the allies.

Two American Crusader jets were shot up in the air battle 20 miles north of Haiphong but made it safely back to the carrier Bon Homme Richard in the

Senator Whetting His Ax To Eliminate Plush Jobs

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., said today Congress should abolish the Subversive Activities Control Board, to which the husband of one of President Johnson's former secretaries has just been named. (See also page 2.)

Proxmire acted after Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., in a similar mood, sought to get reconsideration of Senate confirmation of Simon McHugh.

Proxmire said he would offer a bill to wipe out the five-man board as no longer needed.

Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield told reporters the matter seemed moot since McHugh already has been sworn in.

The selection and rapid confirmation of McHugh for the $26,000-a-year job as a member of the Subversive Activities Control Board came to light yesterday.

McHugh, who married the former Victoria McCammon, a favorite Johnson secretary, was confirmed for the post on July 17 without debate. The confirmation came three days before a deadline listed in the Congressional Record for filing any objections to the appointment.

Two young Negroes were shot in Durham, N.C. last night and young Negroes hurled Molotov cocktails at buildings in Minneapolis, Minn., early today.

Two supermarkets were destroyed and a number of buildings damaged in Minneapolis. A radio station news car was overturned and burned but there were no injuries.

Policemen carrying shotguns guarded firemen while they fought blaze after blaze in a largely Negro neighborhood in Minneapolis. There also were scattered rock-throwing incidents.

In Durham, a protest march was so peaceful that National Guardsmen were sent home before midnight but cruising whites gunned down two Negroes shortly after the demonstration ended.

In Newark, N. J., police withdrew white officers posted near the meeting hall of a national Black Power conference when delegates called their presence inflammatory, but there was no violence.

Negroes in Cairo, Ill. warned there would be new outbreaks of violence if their demands are not met within 72 hours.

Elsewhere:

Hattiesburg, Miss.—A privately owned city bus line shut down in the face of a Negro boycott. Bus company officials said they had already hired one Negro driver and planned to hire another next month.

Lakeland, Fla.—Police attributed an outbreak of firebombings early yesterday to "youthful vandalism."

Washington—Sen. Edward W. Brooke, R-Mass., proposed that the senate create a select committee would consider "the causes and effects of riots, community attitudes in places in which riots have occurred or may occur, and the responses of state and local governments to community grievances."

A SOLUTION FOR MARIN COUNTY?

New York may have the answer to Marin County's growing commuter problem. Just convert transit buses to rail operations. Two New York agencies are currently conducting tests on converting a standard 41-passenger bus to rail operation on a Long Island Railroad freight spur at Floral Park, N.Y. Appointee Draws Pay, Criticism On Little-Used Anti-Red Board

WASHINGTON (AP)—Young Simon Francis McHugh, who wed a presidential secretary and landed a $26,000 seat on the Subversive Activities Control Board, could have ample time for lingering lunches with his bride.

For the five-man board, born 17 years ago during this country's anti—Communist upheavals, today has virtually nothing to do.

McHugh, 29, came on the job —what there is of it—Monday, 11 months after his marriage to Victoria McCammon, then one of President Johnson's favorite secretaries. He previously had been a $17,550 civil servant in the Small Business Administration.

Yesterday, McHugh landed on the front page of the Wall Street Journal in a story that said rather flatly McHugh had been appointed to the plush job because of the marriage—and with the help of some greased skids through the Senate confirmation.

McHugh was unavailable for comment about the story. The White House press secretary, George Christian, called it a hatchet job and commented that "certainly the President's knowledge of an appointee is an important factor."

The incident provoked one member of the Senate Appropriations Committee, Sen. Gordon L. Allott, R—Colo., to label the McHugh appointment "an outrage and a disgrace." As a taxpayer, Allott said, he was burned up.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said the confirmation to the five-year term was handled routinely, with no pressure from the White House to speed or assure success.

But teapot tempest or not, the McHugh story focused attention on a board that has become something of an anachronism and has borne out former President Harry S. Truman's prophecy that the Communist registration law would be unenforceable.

The board was supposed to name Communists and their organizations. These were expected then to register as such with the attorney general.

Today, there's only one case pending—and even that is stalled in the courts at least until autumn.

But the five men continue to hold offices that pay them a total of $130,000 a year.

Johnson Bitter At House Over Rat Control Defeat

WASHINGTON (UPI)—An angry President Johnson has accused the House of treating animals better than children by turning its back on a relatively modest program to rid city slums of rats.

The chief executive, in an unusually bitter statement, charged the house with striking a "cruel blow to the poor children of America" yesterday after it voted 176 to 107 to kill an administration bill for a two-year, $40 million rat extermination program.

"We are spending federal funds to protect our livestock from rodents and predatory animals," he said. "The least we can do is give our children the same protection that we give our livestock."

Secretary Robert C. Weaver of the Housing and Urban Development Department labeled the vote a "thoughtless, heartless action . . . (that) has once again victimized the poor —and this time the helpless."

House Vote May Doom Bay Town

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Armed Services Committee has approved spending $19.8 million to obliterate Port Chicago, a town of 3,000 in California's Contra Costa County, a congressman said yesterday.

Rep. Jerome R. Waldie, D-Calif., noted the action still must be approved by the House, Senate Armed Services Committee, the Senate and the President.

Waldie, who opposes the condemnation, declared: "I hope that at some later stage in this controversy I can persuade my colleagues in Congress to accept my views."

The Navy urged buying the town because it adjoins piers used to load ammunition for Vietnam. In 1944 an ammunition ship exploded there, killing 320 persons.

Waldie says that piers at the Navy base are defective and should be moved.

"The removal of Port Chicago merely delays the necessary reconstruction and relocation of those piers and as a result permits this unsatisfactory condition to continue, threatening the lives and properties of many houses and people," Waldie said.

Committeemen acted after a subcommittee of eight toured the Concord Naval Weapons Station by bus July 1 and flew over Port Chicago.

Miss Temple, now the wife of investment banker Charles A. Black, said yesterday she will decide "within a week or two, perhaps sooner" whether to enter a special election to be held Nov. 14 to fill the seat of Rep. Arthur Younger, who died earlier this year.

Four other Republicans have already announced for the race: Attorney Paul N. McCloskey, San Mateo County Sheriff Earl B. Whitmore, businessman William H. Draper III and former New York Congressman Robert R. Barry.

Edward M. Keating, former publisher of Ramparts magazine and a critic of U.S. Vietnam policy, is the only announced Democratic candidate.

Mother In Coma Gives Birth

BOSTON (AP) — Shirley M. Sweeney, 36, of Somerville has given birth to the baby girl she hoped for but may never know.

Mrs. Sweeney has been in a deep coma since February when she suffered a severe brain hemorrhage.

Wednesday physicians at Massachusetts General Hospital helped her deliver a five-pound 14-ounce baby. They said the baby is healthy and apparently normal in every way, and called her birth a medical rarity.

Millionaire's Widow Jailed

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mrs. Pearl Choate Birch, widow of millionaire A. Otis Birch, was free on bail today after being briefly behind bars.

Mrs. Birch

Mrs. Birch, 60, charged with two counts of assault with intent to commit murder, was jailed until $27,500 bail, set at her arraignment, was posted.

The estimated $10 million estate she claimed as the wife of the 95-year-old South Pasadena philanthropist when he died March 17 is still in probate.

Mrs. Birch is accused of firing a rifle last Friday at two Compton policemen. Officers said they were trying to resolve an argument between her and a tenant at Mrs. Birch's duplex.

Silver Coins Withdrawn

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government quietly is withdrawing from circulation some of the old dimes and quarters containing 90 per cent silver.

Officials say they have no plans to recall the 90 per cent silver coins in the wake of a Treasury Department decision to free the price of silver from its four-year level of $1.29 an ounce.

When silver coins find their way back to a Federal Reserve Bank in their normal course of circulation, officials said, they are held in reserve rather than recirculated.

The new copper-nickel sandwich coins—less likely to be set aside by collectors—are circulated instead.

Will Reagan Shun Race In East?

HOOKSETT, N.H. (UPI) — Gov. Ronald Reagan is going to have his name on the New Hampshire primary ballot next year, unless he puts it in writing that he does not want to run.

Russell Carter, former GOP state senator and head of a Reagan-for-President Club, said yesterday he expects Reagan to win the March 12 primary.

Carter also said he would invite Reagan to New Hampshire in December when Reagan will be in the East for a week-long seminar at Yale University.

"I'd love to have him. I definitely will invite him," Carter said. "We expect definitely to run Governor Reagan in the New Hampshire primary."

It takes only 40 to 60 signatures from registered Republicans in each of two congressional districts to get a name on the ballot.

Under law, the secretary of state would then notify Reagan, who would have 10 days to write to ask that his name not be placed on the ballot.

Reagan has said he will not withdraw his name from the Nebraska or Oregon ballots because this would require a renunciation inconsistent with his planned role to run as a favorite son in California at the head of the state's 86-member convention delegation.

Reagan Wins Executive Change Vote, Needs Tax Bill Majority

SACRAMENTO (UPI)— Gov. Ronald Reagan savored a major legislative victory today, but the bill he needs most is still far from passage.

The Senate passed, without a single vote to spare, legislation giving Reagan a free hand to reorganize the executive branch of government, a power he requested in his first speech to the lawmakers after his inauguration in January.

But the $1 billion tax bill which the administration needs to balance the red ink budget for the three-week-old fiscal year remained stalled in the Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee.

Chairman John G. Veneman, R-Modesto, said the committee probably would wait until Monday before voting on 15 proposed amendments to the Senate-passed revenue measure.

Reagan had hoped the legislature would complete work on the tax bill by Aug. 1, a deadline which now seems unattainable.

The reorganization bill was approved yesterday by a 21-15 vote with three Democrats joining 18 Republicans in supporting the Republican governor. All 15 votes against the bill were cast by Democrats.

The bill, by Sen. Howard Way, R-Exeter, now goes to the Assembly where it faces an uncertain future. Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Inglewood, opposes the plan.

If the bill becomes law, the governor could propose a plan for reorganization of executive departments during the first 60 days of a legislative session.

The plan would go into effect automatically unless either house of the legislature voted to reject it. The proposals would supersede laws already on the books but could not change functions delegated to state agencies by the Constitution.

Sausalito Man Is Suspected Of Battery

A 33-year-old Sausalito man was booked into county jail early today on suspicion of battery after a woman acquaintance reported to police that he had forced his way into her home and raped her.

Richard H. Madden, of 103 South Street, was asleep nude in his alleged victim's bed when police arrived. He has known the 34-year-old woman for six years, police said.

The woman telephoned police at 3:50 a.m. and said Madden had knocked on her front door at 3 a.m., asking if he could sleep on her living room couch. When she refused, she told police, he forced open the door and raped her on the couch.

No marks of violence were evident, police reported, and Madden did not resist arrest when awakened.

The Columbus housewife, who became the only woman to fly solo around the world in a single-engine plane in 1964, suffered a broken rib, broken collar bone, cuts and possible internal injuries yesterday when har car went out of control and crashed.

BAGLEY SEES COSTLY RACE FOR PATRICK

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, generally more widely known for his political astuteness than as a mathematician, has come up with some interesting statistics concerning William Penn Patrick's pledge of $300,000 toward a senatorial campaign for Dr. Max Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction.

"Patrick has thoroughly demonstrated the effectiveness of his campaign dollars," Bagley said. "In his race for the 1966 Republican gubernatorial primary, he spend $500,000 and won 40,887 votes. This amounts to more than $12 per vote.

"At this rate, his pledge to Rafferty should win him a maximum of 25,000 votes," he said. "Rafferty will need about 1,250,000 votes to gain the senate nomination.

"At $12 per vote, this effort may cost Patrick $15 million," Bagley said. "It is admirable that Patrick takes his public responsibilities so seriously and I wish them both luck."

Drath Will Not Sail On Second Phoenix Medical Supply Mission

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—An American Quaker organization which recently transported a cargo of medical supplies to North Vietnam in defiance of the U. S. government today made known it will try to make another shipment soon.

"It's a matter of conscience," said Lawrence Scott, 58, the white-haired leader of the project. "When people are being bombed and are bleeding, it's a religious right and duty to help them, whoever they are."

Despite a tightening web of federal pressures and roadblocks, the undeterred task group is going ahead with its planning gathering funds, screening volunteers, awaiting a go-ahead from the North Vietnam Red Cross.

Phillip Drath, San Rafael contractor and anti-war leader, who was a crew member on the yacht Phoenix last March when it made the first medical shipment to Haiphong, said today he will not be aboard this time.

"However," he said, "I am involved in that I am helping collect money for the trip and helping determine who goes in the crew." Asked if he were not going because his passport had been revoked, Drath replied that the Quakers try to get new people each time. There is no one else slated at this time to go from Marin on the August voyage, he added.

"We're lining up a new boat crew," Scott said. The sponsoring unit, of which he is executive secretary, is called simply, "A Quaker Action Group," to indicate it is only one of various Quaker approaches to the situation.

'I'M EXCITED'

"I'm excited," said a tow-headed college boy when asked how he felt as a potential recruit for the intended new voyage into Haiphong. He's among about 40 who have offered their services for the outlawed mission, aimed at helping civilian war casualties.

It still is contingent on approval from North Vietnam, Scott said, adding that arrangements are being made through correspondence handled from abroad to avoid government interception. However, the sailing date is expected to be in late August.

PHOENIX AGAIN

Scott said the organization has chartered for a year's use the 50-foot U. S. ketch, Phoenix, which carried an initial $10,000 medical shipment to Haiphong last March. The crewmen on that voyage were ordered deprived of their passports.

In Washington Thursday, officials of the U. S. Treasury Department said it had recommended to the Justice Department prosecution of those crew members under the assets control provisions of the Trading with the Enemy Act.

The Justice Department said the case is under review. Conviction would carry a maximum penalty of 10 years in jail and a $10,000 fine.

PATRIOTIC VIEWS

"We don't feel that what we're doing is unpatriotic, even though it may be illegal," said Sam Legg of Baltimore, an adviser on the project.

"Essentially, patriotism is doing what's good for the country and the world, and I don't see how this humanitarian effort to relieve suffering can be anything else but that. I consider myself a loyal American as I break some American laws."

Challenging laws considered opposed to higher ethical obligations is an old Quaker tradition, forged in early persecutions, in their 19th century underground railroad for fugitive slaves, in their widespread disavowal of modern war.

Lynda Meets Queen

LONDON (AP) — Lynda Bird Johnson has met Queen Elizabeth II over a cup of tea.

The occasion was an invitation-only garden party for 8,000 persons at Buckingham Palace yesterday.

While her American Secret Service guard stood by in morning coat and Ascot topper, the 23-year-old daughter of President Johnson chatted briefly with the queen and sipped a cup of tea.

Anti-Pornography Proposal May Die During Squabble

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A controversy between the two houses of the legislature threatened today to scuttle attempts to write new controls into California law against the distribution of pornography.

The squabble flared yesterday in the Senate Judiciary Committee, which took the ax to a bill approved unanimously by the Assembly that would make it a crime to pander "indecent matter" to persons under 18.

Members of the committee complained the bill, by Assemblyman John T. Knox, D-Richmond, would not be effective in slowing the smut traffic. Sen. Donald L. Grunsky, R-Watsonville, the committee chairman, said it was "worse than nothing at all."

Over Knox' protests, the committee amended into the bill a measure by Sen. Robert J. Lagomarsino, R-Ojai, that would place more stringent controls on peddling pornographic material to minors.

Earlier in the session the Lagomarsino bill was rejected by the Assembly Criminal Procedure Committee.

Will Reagan Shun Race In East?

HOOKSETT, N.H. (UPI) — Gov. Ronald Reagan is going to have his name on the New Hampshire primary ballot next year, unless he puts it in writing that he does not want to run.

Russell Carter, former GOP state senator and head of a Reagan-for-President Club, said yesterday he expects Reagan to win the March 12 primary.

Carter also said he would invite Reagan to New Hampshire in December when Reagan will be in the East for a week-long seminar at Yale University.

"I'd love to have him. I definitely will invite him," Carter said. "We expect definitely to run Governor Reagan in the New Hampshire primary."

It takes only 40 to 60 signatures from registered Republicans in each of two congressional districts to get a name on the ballot.

Under law, the secretary of state would then notify Reagan, who would have 10 days to write to ask that his name not be placed on the ballot.

Reagan has said he will not withdraw his name from the Nebraska or Oregon ballots because this would require a renunciation inconsistent with his planned role to run as a favorite son in California at the head of the state's 86-member convention delegation.

Reagan Wins Executive Change Vote, Needs Tax Bill Majority

SACRAMENTO (UPI)— Gov. Ronald Reagan savored a major legislative victory today, but the bill he needs most is still far from passage.

The Senate passed, without a single vote to spare, legislation giving Reagan a free hand to reorganize the executive branch of government, a power he requested in his first speech to the lawmakers after his inauguration in January.

But the $1 billion tax bill which the administration needs to balance the red ink budget for the three-week-old fiscal year remained stalled in the Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee.

Chairman John G. Veneman, R-Modesto, said the committee probably would wait until Monday before voting on 15 proposed amendments to the Senate-passed revenue measure.

Reagan had hoped the legislature would complete work on the tax bill by Aug. 1, a deadline which now seems unattainable.

The reorganization bill was approved yesterday by a 21-15 vote with three Democrats joining 18 Republicans in supporting the Republican governor. All 15 votes against the bill were cast by Democrats.

The bill, by Sen. Howard Way, R-Exeter, now goes to the Assembly where it faces an uncertain future. Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Inglewood, opposes the plan.

If the bill becomes law, the governor could propose a plan for reorganization of executive departments during the first 60 days of a legislative session.

The plan would go into effect automatically unless either house of the legislature voted to reject it. The proposals would supersede laws already on the books but could not change functions delegated to state agencies by the Constitution.

Sausalito Man Is Suspected Of Battery

A 33-year-old Sausalito man was booked into county jail early today on suspicion of battery after a woman acquaintance reported to police that he had forced his way into her home and raped her.

Richard H. Madden, of 103 South Street, was asleep nude in his alleged victim's bed when police arrived. He has known the 34-year-old woman for six years, police said.

The woman telephoned police at 3:50 a.m. and said Madden had knocked on her front door at 3 a.m., asking if he could sleep on her living room couch. When she refused, she told police, he forced open the door and raped her on the couch.

No marks of violence were evident, police reported, and Madden did not resist arrest when awakened.

BAGLEY SEES COSTLY RACE FOR PATRICK

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, generally more widely known for his political astuteness than as a mathematician, has come up with some interesting statistics concerning William Penn Patrick's pledge of $300,000 toward a senatorial campaign for Dr. Max Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction.

"Patrick has thoroughly demonstrated the effectiveness of his campaign dollars," Bagley said. "In his race for the 1966 Republican gubernatorial primary, he spend $500,000 and won 40,887 votes. This amounts to more than $12 per vote.

"At this rate, his pledge to Rafferty should win him a maximum of 25,000 votes," he said. "Rafferty will need about 1,250,000 votes to gain the senate nomination.

"At $12 per vote, this effort may cost Patrick $15 million," Bagley said. "It is admirable that Patrick takes his public responsibilities so seriously and I wish them both luck."

MARIN FIRE CALLS

YESTERDAY:

12:21 p.m., Marinwood—Fire in wooden fence of Dr. Robert Hedquist at 454 Blackstone Drive was started by children playing with matches.

1:27 p.m., San Rafael — Grass fire started by sparks from a welder's torch in vacant lot at 424 Erwin Street burned 100 square feet.

4:32 p.m., San Rafael — Grass fire on the property of John C. Munson, 267 Seaview Avenue, burned 150 square feet.

5:26 p.m., Alto — Grass fire burned a 500-square foot area on Lomita Drive near the Alto School.

9:30 p.m., San Rafael — Small fire started by a candle in a paper pumpkin caused no damage at dormitory #3 of the San Rafael Military Academy.

11:51 p.m., San Rafael — Fire on the roof of home owned by P. J. Tarrant, 60 Glenaire Drive, was started by a short circuit in an electrical conduit and caused an estimated $100 damage.

Drath Will Not Sail On Second Phoenix Medical Supply Mission

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—An American Quaker organization which recently transported a cargo of medical supplies to North Vietnam in defiance of the U. S. government today made known it will try to make another shipment soon.

"It's a matter of conscience," said Lawrence Scott, 58, the white-haired leader of the project. "When people are being bombed and are bleeding, it's a religious right and duty to help them, whoever they are."

Despite a tightening web of federal pressures and roadblocks, the undeterred task group is going ahead with its planning gathering funds, screening volunteers, awaiting a go-ahead from the North Vietnam Red Cross.

Phillip Drath, San Rafael contractor and anti-war leader, who was a crew member on the yacht Phoenix last March when it made the first medical shipment to Haiphong, said today he will not be aboard this time.

"However," he said, "I am involved in that I am helping collect money for the trip and helping determine who goes in the crew." Asked if he were not going because his passport had been revoked, Drath replied that the Quakers try to get new people each time. There is no one else slated at this time to go from Marin on the August voyage, he added.

"We're lining up a new boat crew," Scott said. The sponsoring unit, of which he is executive secretary, is called simply, "A Quaker Action Group," to indicate it is only one of various Quaker approaches to the situation.

'I'M EXCITED'

"I'm excited," said a tow-headed college boy when asked how he felt as a potential recruit for the intended new voyage into Haiphong. He's among about 40 who have offered their services for the outlawed mission, aimed at helping civilian war casualties.

It still is contingent on approval from North Vietnam, Scott said, adding that arrangements are being made through correspondence handled from abroad to avoid government interception. However, the sailing date is expected to be in late August.

PHOENIX AGAIN

Scott said the organization has chartered for a year's use the 50-foot U. S. ketch, Phoenix, which carried an initial $10,000 medical shipment to Haiphong last March. The crewmen on that voyage were ordered deprived of their passports.

In Washington Thursday, officials of the U. S. Treasury Department said it had recommended to the Justice Department prosecution of those crew members under the assets control provisions of the Trading with the Enemy Act.

The Justice Department said the case is under review. Conviction would carry a maximum penalty of 10 years in jail and a $10,000 fine.

PATRIOTIC VIEWS

"We don't feel that what we're doing is unpatriotic, even though it may be illegal," said Sam Legg of Baltimore, an adviser on the project.

"Essentially, patriotism is doing what's good for the country and the world, and I don't see how this humanitarian effort to relieve suffering can be anything else but that. I consider myself a loyal American as I break some American laws."

Sausalito Policeman Honored For Heroism

Sausalito Police Detective Kevin J. Sharp has been selected "police officer of the month" in a national competition sponsored by a New York uniform manufacturer.

Chief Edward S. Kreins nominated Sharp for his courage in saving the life of a 30-year-old Army captain Oct. 14 in a $40,000 blaze at the Eden Roc Apartments, just north of Sausalito.

Sharp, then a patrolman on the force only two months, made two rescue tries through smoke and flames before getting Capt. Henry Walker out of his third-level apartment. Sharp collapsed after the rescue and was treated for smoke inhalation at Marin General Hospital.

KEVIN J. SHARP
Wins national award

Sharp, 24, was promoted last week to detective. Before coming to the department one year ago, he served for two and one-half years in Hayward Police Department.

First to arrive at the fire, Sharp wrapped a wet towel around his head and tried to reach Walker, whom he could hear crying for help, but was driven back by flames.

A county fireman started up a ladder to Walker's window, but turned back to get a longer ladder. Sharp, however, decided there was no time to get a longer ladder, and reached the window with the one the fireman had considered too short.

Sausalito Fire Capt. Ralph K. Pedersen followed Sharp up the ladder and carried the unconscious Walker down it after Sharp carried him to the window.

The uniform manufacturer, Metcalf Brothers and Co., said Sharp was selected for "his meritous and courageous deed" and "outstanding service."

Hundreds of nominations for the competion are made monthly by police agencies throughout the nation, Kreins said. One of the 12 officers selected during the year also is honored as "police officer of the year."

Night Racing Referendum Is Sought

A new law that permits night horse racing will be fought by referendum or through the courts, the co-chairman of Californians Against the Escalation of Gambling declared today.

Thomas Gray of San Francisco asked the state attorney general today for an official title for a referendum petition to give voters a chance to confirm or reject AB-1082. The bill, proposed by Assemblyman Bob Moretti, D-Van Nuys, has several co-authors including Assemblyman Williaw T. Bagley, R-San Rafael.

If the attorney general should rule that a referendum is not possible because AB-1082 is an urgency statute, "we will immediately challenge the constitutionality" of the statute before the State Supreme Court, Gray said.

Extension of betting to night horse racing and increasing the number of racing days can in no way be construed as an urgency measure "for the immediate preservation of public peace, health or safety," Gray declared.

A U.N. spokesman earlier this week said there was no physical cease-fire line but only cease-fire "positions" along the banks.

Israel claims the middle of the canal is the dividing line and contends it can navigate the eastern half. Egypt maintains the eastern shore is the dividing line and has threatened to attack any Israeli vessels on the waterway for alleged violation of the cease-fire.

Meanwhile at the United Nations in New York, the Soviet Union was reported trying to persuade Arab nations to accept a U.S. - supported compromise linking the withdrawal of Israeli occupation forces with the end of the Arabs' 19-year-old state of war against Israel. But the Arabs, led by Syria and Algeria, were reported adamantly resisting the Soviet pressure.

The 122-nation General Assembly, seeking agreement on a resolution before it ends its five-week emergency session on the Middle East crisis, was to meet this afternoon. Some diplomats expected another quick adjournment until tomorrow or Monday to give the compromise efforts more time.

Raid Nets Narcotics In Bolinas

Marin County Sheriff's officer's last night joined with state narcotics agents to swoop on a four-room cottage in Bolinas and seize drugs worth more than $500.

Officers reported they grabbed hashish, valued at $400; one kilo of marijuana, worth about $100; a small amount of methadrene and a quantity of narcotic equipment.

Booked into Marin County Jail on a charge of possessing narcotics were the two occupants of the cottage, Charles G. West, 24, and Patricia E. Rapoport, 21, both of San Francisco. They were held on $500 bail apiece.

Sheriff's Inspector Bowen Bridges said officers called at the cottage in Dogwood Road at 7:25 p.m. as a result of a tip received by State Bureau of Narcotics Enforcement agents in San Francisco earlier in the day. The two suspects were arrested without resistance.

Innocent Plea To Drug Count

William W. Capps, 26, a one-time "doctor" and short time Mill Valley resident, pleaded innocent in San Francisco Municipal Court yesterday to the charges of possession of dangerous drugs.

He asked for a jury trial and this was set for 9:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Capps led a brief "professional" career when he pretended to be "Dr. Berry Kevin Randall" in Mill Valley, while residing with Dr. Robert W. Krause at 175 Elinor Avenue, and later posed as "Dr. Krause" in San Francisco. Real doctors quizzed him and Capps landed in jail.

Besides the San Francisco charge, Capps is being sought by federal authorities in Portland for transportation of a stolen vehicle across state lines. Other authorities may want him for alleged forgery, parole violation and investigation of auto theft.

Community Unit Awaits Report

The Marin County Police-Community Relations Committee decided last night to await release of a consultant's report before making recommendations to improve those relations.

It also agreed to meet on a monthly basis, with periodic sessions set aside for a proposed expanded group to include community representatives, police and members of various county organizations.

The consultant's report on community relations with police is being compiled by Professor Gordon Misner, a member of the Federal Crime Commission.

State Junior College Hearing Set Monday

A proposal originating in little Siskiyou County for a statewide junior college district drew the attention Wednesday night of the Marin County Committee on School District Organization.

The Marin committee agreed to send to the State Board of Education a series of objections to the Siskiyou proposal, which is to have a final hearing before that county's school district organization committee Monday.

Session Agenda

The Marin Committee to Abolish Capital Punishment will meet at 8 p.m., today at 10 Miland Drive, Apt. B-9, Strawberry, to discuss further efforts to effect legislation against the death penalty. It will also consider how to inform the public of its aims, according to chairman Richard C. Sloan.

agree with the mayor that combining the jobs might be a suitable measure to reduce Fairfax city expenditures.

Councilman Robert R. Souza said he is "concerned with the possibility of consolidation" and expects it to come up at budget discussion Monday. He pointed out that Fairfax operated with a deficit budget last fiscal year despite a 36 per cent assessed valuation increase. The assessed valuation increase for the new fiscal year is less than one per cent, and "we can't keep running in the hole year after year," he declared.

Councilman George A. Pagni said "we will talk about possible consolidation of some departments" Monday night. Combining the city administrator and public works director jobs "is a natural thing that could be talked about," he said.

Pagni said the consolidation would not be immediate, so would not reduce the budget by the full amount of either man's salary.

Councilman Adelaide P. Wilson said, "We have discussed almost every combination of combining jobs that is possible." Combining administratot with public works director has been discussed repeatedly, she said.

Councilman Frank J. Egger could not be reached today for comment.

Since then, the council has had a series of closed meetings. On June 12, it met behind closed doors to interview applicants for planning commission appointment. At the June 29 meeting, it was disclosed that it had met in closed session twice, without the public meeting notice required by law, during the preceding two weeks to discuss hiring an architect for the civic center. On July 7 and 10, it met in closed session to discuss firing a public works department employee (not Nelson).

Adam repeated that he had fired James Haugabook, 30, of Palo Alto, and Jimmie Lee Wilkins, 33, of Oakland last April "for incompetence."

Tonkin Gulf 130 miles off the North Vietnamese coast.

It was the first big air battle since the North Vietnamese virtually grounded their air force six weeks ago after losing five jets within three days. Eight MIGs came out last Wednesday but fled when fired on by Air Force pilots.

The Navy Crusader pilots were flying cover ahead of other jets coming in to attack a fuel dump when about eight MIG17s "popped up out of the clouds."

For the next seven minutes the opposing fliers—each group numbered about eight planes—criss-crossed the skies with rockets and cannon fire.

The American pilots reported that they saw three of the MIG pilots eject from stricken planes. They believed a fourth pilot also ejected but this claim remained a "probable" pending evaluation of gun films aboard the Bon Homme Richard.

In the ground war, the U.S. Command announced that an American Marine battalion of about 1,000 men went ashore from assault boats about 20 miles below the 17th Parallel between North and South Vietnam, while a similar U.S. Army force was landed in the Mekong delta paddyfields of Long An Province about 20 miles southeast of Saigon.

School Bus Accident Said Avoidable

A county school bus accident June 6 in which a 9-year-old boy suffered minor injuries was called avoidable yesterday by the Marin County Safety Commission.

The driver, William Ladow, 57, of San Rafael, was reprimanded. Ladow said he stopped his bus abruptly near MacPhail School in Santa Venetia to avoid hitting a car in front of him.

In other commission action, Deputy Sheriff Jay W. de Beaubein, 24, whose patrol car was struck by another vehicle May 16 in Mill Valley, and Tadeusz Lipski, 45, a maintenance man in the department of public works, whose truck was hit by a car in Stinson Beach June 16, were cleared of blame.

Car Racing Enthusiasm Traps Suspect

A 26-year-old Mill Valley man, sought for allegedly passing $1,600 of worthless checks in Marin County, was arrested in Reno yesterday after being traced through a report in a race car magazine.

Robert Bruce Lane of 256 Cardinal Lane was arrested on a felony warrant brought by San Rafael police. He was booked in county jail last night and remains there, his bail set at $2,750.

Police said that Land, a hardtop racing enthusiast, was traced to Washington when a San Rafael citizen read in a racing magazine that Lane had won a race in Tacoma. Police followed Lane's movements through Oregon, Washington, back to California and then to Nevada.

Lane allegedly passed bad checks over a six-week period in San Rafael, Mill Valley and Corte Madera.

Plea Change Halts Trial

At the start of what was to have been a jury trial for burglary, the two defendants changed their plea yesterday and the jury was dismissed.

Edney, a transient, and Hullinger, of 1417 Clinton Avenue, San Rafael, were accused of burglary of the home of George Goddard, 1 Windward Road, Belvedere, on May 9.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson called for a probation report and set a further hearing for Aug. 28 at 9:30 a.m. in superior court.

Sausalito Policeman Honored For Heroism

Sausalito Police Detective Kevin J. Sharp has been selected "police officer of the month" in a national competition sponsored by a New York uniform manufacturer.

Chief Edward S. Kreins nominated Sharp for his courage in saving the life of a 30-year-old Army captain Oct. 14 in a $40,000 blaze at the Eden Roc Apartments, just north of Sausalito.

Sharp, then a patrolman on the force only two months, made two rescue tries through smoke and flames before getting Capt. Henry Walker out of his third-level apartment. Sharp collapsed after the rescue and was treated for smoke inhalation at Marin General Hospital.

KEVIN J. SHARP
Wins national award

Sharp, 24, was promoted last week to detective. Before coming to the department one year ago, he served for two and one-half years in Hayward Police Department.

First to arrive at the fire, Sharp wrapped a wet towel around his head and tried to reach Walker, whom he could hear crying for help, but was driven back by flames.

A county fireman started up a ladder to Walker's window, but turned back to get a longer ladder. Sharp, however, decided there was no time to get a longer ladder, and reached the window with the one the fireman had considered too short.

Sausalito Fire Capt. Ralph K. Pedersen followed Sharp up the ladder and carried the unconscious Walker down it after Sharp carried him to the window.

The uniform manufacturer, Metcalf Brothers and Co., said Sharp was selected for "his meritous and courageous deed" and "outstanding service."

Hundreds of nominations for the competion are made monthly by police agencies throughout the nation, Kreins said. One of the 12 officers selected during the year also is honored as "police officer of the year."

Night Racing Referendum Is Sought

A new law that permits night horse racing will be fought by referendum or through the courts, the co-chairman of Californians Against the Escalation of Gambling declared today.

Thomas Gray of San Francisco asked the state attorney general today for an official title for a referendum petition to give voters a chance to confirm or reject AB-1082. The bill, proposed by Assemblyman Bob Moretti, D-Van Nuys, has several co-authors including Assemblyman Williaw T. Bagley, R-San Rafael.

If the attorney general should rule that a referendum is not possible because AB-1082 is an urgency statute, "we will immediately challenge the constitutionality" of the statute before the State Supreme Court, Gray said.

Extension of betting to night horse racing and increasing the number of racing days can in no way be construed as an urgency measure "for the immediate preservation of public peace, health or safety," Gray declared.

agree with the mayor that combining the jobs might be a suitable measure to reduce Fairfax city expenditures.

Councilman Robert R. Souza said he is "concerned with the possibility of consolidation" and expects it to come up at budget discussion Monday. Raid Nets Narcotics In Bolinas

Marin County Sheriff's officer's last night joined with state narcotics agents to swoop on a four-room cottage in Bolinas and seize drugs worth more than $500.

Officers reported they grabbed hashish, valued at $400; one kilo of marijuana, worth about $100; a small amount of methadrene and a quantity of narcotic equipment.

Booked into Marin County Jail on a charge of possessing narcotics were the two occupants of the cottage, Charles G. West, 24, and Patricia E. Rapoport, 21, both of San Francisco. They were held on $500 bail apiece.

Sheriff's Inspector Bowen Bridges said officers called at the cottage in Dogwood Road at 7:25 p.m. as a result of a tip received by State Bureau of Narcotics Enforcement agents in San Francisco earlier in the day. The two suspects were arrested without resistance.

A U.N. spokesman earlier this week said there was no physical cease-fire line but only cease-fire "positions" along the banks.

Israel claims the middle of the canal is the dividing line and contends it can navigate the eastern half. Egypt maintains the eastern shore is the dividing line and has threatened to attack any Israeli vessels on the waterway for alleged violation of the cease-fire.

Meanwhile at the United Nations in New York, the Soviet Union was reported trying to persuade Arab nations to accept a U.S.-supported compromise linking the withdrawal of Israeli occupation forces with the end of the Arabs' 19-year-old state of war against Israel. But the Arabs, led by Syria and Algeria, were reported adamantly resisting the Soviet pressure.

The 122-nation General Assembly, seeking agreement on a resolution before it ends its five-week emergency session on the Middle East crisis, was to meet this afternoon. Some diplomats expected another quick adjournment until tomorrow or Monday to give the compromise efforts more time.

Innocent Plea To Drug Count

William W. Capps, 26, a one-time "doctor" and short time Mill Valley resident, pleaded innocent in San Francisco Municipal Court yesterday to the charges of possession of dangerous drugs.

He asked for a jury trial and this was set for 9:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Capps led a brief "professional" career when he pretended to be "Dr. Berry Kevin Randall" in Mill Valley, while residing with Dr. Robert W. Krause at 175 Elinor Avenue, and later posed as "Dr. Krause" in San Francisco. Real doctors quizzed him and Capps landed in jail.

Besides the San Francisco charge, Capps is being sought by federal authorities in Portland for transportation of a stolen vehicle across state lines. Other authorities may want him for alleged forgery, parole violation and investigation of auto theft.

Community Unit Awaits Report

The Marin County Police-Community Relations Committee decided last night to await release of a consultant's report before making recommendations to improve those relations.

It also agreed to meet on a monthly basis, with periodic sessions set aside for a proposed expanded group to include community representatives, police and members of various county organizations.

The consultant's report on community relations with police is being compiled by Professor Gordon Misner, a member of the Federal Crime Commission.

DRAMA REVIEW

Freshness Lacking, But More Polish

By GARY TISCHLER

The Young Actors Company, an adjunct to the San Anselmo Festival Theater, presented the third satirical revue of its young existence last night, erupting on the Sausalito Gate Theater stage with "The No Soap Show."

The first observation is an obvious one. They are one year older since last year's "What's My Bird." They are better, some of them, like Mike Knight, Ted Hermann, Don Carroll, Cindy Miscovich, John Bamberger and Dennis Gribbin, much better.

FRESHNESS GONE

The year's improvement has put them in a curious, half-baked position. The polish is there, almost, but some of the freshness that overcame obvious faults last year, is gone.

The group has brought back some of its best numbers from last year, including "A Child's Garden of Hamlet," with Carroll even better as Hamlet; "The Ultimate Sellout," with Alex Hermann's Bob Dylan going commerical; Carroll singing the touching "The Sound of Silence," one of the earliest of the folk-rock songs; "Down The Shaft," Ted Hermann's amusing monologue on discontentment in a mine shaft; and others. The best is still good.

HITS THE SPOT

Of the new attempts, a presentation of the "The Hal Guile Theater" hits the spot with Knight's portrayal of the suave Hal Guile, of the Big M Mortuary, master of the late show and the family coffin.

Bamberger turned in a frantic bid as a harried sportscaster trying to wade through a soccer game. He and Knight teamed up for a meeting of the bored that did not quite come off but was a good effort anyway. So was Judy Navas' Metamorphis's a number called "I Wanta Be a Hippie."

HIPPIE SATIRE

One of the funniest lines came in "She's Leaving Home, Bye-Bye," a satire that grew too long, in which hippie parents discuss with growing disgust their inability to control their daughter.

"Do you know what," the mother says, "I caught her smoking a cigarette — with tobacco in it."

A live execution sponsored by Pacific Gas and Electric did not come off. Neither did some predictable stabs at Gov. Ronald Reagan and pictures of the war room throught the ages.

But the misses are to be expected. The hits show promise of even better things to come.

Joint Session On '701' Plans

Mill Valley Planning and Parks and Recreation commissions will hold a joint meeting 8 p.m. Monday in the library gallery to review proposals by the city's "701" planning consultants.

The consultants last month proposed that Arroyo Corte Madera Del Presidio be transformed into a "linear park," and that the city exchange some of Sycamore Park along the creek with land owned by James Egger. The exchange would involve one to two acres, said planning director Harvey E. Bragdon.

Architectural advisor committee members have been invited to attend.

Annexation Of Dias Ranch To Fire District Approved

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission last night approved annexation of the 152-acre Dias Ranch, west of Mill Valley, to the Tamalpais Fire Protection District.

Commissioners made their approval subject to agreement between developer Alfred J. Stern and the Tamalpais Fire Protection District on:

1. Stern providing facilities for a temporary fire station.
2. Stern dedicating land for a permanent fire station.
3. Other arrangements for structural fire protection in the annexation area.

Stern, who plans to construct 581 dwelling units in the area, said he has offered to provide a temporary fire station.

The final decision on annexation rest with the Tamalpais Fire Protection District commissioners.

Morris Batz, fire commission chairman, said the district would provide the equipment and manpower but wouldn't accept an annexation where "the people of the district had to build a fire station for a developer."

Fire commissioners reported that a new station would be needed at the Dias Ranch area because there isn't any direct access from the district's two existing stations.

Batz said the response time up Shoreline Highway to the area would be eight minutes normally "and on a weekend, forget it."

The LAFC canceled its August meeting and adjourned until Sept. 7 at 7:30 p.m. at the Civic Center.

Commissioner Peter H. Behr was absent.

Trip To Game

A trip for Marin senior citizens to the Giant-Pirates home baseball game Aug. 2 is being offered by the Center Senior Advisory Board of the San Rafael Recreation and Parks Department. Registration, by mail only, must include a self-addressed stamped envelope.

New College Chief On Job

Ramstad In Teaching Tradition

By CAROL MARSH

Dr. William K. Ramstad, 44, moved into a new job as president of the College of Marin and into a new San Rafael apartment with his bride of one week this week.

Ramstad's life has taken many such changes in direction. His father, Dr. A. W. R amstad is chairman emeritus of the Department of Chemistry, Pacific Lutheran University, Seattle. His mother was a teacher, his sister married a teacher and his first wife was a teacher, but Ramstad never thought of being a teacher until he had finished college, served four years in the Air Force and worked at various office jobs for a short while.

He was born in Seattle and attended Pacific Lutheran University with the intention of being a lawyer. In his senior year he entered the University of Washington law school and married his first wife. Three months before he would have received his bachelor of arts degree, in March, 1943, he was drafted into the Air Force.

DR. WILLIAM K. RAMSTAD
Comes to Marin campus

AIR FORCE

He served four years with the Eighth Air Force in Europe, flying 20 combat missions as a B-24 navigator during World War II. After he returned from service, he applied for his bachelor of arts degree from Pacific Lutheran University and received it without returning to the college in 1947.

He worked a short while at various office jobs, then, at 26, he decided to be a teacher, and returned to Pacific Lutheran to receive his bachelor of education degree in 1949. He taught fifth grade classes with Shorline public schools, Seattle, for two years, then a series of promotions began and in the next 16 years he served as assistant principal, principal, assistant and acting district superintendent, and president of the district community college.

FIRST COLLEGE

His work as college president there will stand him in good stead as preparations continue to open the College of Marin's north campus, because, as president of the district's first college, he assisted in its design and development.

He spent summers teaching at Eastern Washington State College, Pacific Luthern University and Seattle University. He took two years off from his work at Shorline from 1961 to 1963, to earn his doctor of education degree at Stanford University. As a graduate student at Stanford he directed a Ford Foundation project.

In 1966 he went to the Palo Alto Unified School District as assistant superintendent, with major responsibility for planning and construction of new facilities.

His divorce from his first wife was final in January. His daughter, Mary Lynn Ramstad, 21, is a senior at Pacific Lutheran University, and plans to be a teacher, and his son, Tim, 17, is a high school senior in Seattle.

IN HAWAII

He married Betty Ann Barrett of Mountain View July 2 at Stanford and the couple spent their honeymoon last week in Kauai, Hawaii.

He accepted the College of Marin post in March without ever having seen the college, but he already has some ideas about ways in which he hopes to see the college improve.

He feels the faculty should have more responsibility in administrative decisions, he feels the college needs a new library, and he plans to make a thorough review of the curriculum to be certain that the college is doing all it can to serve its different kinds of students, those who will continue at other colleges, those who will leave the college to start a career and those who are still unsure what they will do, as he was at their age.

Death Due To Drowning

An autopsy report on a Mill Valley man, found in a city park creek June 29, indicates he died from drowning, Deputy Marin County Coroner Keith Craig said today.

Robert S. Dingle, 39, of 511 East Blithedale Avenue apparently tripped while walking home through Boyle Park and fell into Warner Creek, cutting his head as he fell down a 15-foot embankment, he said.

The death was listed as accidental at the time but confirmation was delayed pending the autopsy report.

Tiburon Plans Board Seeks Rule Shakeup

Tiburon Planning Commission recommended last night the authority to approve master plans be removed from the board of design review to a meeting of the full planning commission, according to secretary Phil V. Scott.

The decision reverses one made in January by council, which passed the ordinance establishing, with commission approval, the board composed of two planning commissions.

It was the only major change recommended in a four-hour meeting last night, in which 15 minor revisions of the text of a proposed zoning ordinance were made by the commission.

In the third and final session this week on the ordinance, only a handful of people were in the audience, Scott reported.

Revisions of zoning regulations and their administration made last night will be added to 40 others made in earlier sessions and will be reviewed by the council Monday.

Tiburon Train For Tourists Now Unlikely

Visions of a short train on the Northwestern Pacific Railroad tracks in Tiburon dimmed last night when the originator of the plan outlined drawbacks for the park and recreation commission.

Vincent Tobin of Point Reyes said it wasn't economically feasible to run the train from Tiburon to Strawberry, but only to Trestle Glen, Russell Wilkerson, commission secretary, reported.

Commissioners also disagreed with Tobin that the train would be principally for use by tourists, as they wanted shuttle transportation for residents, Wilkerson reported.

The commission approved plans submitted by Chairman Irving Moulin for lanscaping Tiburon Boulevard on the Tiburon side of Lagoon Road.

Mrs. Samuel Mann, head of the Belvedere committee for its Lagoon Road Park, has agreed to purchase and plant the trees, if Tiburon will maintain the landscaping.

Wilkerson said the maintenance decision will probably not be made by the council until it learns whether Tiburon's budget will allow hiring of another public works man.

Youth Arrested On Dope Charge

An 18-year-old San Rafael youth was booked in county jail early today on suspicion of being under the influence of narcotics.

Douglas W. Muhley of 1016 Los Gamos Road remained in jail at noon today in lieu of $29 bail.

Police said they received an anonymous call at 12:29 a.m. saying "there is a short, skinny, white male with long blond hair selling marijuana and other drugs at Bermuda Palms, 1137 Francisco Boulevard."

Officers located Muhley and found in his pocket a "dent spoon," used by narcotics addicts and evidence of needle marks on the crooks of both elbows, they said.

Community Center Bid Is Accepted

Marin City Community Services District directors last night accepted as low bid on construction of Manzanita Community Center a $279,999 offering by Filippo Construction Co. of San Rafael, reported district architect Karl.Treffinger.

Award of a contract was put off pending completion of an agreement by the contractor to guarantee employment of minority workers, which will be discussed with the contractor and his sub-contractors 10 a.m. Wednesday in the Filippo office at 81 Joseph Court.

Only other bid July 11 on the project was $315,890 by Crown Development Co. of San Rafael. Treffinger had estimated cost at $284,300.

Total cost of the project is estimated at $379,450. The federal Department of Housing and Urban Development granted $252,967 to the center.

Calendars began to flourish as advertising medium late in the 19th century.

MARIN'S VOTE SHRINKS AS BAY BOARD GROWS

Marin County's voting power in the Association of Bay Area Governments was cut last night when the executive committee of ABAG adopted a system of proportional representation.

The county will still have two members on the executive committee, reported Warren Schmid, executive director, but size of the committee has been raised from 20 to 34.

The increase changes Marin's proportion of the total votes from 10 per cent to 5.9 per cent.

ABAG Favors Rec Projects

Marin County park and recreation projects totalling more than $1.1 million were approved last night by the executive committee of the Association of Bay Area Governments.

Warren Schmid, executive director of ABAG, said the projects approved will be submitted to the U.S. Department of the Interior for federal financing.

The largest single amount was $816,000 requested for purchase of land at San Pedro Pt. Beach on San Pablo Bay. The other projects approved were: $200,000 for construction at Stafford Lake; $87,000 to purchase land at the entrance of Muir Woods National Monument; and $10,200 to acquire land for the Dip-sea trail from Mill Valley to Stinson Beach.

Check Suspect Surrenders To Deputies

Bennie Murie, 21, was booked at the county jail Wednesday night on charges of passing bad checks after he walked into the sheriff's office to give himself up.

Murie, who could give no official address, was charged by Fairfax police for writing $145 in worthless checks in the past three months.

Officer Myron Mac Neil said Murie admitted to passing the checks in Fairfax, San Anselmo, San Rafael and Mill Valley, and to sighing the fictious name of Jay Ray to them.

Murie was released on his own recognizance after voluntarily surrendering. He is scheduled to appear in Marin Superior Court next Thursday.

Budget Balancing Fee Hike Possible For Marinwood

The Marinwood Community Services District Board whittled more than $16,000 from its budget last night, but warned an increase in recreation fees may be needed to balance it.

The proposed budget now totals $126,352, reported Mrs. Genevieve Bolding, district business manager-secretary. Estimated revenue from property taxes, fees and unexpended funds totals $122,065.

Mrs. Bolding said the $4,287 difference will either have to be borne by increases in fees for district recreational activities or be wiped out through further budget cuts. This will be discussed at 8 p.m. Monday in the community center, when the board has scheduled adoption of the budget.

Among previous budget appropriations eliminated last night were: $2,500 each for the district park master plan and development of a new tot lot; $2,000 for a storage shed; $1,300 for street and park landscaping, and $948 for six alarm units for volunteer firemen's homes.

The district operates with a maximum tax rate of $1 per $100 assessed valuation. Total property taxes revenues for the next fiscal year are estimated at $80,300, up $7,389. Assessed valuation is estimated at $8.1 million, up 12 per cent.

The budget is up about $16,000 from last year, and still includes $3,000 toward payments for a new fire truck and a two-and-one-half per cent pay increase for the district's seven paid employees, which is above their normal five per cent annual hike.

The board also voted last night to clear weeds that present a fire hazard on two lots on Opalstone Drive and Elvia Court, whose owners were previously notified to cut them, but failed to do so.

Hiring of a fireman and discussion of pool vandalism also are scheduled for Monday's meeting.

Dear Member:

Your attention is being called to two serious tax increase measures now pending before the Senate of the California Legislature. They are Assembly Bill 1290 (Foran) and Assembly Bill 2092 (Lanterman). These bills have passed the Assembly and are now before the Senate for action.

The Foran bill, AB 1290, would increase the license fee on all motor vehicles by 25%, and the Lanterman bill, AB 2092, would impose the state and local sales tax on gasoline. These two measures would increase the taxes on California motor vehicle owners by approximately $160,000,000 in 1968. And this amount would increase each year thereafter.

Even more serious to motor vehicle owners, however, is the fact that these proposed tax increases are separate and apart from, and are in addition to, the proposed $1-billion tax increase which the Legislature is considering to meet the increasing costs of State government. Motor vehicle owners will pay a substantial amount of such tax increase. We recognize that this may be necessary, for all should share in the general costs of government.

The purpose of the Foran and Lanterman bills, however, is to impose new and heavy tax burdens on motor vehicle owners primarily for the purpose of subsidizing mass transit programs in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

While the CSAA recognizes the importance of adequate public transportation, we believe it is unfair to ask the motorists to assume the costs of its financing and making up any of its operating deficits. If you agree with the unfairness of these proposed heavy tax increases on motor vehicle owners, please urge your State Senator to vote against the Foran and Lanterman bills.

Please write, phone or wire your views to your State Senator. Do it today!

Sincerely,

Harry D. Holt

New College Chief On Job

Ramstad In Teaching Tradition

By CAROL MARSH

Dr. William K. Ramstad, 44, moved into a new job as president of the College of Marin and into a new San Rafael apartment with his bride of one week this week.

Ramstad's life has taken many such changes in direction. His father, Dr. A. W. Ramstad is chairman emeritus of the Department of Chemistry, Pacific Lutheran University, Seattle. His mother was a teacher, his sister married a teacher and his first wife was a teacher, but Ramstad never thought of being a teacher until he had finished college, served four years in the Air Force and worked at various office jobs for a short while.

He was born in Seattle and attended Pacific Lutheran University with the intention of being a lawyer. In his senior year he entered the University of Washington law school and married his first wife. Three months before he would have received his bachelor of arts degree, in March, 1943, he was drafted into the Air Force.

DR. WILLIAM K. RAMSTAD

AIR FORCE

He served four years with the Eighth Air Force in Europe, flying 20 combat missions as a B-24 navigator during World War II. After he returned from service, he applied for his bachelor of arts degree from Pacific Lutheran University and received it without returning to the college in 1947.

He worked a short while at various office jobs, then, at 26, he decided to be a teacher, and returned to Pacific Lutheran to receive his bachelor of education degree in 1949. He taught fifth grade classes with Shorline public schools, Seattle, for two years, then a series of promotions began and in the next 16 years he served as assistant principal, principal, assistant and acting district superintendent, and president of the district community college.

FIRST COLLEGE

His work as college president there will stand him in good stead as preparations continue to open the College of Marin's north campus, because, as president of the district's first college, he assisted in its design and development.

He spent summers teaching at Eastern Washington State College, Pacific Luthern University and Seattle University. He took two years off from his work at Shorline from 1961 to 1963, to earn his doctor of education degree at Stanford University. As a graduate student at Stanford he directed a Ford Foundation project.

In 1966 he went to the Palo Alto Unified School District as assistant superintendent, with major responsibility for planning and construction of new facilities.

His divorce from his first wife was final in January. His daughter, Mary Lynn Ramstad, 21, is a senior at Pacific Lutheran University, and plans to be a teacher, and his son, Tim, 17, is a high school senior in Seattle.

IN HAWAII

He married Betty Ann Barrett of Mountain View July 2 at Stanford and the couple spent their honeymoon last week in Kauai, Hawaii.

He accepted the College of Marin post in March without ever having seen the college, but he already has some ideas about ways in which he hopes to see the college improve.

He feels the faculty should have more responsibility in administrative decisions, he feels the college needs a new library, and he plans to make a thorough review of the curriculum to be certain that the college is doing all it can to serve its different kinds of students, those who will continue at other colleges, those who will leave the college to start a career and those who are still unsure what they will do, as he was at their age.

Tiburon Plans Board Seeks Rule Shakeup

Tiburon Planning Commission recommended last night the authority to approve master plans be removed from the board of design review to a meeting of the full planning commission, according to secretary Phil V. Scott.

The decision reverses one made in January by council, which passed the ordinance establishing, with commission approval, the board composed of two planning commissions.

It was the only major change recommended in a four-hour meeting last night, in which 15 minor revisions of the text of a proposed zoning ordinance were made by the commission.

In the third and final session this week on the ordinance, only a handful of people were in the audience, Scott reported.

Revisions of zoning regulations and their administration made last night will be added to 40 others made in earlier sessions and will be reviewed by the council Monday.

Death Due To Drowning

An autopsy report on a Mill Valley man, found in a city park creek June 29, indicates he died from drowning, Deputy Marin County Coroner Keith Craig said today.

Robert S. Dingle, 39, of 511 East Blithedale Avenue apparently tripped while walking home through Boyle Park and fell into Warner Creek, cutting his head as he fell down a 15-foot embankment, he said.

The death was listed as accidental at the time but confirmation was delayed pending the autopsy report.

Tiburon Train For Tourists Now Unlikely

Visions of a short train on the Northwestern Pacific Railroad tracks in Tiburon dimmed last night when the originator of the plan outlined drawbacks for the park and recreation commission.

Vincent Tobin of Point Reyes said it wasn't economically feasible to run the train from Tiburon to Strawberry, but only to Trestle Glen, Russell Wilkerson, commission secretary, reported.

Commissioners also disagreed with Tobin that the train would be principally for use by tourists, as they wanted shuttle transportation for residents, Wilkerson reported.

The commission approved plans submitted by Chairman Irving Moulin for lanscaping Tiburon Boulevard on the Tiburon side of Lagoon Road.

Mrs. Samuel Mann, head of the Belvedere committee for its Lagoon Road Park, has agreed to purchase and plant the trees, if Tiburon will maintain the landscaping.

Wilkerson said the maintenance decision will probably not be made by the council until it learns whether Tiburon's budget will allow hiring of another public works man.

Youth Arrested On Dope Charge

An 18-year-old San Rafael youth was booked in county jail early today on suspicion of being under the influence of narcotics.

Douglas W. Muhley of 1016 Los Gamos Road remained in jail at noon today in lieu of $29 bail.

Police said they received an anonymous call at 12:29 a.m. saying "there is a short, skinny, white male with long blond hair selling marijuana and other drugs at Bermuda Palms, 1137 Francisco Boulevard."

Officers located Muhley and found in his pocket a "dent spoon," used by narcotics addicts and evidence of needle marks on the crooks of both elbows, they said.

Community Center Bid Is Accepted

Marin City Community Services District directors last night accepted as low bid on construction of Manzanita Community Center a $279,999 offering by Filippo Construction Co. of San Rafael, reported district architect Karl.Treffinger.

Award of a contract was put off pending completion of an agreement by the contractor to guarantee employment of minority workers, which will be discussed with the contractor and his sub-contractors 10 a.m. Wednesday in the Filippo office at 81 Joseph Court.

Only other bid July 11 on the project was $315,890 by Crown Development Co. of San Rafael. Treffinger had estimated cost at $284,300.

Total cost of the project is estimated at $379,450. The federal Department of Housing and Urban Development granted $252,967 to the center.

Calendars began to flourish as advertising medium late in the 19th century.

MARIN'S VOTE SHRINKS AS BAY BOARD GROWS

Marin County's voting power in the Association of Bay Area Governments was cut last night when the executive committee of ABAG adopted a system of proportional representation.

The county will still have two members on the executive committee, reported Warren Schmid, executive director, but size of the committee has been raised from 20 to 34.

The increase changes Marin's proportion of the total votes from 10 per cent to 5.9 per cent.

ABAG Favors Rec Projects

Marin County park and recreation projects totalling more than $1.1 million were approved last night by the executive committee of the Association of Bay Area Governments.

Warren Schmid, executive director of ABAG, said the projects approved will be submitted to the U.S. Department of the Interior for federal financing.

The largest single amount was $816,000 requested for purchase of land at San Pedro Pt. Beach on San Pablo Bay. The other projects approved were: $200,000 for construction at Stafford Lake; $87,000 to purchase land at the entrance of Muir Woods National Monument; and $10,200 to acquire land for the Dip-sea trail from Mill Valley to Stinson Beach.

Check Suspect Surrenders To Deputies

Bennie Murie, 21, was booked at the county jail Wednesday night on charges of passing bad checks after he walked into the sheriff's office to give himself up.

Murie, who could give no official address, was charged by Fairfax police for writing $145 in worthless checks in the past three months.

Officer Myron Mac Neil said Murie admitted to passing the checks in Fairfax, San Anselmo, San Rafael and Mill Valley, and to sighing the fictious name of Jay Ray to them.

Murie was released on his own recognizance after voluntarily surrendering. He is scheduled to appear in Marin Superior Court next Thursday.

Budget Balancing Fee Hike Possible For Marinwood

The Marinwood Community Services District Board whittled more than $16,000 from its budget last night, but warned an increase in recreation fees may be needed to balance it.

The proposed budget now totals $126,352, reported Mrs. Genevieve Bolding, district business manager-secretary. Estimated revenue from property taxes, fees and unexpended funds totals $122,065.

Mrs. Bolding said the $4,287 difference will either have to be borne by increases in fees for district recreational activities or be wiped out through further budget cuts. This will be discussed at 8 p.m. Monday in the community center, when the board has scheduled adoption of the budget.

Among previous budget appropriations eliminated last night were: $2,500 each for the district park master plan and development of a new tot lot; $2,000 for a storage shed; $1,300 for street and park landscaping, and $948 for six alarm units for volunteer firemen's homes.

The district operates with a maximum tax rate of $1 per $100 assessed valuation. Total property taxes revenues for the next fiscal year are estimated at $80,300, up $7,389. Assessed valuation is estimated at $8.1 million, up 12 per cent.

The budget is up about $16,000 from last year, and still includes $3,000 toward payments for a new fire truck and a two-and-one-half per cent pay increase for the district's seven paid employees, which is above their normal five per cent annual hike.

The board also voted last night to clear weeds that present a fire hazard on two lots on Opalstone Drive and Elvia Court, whose owners were previously notified to cut them, but failed to do so.

Hiring of a fireman and discussion of pool vandalism also are scheduled for Monday's meeting.

Jordan Martinelli, vice president of the savings and loan association and owner of a commercial building in downtown San Anselmo, volunteered at a meeting of merchants and property owners July 13 to head a committee to get the work started.

The chamber plans an invitational art show for Marin artists in San Anselmo Sept. 27 through Oct. 1, as part of San Anselmo's 60th anniversary celebration.

The chamber also decided to start a monthly newsletter, the first issue expected next week.

Couple Seeking Legal Aide In Unusual Form

A Mill Valley couple yesterday took the rather unusual step of advertising in the Independent-Journal for an attorney "to handle air-tight case against City of Mill Valley."

Mr. and Mrs. Kenwood J. Brouillette, 465 East Blithedale Avenue, have been arguing with the city for almost four years that a triplex next door was illegal, and should be forced by the city to revert to a single-family residence.

A voluminous file in city hall shows almost monthly correspondence between city officials, the Brouillettes, the present owner of the triplex and their attorneys. The correspondence started more than two years ago, and runs right up to this month.

The city's position consistently has been that it was up to the Brouillettes to prove the triplex at 463 East Blithedale has been non-conforming for less than 10 years, the cut-off which determines whether it is legal or illegal.

There is no doubt that the triplex is non-conforming, since the neighborhood is restricted to single-family houses. The law, however, bars the city from abating a non-conforming use if it is legal.

City Atty. Leland H. Jordan also has advised planning director Harvey E. Bragdon the high cost of litigation requires that the city have proof the triplex is illegal before attempting to force reversion to single-family use.

The Brouillettes say they bought their house in February, 1963, and that the house next door was occupied by a single family until sold the following fall. After the sale, they claim, it was converted to three apartments in two structures.

The Brouillettes and present owner of the triplex, Michael M. Manning, 216 Reed Street, Mill Valley, each claim they can produce statements from former residents of the neighborhood proving their respective, but opposite, statements of the "facts."

Mrs. Brouillette declined to state whether she or her husband had tried to hire an attorney through more conventional means.

Assessment Level Figures

Marin County's preliminary property assessment level reached 22 per cent of market value this year as compared to a statewide average of 23.1 per cent, according to figures released by the State Board of Equalization.

Board appraisals this year revealed the county to be short of its 23 per cent goal but up from last year's 20.7 per cent. All counties are required to assess at 25 per cent of market value by 1971.

The exact ratios will be determined Aug. 23 after the county assessors discuss preliminary ratios with the state board.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Si's Charbroiler Is Operating In Town And Country Village

A new restaurant operation that opened this week at 601 Strawberry Town and Country Village is known as Si's Charbroiler.

Owner Simon Furman has been serving University of California students through two similar establishments in Berkeley for 21 years — and he has another one in Oakland. He's now looking over the possibilities for still further expansion in Marin.

He describes his type of service as "hoff broiler" — or "half hof brau and half broiler." This means he specialzies in broiled hamburgers and steaks on one hand and also the delicatessen type of sandwiches (corned beef, pastrami and the like).

The restaurant is self-service, but with all table seating. Prices range from 50 cents to $1.85 for a dinner steak.

In charge at Strawberry are Johnnie and Susan Robinson, recently from London and now living in Tiburon Village. Johnnie is also a pianist and was professional host and band leader at the White Bear in Picadilly Circus for several years.

Hours are now from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. Mondays through Saturdays, but as soon as a beer license application had been approved, Friday and Saturday hours will be extended to 1 a.m. This should be before the end of the month.

And there will be piano playing those evenings, with Johnnie at the keys.

COREY'S in downtown San Rafael won't be opened until next week — possibly on Monday. At least that's the day proprietor Antonio Gutierrez hopes he can start serving. The teamsters strike slowed down delivery of needed equipment.

Once open, Corey's will be on a seven-day-a-week schedule from 7 a.m. Breakfasts, iunches and dinners.

A CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION and gaily decorated tree in July may seem to be twisting the calendar too severely, but it is done occasionally — and now in Sausalito, where just about anything goes.

Next Tuesday, July 25, there will be a "Christmas in July" party at Walt Silva's Plaza Bar on the Bridgeway. Vi Guilder and Leon Alvey of the Village Florist are decorating the windows with snow and wreaths and the inside with greens bows and bayberry candles.

There will be an eight-foot Christmas tree — and the party starts at 7 p.m. with champagne served until 8. Canapes and Santa Claus to give out wrapped gifts to all the ladies conplete this midyear Yuletide picture.

UNDER ITS SUMMER SCHEDULE, Eugene's Country Club Restaurant, San Rafael is now closing Saturday and Sunday evening — so no dinner will be served those days. That is, unless you can persuade yourself to eat before the 3 p.m. hour of closing.

ORIGIN OF THE PIZZA seems to be somewhat obscure. It's been said the first pizzas to be served in public eating places started in this country with the Italians — not in Italy. And I have heard it stated that this was in San Francisco, though it has also been attributed to New York and even St. Louis. There is always someone to refute one story and come up with another.

In any event, pizzas are popular now from coast to coast as a toothsome low cost meal. They go well with beer and with wine and for the teenagers with cokes. A medium-size pizza can feed four faces, a large one six. Whether it began in Italy or not, to most of us it's as Italian as raviloi or scallopini and it usually is turned out in two dozen or more varieties. The only complaint I have is that occasionally you'll find them too heavy with oregano.

As in other areas, there are a dozen or more pizzerias in Marin, and pizzas are also featured at some regular Italian restaurants. If you have never consumed this type of fare it's well worth the experience. Just don't go overboard as I did once and figure on eating a whole pizza all by yourself — at one sitting. The big size, that is.

THIS REMINDS ME that Warren Lubich is celebrating his second year at the piano in Shakey's Pizza Parlor this month, where he is teamed with banjoist Doug Karr. They entertain Friday and Saturday nights from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

IF YOU DON'T SEE Hector Rubini and Guido Farina of San Rafael Joe's on the golf course anymore it's because both of them have ranches that occupy their Sundays off. Hector's place is big enough to build three golf courses, but he's more interested in building up his cattle herd and a new house.

A WINE TASTING of 27 different French, German and Italian wines, sponsored by the Gourmet Club of Marin, is programmed for tonight and enophiles are invited.

It will be held at 8 p.m. at the Unitarian Church of Marin, 240 Channing Way (just north and east of the Terra Linda turnoff from Highway 101). The tasting will include cheeses of theMarin French Cheese Factory and a donation of $2 per person will be in order. Import firm Browne Vintners will make the presentation. Call either the church or Robert F. Kaufmann for further information. You'll find them listed in the telephone book.

OUT OF TOWN. The Quake, San Francisco's newest theater-cabaret at 950 Bush Street, will have its grand opening Tuesday. Arthur Lewis is said to have spent $100,000 restoring this spot. Highlights of each performance is its climax — an engineering trick recapturing the tremors of 1906. . . . On Wednesday, the On Broadway (535 Broadway) officially becomes Purple Onion Two. The changeover inaugurates a new entertainment policy and show. Owner Keith Rockwell opened the original Purple Onion in 1953. . . . The Golden Pavilion at Sacramento Street and Grant Avenue now features KSFR stereo luncheon broadcasts Tuesdays and Thursdays between 1 and 2 p.m., with both music and interviews with celebrities and Bay Area personalitites

Marinite Safe In Honolulu

Tom Witzel, 18, of Belvedere, has arrived safely in Honolulu aboard the 62-foot sloop, Rampage, his mother, Mrs. Everett M. Witzel reported yesterday.

The Rampage, on which Witzel is a crew member, was towed to Ala Wai Yacht Harbor after losing its rudder Saturday about 500 miles northeast of Honolulu during the Trans-Pacific Ocean Race.

The Coast Guard tender Planetree joined the sloop about midnight Monday, and the two reached Honolulu by 8 a.m. Wednesday.

Fishing Boat Is Released

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Coast Guard announced yesterday the release of a Japanese fishing trawler seized Sunday for fishing in U.S. territorial waters off Alaska.

A Coast Guard spokesman said that Masami Miyamoto, master of the Tenyu Maru, was fined $5,000 in federal court in Adak, Alaska, yesterday.

He paid the fine promptly and a Coast Guard vessel escorted his ship out to sea, the spokesman said.

How to keep in the swim

...and keep your interests very much afloat

It's pretty obvious we're telling you that the I-J will keep you "up," keep your mind buoyant, keep you in the swim of affairs.

But maybe it's NOT so obvious that your newspaper can do so many things IN ONE ISSUE that no other medium of communication can approach.

Think about it: immediate news of the entire world . . . today's happenings for tonight's reading. We take you to Viet Nam, to Washington . . . to the Giants game wherever they play. To city hall, to the top food specials at your market. To the courts, to auto row; we run off today's stocks for you, show you the latest in fashions, and tell you what's on TV.

But we don't just flash the news; we report it, check on it, give you details that give you full perspective and thorough information. Sports, women's affairs, financial news, the latest in education, politics, science, health, menus, entertainment — the list is never-ending.

Look what it does for you: opens your mind; gives you a sense of belonging to your community; improves your judgment on public affairs. Yes, and through the ads, leads you to exciting buys and welcome savings.

New Federal Statute Lifts Veil Of Secrecy

This month's anniversary of Independence Day differed from most in a special way, unbeknownst to most Americans.

A brick was added to the structure of freedom on July 4, for on that date a new federal anti-secrecy law, signed a year earlier by President Johnson, went into effect.

In essence, the new law strips from officials — both large and small — of federal agencies their self-designated right to withhold from the public records of the proceedings, operations and decisions of their agencies.

"Every agency shall make available to the public the following information."

"By its first two words, the introductory clause of the enactment makes it clear at the outset that its requirements are to apply to every department, board, commission, division, or other organizational unit on the executive branch."

Thus, in Marin County, the public disclosure statute applies not only to such federal offices as the Post Office, Bureau of Mines, National Park Service, etc., but also to those administering the Economic Opportunity Act in its various phases — even though they sometimes operate from county or district offices — since they are agencies of the executive branch of the federal government.

It applies also to the Housing Authority and Redevelopment Agency, since they also operate as local appendages of the federal executive.

The new law decrees that, upon request, an agency must make "promptly available to any person" (a) all final opinions, including concurring and dissenting opinions, (b) statements of policy and interpretations adopted by the agency, and (c) administrative staff manuals and instructions to staff that affect any member of the public.

If any person is denied the right to see such records, the act continues, he may complain to the U. S. District Court. "The court shall determine the matter de novo and the burden shall be upon the agency to sustain its action," continues the law. Moreover, it provides that "proceedings before the district court as authorized by this subsection shall take precedence on the docket over all other causes and shall be assigned for hearing and trial at the earliest practicable date and expedited in every way."

Prior to July 4, the Administrative Procedure Act allowed federal agency officials to decide what was "in the pubic interest" to withhold from the public. This proved a convenient screen behind which to hide the public's business from the public's view.

The new law makes it abundantly clear that the officials have no such right.

There are exceptions. The military, dealing with national defense, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation, dealing with criminal investigation, retain their rights to decide what can be told. But the veil is lifted from the operations of nearly all the government's multitude of agencies. Now the rule is: Ask for what you want to know, and it must be shown you.

San Rafael's Frogs

Along the Bret Harte Canal this time of year yards and gardens swarm with frogs and toads. Mostly little fellows the size of your thumbnail, perfectly formed.

A friend, whose backyard is right on the canal, tells us, "I never intentionally hit one, but I feel like a butcher just mowing the lawn."

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

William Patrick, The Maverick, Begins Mending Political Fence

By WAT TAKESHITA

It must have been quite an effort for personally ambitious William Penn Patrick, San Rafael cosmetics king, to throw his support and money behind Max Rafferty instead of running for the U.S. Senate seat himself.

Having incurred the wrath of Republican Party regulars by refusing to go through channels and jumping into the gubernatorial race completely on his own last year, Patrick has a lot of fence-mending to do before he can expect any widespread backing from the party machinery.

Takeshita

Backing Rafferty is one form of fence-mending. If Dr. Rafferty does enter the race for U.S. Senate against incumbent Thomas H. Kuchel and makes a good showing, Patrick's stock will rise, at least in the eyes of conservative Republicans. He will have attained some status as a faithful party worker instead of a fiercely independent maverick intent only on seeking his own personal advancement.

Gov. Ronald Reagan has never directly criticized Patrick, but his displeasure with some of Patrick's past actions and statements are quite evident. At this week's press conference, the governor had this to say about Patrick's decision to support Dr. Rafferty:

"I'm still hoping there won't be a divisive primary. I'm glad to see he (Patrick) has returned to the fold from the third party movement."

STILL ANOTHER possible candidate is being mentioned for the post of supervisor in the Fourth District, now held by Thomas T. Storer.

He is Robert A. Roumiguiere of San Rafael, who heads an investment counseling and financing firm. Others mentioned for supervisor are Chuck Pendleton and James Dougan.

MARIN COUNTY would have been cut in half, under a Congressional reapportionment plan devised by the State Senate Elections and Reapportionment Committee.

Under that plan, southern Marin would have joined San Francisco's Fifth Congressional District, represented by Philip Burton. Central and northern Marin would have remained in Congressman Clausen's First district. Clausen's district would have taken Lake County and given up Napa County to Congressman Robert L. Leggett's Fourth district.

SEN. JOHN F. McCARTHY, R-San Rafael, and his Republican Colleagues in the Senate rejected the reapportionment proposal. McCarthy had two main objections: It would divide Marin into two Congressional districts, and the 1960 population census figures are out of date making it wiser to wait for 1970 census figures before reapportioning the districts.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Indeed 'Cookie' Will Be Missed

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Remember "Cookie"? You bet. Back in 1939, Miss Cunningham sent us to Souza's Grocery on Fourth Street and allowed us to charge food in the amount of $1.00. We learned to buy wisely, balance the budget, have a grand time preparing and serving a nutritious meal for four people with this small allowance.

This teaching has stayed with me, as it has with hundreds of "Cookie's" other students. San Rafael High School has lost a grand person. I know I speak for many girl graduates (and a few men) who will miss her. She made our lives a little bit brighter.

Your "kids" will miss you, "Cookie," but forget you? Never!

Student Activist Study Misstated

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your editorial of June 12, 1967 seriously misstates the results of our study of student activists, under the headline, "U.C. Research Supports Strict Child Discipline." The conclusion is so much at variance with our own as to be amusing if it were not also misleading and troublesome. The findings do not support a return to strict discipline, nor do they support the grossly defined opposite — permissiveness. We request that you print this clarification of our results since they suggest a choice rather than dictate a solution.

If parents prefer that by the time of young adulthood their offspring should be curious, artistic, idealistic, creative, open, argumentative, and sometimes rebellious on matters of principle, then they should probably allow and admit conflict within the family, they should reason with their children, encourage them to think and wonder about the world and life, respect their opinions, encourage them to associate with a wide variety of people, and, when necessary, employ a variety of approaches to discipline other than reliance on the rod — physical punishment. These kinds of parental behaviors tended to result in student activists. UC findings and results of other studies from different parts of the country — Chicago, Pennslyvania — also show that the activist students attain a higher grade point average; ours additionally show that the moral reasoning of greater numbers of activists is principled instead of erratic and opportunistic or merely conventional.

If, on the other hand, parents want their offspring as young adults to be conventional, competitive, ambitious, practical, responsible, etc., then they should use physical punishment, teach their children that punishment will come if they are bad, closely supervise their children, and evidence concern about their health, etc.

Different methods of child raising, that is, have quite different consequences, and it is not the intent of our study to insist that one of these ways is the best. Obviously, both carry their own hazards and irritations for the young, for parents, and for society. We would like your readers to know that the "experts" from UC support people's right to make a choice. We also insist that "permissiveness" is an ill-defined, much misunderstood and maligned word that needs specification before it can be understood.

As citizens we would add that the activist students care a great deal about their country, much more than the politically apathetic students who are statistically more frequent, and more than the "hippies." Society needs this kind of passionate commitment and dissenting loyalty, and it is congruent with the traditional American ethos. To want to change the way things are done is to care, and when our young people become disengaged and disillusioned, we face a much more serious problem.

Sincerely yours,

Spock Was Used As 'Whipping Boy'

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your recent editorial concerning spanking and a not so subtle attack on Dr. Spock was unfair to Dr. Spock and his philosophy. It is also apparent that you have read little of Dr. Spock or that you were looking for a "whipping boy," and he just happened to come to mind as being someone we could unite around to blame for all of our juvenile problems, both adult and child.

To conclude that Dr. Spock is responsible for creating a permissive attitude is just as foolish as having someone conclude from your editorial advocating spanking that you are responsible for the parents who make punching bags of their children to insure discipline and a "correct" attitude about authority.

The study you mentioned to support your point of view is probably correct in its conclusions, but it does not necessarily follow that the opposite behavior on the part of parents would have prevented what occurred at the university. If you believe this then you not only know little about Dr. Spock, you know considerably less about this society and what motivates people to violate its laws, whatever the law they violate may be.

"If an angry parent keeps himself from spanking, he may show his irritation in other ways, for instance, by nagging the child for half a day, or trying to make him feel deeply guilty. I'm not particularly advocating spanking, but I think it is less poisonous than lengthy disapproval, because it clears the air, for parent and child . . . we ought to realize that it (punishment) is never the main element in discipline — it's only a vigorous additional reminder that the parent feels strongly about what he says . . . The main source of good discipline is growing up in a loving family — being loved and learning to love in return."

Your editorial in the July 11 edition of the I-J referred to S.B. 1539. This bill would provide each state senator a $10,000 per year fringe benefit fund to be used for "image polishing!"

I am amazed that Senator McCarthy would even support such an idea, let alone cosponsor such a bill!

I propose that if this bill is passed our next election should be to reduce the salaries of senators by $12,000.

Race Riots Continuing Circle Of Inaction, Poverty, Violence

WASHINGTON—Despite the Newark race riots, there is a wide Negro and white common front against violence.

Responsible Negro and white leaders join in totally condemning this rioting as evil, purposeless, and self-destructive and completely reject it as of value to anybody.

Responsible Negro and white leaders are equally aware that this violence does not flare up without a cause and that, if we let anger deter us from dealing with the causes, we will be piling up tinder which somebody will light.

JUST BEFORE the violence broke in Newark, Sen. Edward W. Brooke of Massachusetts spoke for the best in all of us, not just for his race, in warning that "riots and violence are the mortal enemies, not the servants, of the civil rights movement."

And both the leadership and the membership of the NAACP backed up Senator Brooke's view without reservation. Its resolution condemning the riot and calling upon "all law-abiding citizens of both races to act promptly and sternly to put down such violence" was not passed just overwhelmingly; it was passed unanimously.

What is crucial is to build a wider common front to do at every level of government — from slum ghetto to city hall to Congress and the White House — more of what needs to be done to reduce Negro proverty, to better Negro education and job training, and to improve Negro living conditions.

THESE CONDITIONS do not justify resort to violence, but we must break the vicious circle in which the Negro poor feel that the only way they can get attention is by rioting and more and more whites turn against what needs to be done because of the rioting.

However understandable, the Negro rioting is self-defeating.

However understandable, the white resistance — born of the rioting — to doing what is needed to deal faithfully with the Negro poor, is self-defeating.

This is the vicious circle which must be broken, for Senator Brooke is assuredly right when he says that, if any arm of government "out of fear or anger continues to choose the path of inaction, racial violence in the United States will not only continue, it will recur with increasing intensity."

NEW JERSEY Gov. Richard Hughes is completely accurate and profoundly misleading in saying that the Newark rioting was not a "civil rights protest" but a "criminal insurrection."

It is true that the violence did not spring up merely because some constitutional civil right had been denied, but it was a racial uprising and it does not help one whit to pretend otherwise.

We need to keep in mind:

That the racial problem in the cities where the sparks of violence are close to the surface is not primarily a matter of extending equal legal rights; that's been done.

THAT THE REAL RACIAL problem is long accumulated, long un-redressed wrongs which are the inherited blight of slavery and unequal opportunity after slavery.

There is white poverty, but Negro poverty is worse. There is unemployment among whites, but far more unemployment among Negroes. Education for Negroes is improving, but a century of inferior educational opportunity leaves many Negroes unequipped to live and work in today's complex, skill-required society.

Government at every level has a special obligation and a high-priority need to help the Negro poor help themselves because equal opportunity has been so long denied them.

Senate Republicans Eyeing Demo Seats

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

Latest confidential survey being studied by the Senate GOP campaign committee gives their party a 50-50 chance of winning seats now held by the following Democratic senators:

George McGovern, S.D.; Edward Long, Mo.; Ernest Gruening, Alaska; George Smathers, Fla.; Carl Hayden, Ariz.; Daniel Brewster, Md.; A. S. Mike Monroney, Okla.; and Joseph Clark, Pa.

The survey indicated that the only Republican senator up for reelection who appears to be in serious trouble is Bourke B. Hickenlooper, Iowa.

Gov. Harold Hughes, Iowa's most popular Democratic office holder in years, is given a 50-50 chance of defeating Hickenlooper, or any other Republican should the aging GOP senator decide not to make the race.

At stake in the 1968 election are 34 seats, 23 now held by Democrats, 11 by Republicans.

ISRAEL'S ATTACK on the Liberty, the Defense Department's communication ship knocked out of action during the Middle East fighting, may have been sparked by a Central Intelligence Agency warning to King Hussein of Jordan.

On June 4, the day before the fighting broke out in the Middle East, the CIA warned the young Jordanian king that Israel would launch an attack within 48 hours and the first strike would be against Arab airfields.

Israel intercepted this report when King Hussein relayed it to other Arab leaders, including Egypt's President Nasser, who for reasons of his own discounted the warning.

Instead of passing the information along to his military commanders, Nasser's only known action was to caution Hussein not to undertake any military move which might precipitate an Israeli attack at that time.

After monitoring the Hussein-Nasser radio-telephone exchanges, Israeli military authorities responded by moving up the hour of their attack against Arab air bases.

Also, an immediate search was ordered by Israeli intelligence to locate a communication ship which was sending coded messages to the U.S. embassy in Amman, Jordan.

The Liberty, which was moving toward the Israeli coast, was located on June 6 by an Israeli reconnaissance plane. After several meetings, the Israeli military command decided on June 7 that the ship had to be put out of operation since it was apparently monitoring military communications. The Israeli attack was launched on June 8.

Only public hint of the CIA's warning to King Hussein has come from Saad Jumaa, Jordan's prime minister. In a little-noticed speech to the Jordanian parliament, the prime minister revealed, "On June 4 King Hussein tried to warn all Arab leaders that Israel would launch her attack within 48 hours." He stated that Hussein sounded the alert after receiving the information "from a reliable foreign source."

PRESIDENT and Mrs. Johnson have agreed to "baby sit" for their new grandson while their daughter Luci and her husband, Patrick Nugent, spend two weeks in August vacationing in Nassau. New Federal Statute Lifts Veil Of Secrecy

This month's anniversary of Independence Day differed from most in a special way, unbeknownst to most Americans.

A brick was added to the structure of freedom on July 4, for on that date a new federal anti-secrecy law, signed a year earlier by President Johnson, went into effect.

In essence, the new law strips from officials — both large and small — of federal agencies their self-designated right to withhold from the public records of the proceedings, operations and decisions of their agencies.

"Every agency shall make available to the public the following information."

"By its first two words, the introductory clause of the enactment makes it clear at the outset that its requirements are to apply to every department, board, commission, division, or other organizational unit on the executive branch."

Thus, in Marin County, the public disclosure statute applies not only to such federal offices as the Post Office, Bureau of Mines, National Park Service, etc., but also to those administering the Economic Opportunity Act in its various phases — even though they sometimes operate from county or district offices — since they are agencies of the executive branch of the federal government.

It applies also to the Housing Authority and Redevelopment Agency, since they also operate as local appendages of the federal executive.

The new law decrees that, upon request, an agency must make "promptly available to any person" (a) all final opinions, including concurring and dissenting opinions, (b) statements of policy and interpretations adopted by the agency, and (c) administrative staff manuals and instructions to staff that affect any member of the public.

If any person is denied the right to see such records, the act continues, he may complain to the U. S. District Court. "The court shall determine the matter de novo and the burden shall be upon the agency to sustain its action," continues the law. Moreover, it provides that "proceedings before the district court as authorized by this subsection shall take precedence on the docket over all other causes and shall be assigned for hearing and trial at the earliest practicable date and expedited in every way."

Prior to July 4, the Administrative Procedure Act allowed federal agency officials to decide what was "in the pubic interest" to withhold from the public. This proved a convenient screen behind which to hide the public's business from the public's view.

The new law makes it abundantly clear that the officials have no such right.

There are exceptions. The military, dealing with national defense, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation, dealing with criminal investigation, retain their rights to decide what can be told. But the veil is lifted from the operations of nearly all the government's multitude of agencies. Now the rule is: Ask for what you want to know, and it must be shown you.

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

William Patrick, The Maverick, Begins Mending Political Fence

By WAT TAKESHITA

Takeshita

It must have been quite an effort for personally ambitious William Penn Patrick, San Rafael cosmetics king, to throw his support and money behind Max Rafferty instead of running for the U.S. Senate seat himself.

Having incurred the wrath of Republican Party regulars by refusing to go through channels and jumping into the gubernatorial race completely on his own last year, Patrick has a lot of fence-mending to do before he can expect any widespread backing from the party machinery.

Backing Rafferty is one form of fence-mending. If Dr. Rafferty does enter the race for U.S. Senate against incumbent Thomas H. Kuchel and makes a good showing, Patrick's stock will rise, at least in the eyes of conservative Republicans. He will have attained some status as a faithful party worker instead of a fiercely independent maverick intent only on seeking his own personal advancement.

Gov. Ronald Reagan has never directly criticized Patrick, but his displeasure with some of Patrick's past actions and statements are quite evident. At this week's press conference, the governor had this to say about Patrick's decision to support Dr. Rafferty:

"I'm still hoping there won't be a divisive primary. I'm glad to see he (Patrick) has returned to the fold from the third party movement."

STILL ANOTHER possible candidate is being mentioned for the post of supervisor in the Fourth District, now held by Thomas T. Storer.

He is Robert A. Roumiguiere of San Rafael, who heads an investment counseling and financing firm. Others mentioned for supervisor are Chuck Pendleton and James Dougan.

MARIN COUNTY would have been cut in half, under a Congressional reapportionment plan devised by the State Senate Elections and Reapportionment Committee.

Under that plan, southern Marin would have joined San Francisco's Fifth Congressional District, represented by Philip Burton. Central and northern Marin would have remained in Congressman Clausen's First district. Clausen's district would have taken Lake County and given up Napa County to Congressman Robert L. Leggett's Fourth district.

SEN. JOHN F. McCARTHY, R-San Rafael, and his Republican Colleagues in the Senate rejected the reapportionment proposal. McCarthy had two main objections: It would divide Marin into two Congressional districts, and the 1960 population census figures are out of date making it wiser to wait for 1970 census figures before reapportioning the districts.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Indeed 'Cookie' Will Be Missed

Remember "Cookie"? You bet. Back in 1939, Miss Cunningham sent us to Souza's Grocery on Fourth Street and allowed us to charge food in the amount of $1.00. We learned to buy wisely, balance the budget, have a grand time preparing and serving a nutritious meal for four people with this small allowance.

This teaching has stayed with me, as it has with hundreds of "Cookie's" other students. San Rafael High School has lost a grand person. I know I speak for many girl graduates (and a few men) who will miss her. She made our lives a little bit brighter.

Your "kids" will miss you, "Cookie," but forget you? Never!

Student Activist Study Misstated

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your editorial of June 12, 1967 seriously misstates the results of our study of student activists, under the headline, "U.C. Research Supports Strict Child Discipline." The conclusion is so much at variance with our own as to be amusing if it were not also misleading and troublesome. The findings do not support a return to strict discipline, nor do they support the grossly defined opposite — permissiveness. We request that you print this clarification of our results since they suggest a choice rather than dictate a solution.

If parents prefer that by the time of young adulthood their offspring should be curious, artistic, idealistic, creative, open, argumentative, and sometimes rebellious on matters of principle, then they should probably allow and admit conflict within the family, they should reason with their children, encourage them to think and wonder about the world and life, respect their opinions, encourage them to associate with a wide variety of people, and, when necessary, employ a variety of approaches to discipline other than reliance on the rod — physical punishment. These kinds of parental behaviors tended to result in student activists. UC findings and results of other studies from different parts of the country — Chicago, Pennslyvania — also show that the activist students attain a higher grade point average; ours additionally show that the moral reasoning of greater numbers of activists is principled instead of erratic and opportunistic or merely conventional.

If, on the other hand, parents want their offspring as young adults to be conventional, competitive, ambitious, practical, responsible, etc., then they should use physical punishment, teach their children that punishment will come if they are bad, closely supervise their children, and evidence concern about their health, etc.

Different methods of child raising, that is, have quite different consequences, and it is not the intent of our study to insist that one of these ways is the best. Obviously, both carry their own hazards and irritations for the young, for parents, and for society. We would like your readers to know that the "experts" from UC support people's right to make a choice. We also insist that "permissiveness" is an ill-defined, much misunderstood and maligned word that needs specification before it can be understood.

As citizens we would add that the activist students care a great deal about their country, much more than the politically apathetic students who are statistically more frequent, and more than the "hippies." Society needs this kind of passionate commitment and dissenting loyalty, and it is congruent with the traditional American ethos. To want to change the way things are done is to care, and when our young people become disengaged and disillusioned, we face a much more serious problem.

Spock Was Used As 'Whipping Boy'

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your recent editorial concerning spanking and a not so subtle attack on Dr. Spock was unfair to Dr. Spock and his philosophy. It is also apparent that you have read little of Dr. Spock or that you were looking for a "whipping boy," and he just happened to come to mind as being someone we could unite around to blame for all of our juvenile problems, both adult and child.

To conclude that Dr. Spock is responsible for creating a permissive attitude is just as foolish as having someone conclude from your editorial advocating spanking that you are responsible for the parents who make punching bags of their children to insure discipline and a "correct" attitude about authority.

The study you mentioned to support your point of view is probably correct in its conclusions, but it does not necessarily follow that the opposite behavior on the part of parents would have prevented what occurred at the university. If you believe this then you not only know little about Dr. Spock, you know considerably less about this society and what motivates people to violate its laws, whatever the law they violate may be.

"If an angry parent keeps himself from spanking, he may show his irritation in other ways, for instance, by nagging the child for half a day, or trying to make him feel deeply guilty. I'm not particularly advocating spanking, but I think it is less poisonous than lengthy disapproval, because it clears the air, for parent and child . . . we ought to realize that it (punishment) is never the main element in discipline — it's only a vigorous additional reminder that the parent feels strongly about what he says . . . Once The Weapons Are Loaded, Why Not Direct Them To . . .

WASHINGTON — One of the most surprising stories of the past few months has to do with the tiny island of Anguilla in the Caribbean. It seems that Anguilla, with a population of 6,000, declared its independence from the island of St. Kitts and asked the United States for help in defending itself against Kittian government.

Without hesitation, the United States alerted the fleet, ammunition was loaded on planes, a Marine regiment was put on landing barges, and the great war machine of the United States was ready to go into action.

But then someone in the State Department discovered that the United States had no commitment to go to the aid of Anguilla in case of trouble.

"But that's impossible," the White House said. "The United States has commitments all over the world. Surely it has a commitment to Anguilla."

THE STATE DEPARTMENT searched and searched and couldn't come up with any paper ever signed between Anguilla and the United States. "Perhaps," the State Department told the White House, "an American President made a commitment to Anguilla without telling us about it."

Since Anguilla is 300 years old, the White House went through the private papers of every president from George Washington to Lyndon B. Johnson but was unable to find a mention of Anguilla in any of them.

A meeting of the National Security Council was called, and the President spoke his mind in no uncertain terms.

"Can someone explain to me why the United States has no commitment to go to the aid of Anguilla."

THE SECRETARY OF STATE replied, "It was probably an oversight on the part of the previous administrations. We were so sure that another president had gotten us committed in Anguilla that we didn't bother to make a commitment of our own. As a matter of fact, I was certain John Foster Dulles had personally made a commitment to Anguilla, but when I looked it up it turned out he made it to Antigua."

The President said, "Well, how can we go to the aid of Anguilla if no one has made a commitment to them?"

The head of the CIA said, "Couldn't we make up a commitment to Anguilla and sign Abraham Lincoln's name to it? We have this special paper that we can age so no one will know the difference."

The United States Information Agency director said, "It's dangerous. If someone could prove it was a forged commitment, all our other commitments around the world would be suspect."

THE PRESIDENT SAID, "Leonard's right. I could never look Kosygin in the eye again if I knew I had a false commitment to Anguilla."

The chief of the joint chiefs of staff said, "Do you want us to scrub the operation?"

The President said, "I'm afraid we have no choice."

"What should we do with all the stuff?" the secretary of defense asked.

The President said, "Well, as long as it's all loaded, you might as well send it to the Congo."

LBJ Lets Mill Valley Mayor In On Defense Savings Secret

In a note to Dr. White, the President suggested the Mayor would "find the attached report from Secretary McNamara highly informative."

The secretary's report described his department's "cost reduction program and the savings achieved during the fiscal year just ended."

SAVINGS WILL be good news to taxpayers in the face of a proposed income tax surcharge.

The report and presidential note, obviously, also went to every mayor in the United States. McNamara's report, dated July 5, was covered by the press, but the President still preferred to send complete copies to the mayors of America. And if the mayors got copies, even more exalted solons must have gotten them, too.

The trouble is, almost no one is going to read more than the nice note from the President. Certainly none of the Mill Valley city councilmen read the report.

One wonders if the cost of this huge mailing was deducted from the $914 million McNamara said he saved in fiscal year 1967.

REGARDLESS of his personal feelings about the Vietnamese war, any taxpayer will be warmed by the secretary's statement, "The great burden imposed on our logistics system by the military operations in Southeast Asia, for example, not only provided a stern test of its capabilities, but also opened up new opportunities for savings."

One of several examples of savings cited by McNamara was elimination of hoisting lugs from MK-81 and MK-82 bombs being sent to Vietnam. "The Navy found that these lugs were being discarded because the bombs were being loaded either by hand or hydraulic lift," he advised the President.

His note that this saved 88 cents per bomb suggests that savings will increase with increased bombing.

Elimination of the lugs saved $620,000 in fiscal year 1967, and $1.9 million for fiscal years 1967-69. A little division, of course, and anyone interested in bomb production figures could come up with some handy intelligence.

PRESUMABLY, if enough bombs were dropped, the saving would be enough to eliminate taxes — and a few other things. The point is that a little doubletalk goes a long way toward distorting statistics.

Among other savings cited were $91,000 by reclaiming lead elements from spent submarine batteries, converting them into lead ingots for use as submarine ballast; $118,526 by reprocessing excess duck fabric purchased for lining Quonset huts and using it to make flight bags; and $1.4 million by modifying Marine Corps fuses to fit excess Army 90mm tracer cartridges.

Mass circulation of the memo, I hope, opens the door to the day when the administration takes the people into its confidence on other affairs of state.

Edward F. Diekmann, partner in the firm that engineered the library, recently advised the architects that his firm had "exhausted the available avenues of investigation in search of an explanation of the cause of this vibration. The floor system design exceeds all the usual criteria used to control such vibration.

"The cause is simply unexplained," he said.

"We are quite frustrated," he told this reporter, "but it is a very conservatively designed floor, and the vibrations are purely a human complaint problem."

The problem could be corrected, he suggested, by installing beams and columns in the lower stack room, below the main floor.

Duplications In Administrations Cause County Budget To Rise

Fusselman

On Thursday last week, for the first time in months, I was able to listen to the KTIM Sounding Board program which Kitty Oppenheimer moderates. She had as her guests County Administration Alan Bruce, supervisors Tom Storer, John McInnis and Peter Behr who spoke in that order.

The subject was the county budget for the fiscal year 1967-68. I listened to it on Thursday and then made a tape recording of the Sunday rebroadcast.

BRUCE SAID it was " . . . not just a bunch of dollars — rather it is a bunch of work programs with dollars attached to finance them." He urged the listeners to " . . . get hold of a copy (of the budget) which is absolutely free. It is already paid for."

He said one could speak of the budget in round figures as a $28 million one, although it really wasn't. It was only $27,942,178.

He also said that "the Marin County taxpayer is not in bad shape as compared with those in other counties."

He stressed that only 23 per cent of the total county tax bill you will be receiving was what they were talking about and that the board was not responsible for the cities, school districts and special districts. His modesty was remarkable as he didn't disclaim responsibility for the state and federal taxes as well.

THIS WAS another gem. He said that the budget this year for road construction and maintenance had no impact on the property taxes whatever, but the money was from gasoline tax, vehicle in lieu tax, fines, etc., which do not affect the property taxpayer as a taxpayer. It must be the guy next door, huh?

Oh, yes, he also said that parks acquisition and development was "only up somewhere between $200,000 and $300,000."

Storer claimed "we are not the worst in the state by a long shot. There are 58 counties in California and 38 of them had a higher per capita tax rate than Marin has." Let's consider that. The subject was "budget." Many factors influence the rate — valuations — hold overs from previous years — interest accruals — subventions and so on.

Just before the grand manner of operating county government began, we were way down next to the lowest in per capita cost. My memory is that one was about $27 per capita and we were about $32. I will check this out.

Now, the latest figures available (1965-66) shows Orange County with $85 — we are $133. We are also higher than Alameda County which has $119 and higher than Santa Clara with $122 and San Mateo with $98. However we can strut along with the biggest county — L. A. which has $139 per capita.

A thorough, open minded review of our operations here in Marin will disclose the duplications in handling the "work programs" Bruce talks about.

John McInnis was properly concerned about the data processing department, which I would like to discuss at some length next week as well as Peter Behr's review of costs in the last 10 years. Man did he open up a can of worms.

Just Not Like The Old Days

Does she like hippies and love-ins, someone asked after she was crowned yesterday.

"I don't believe I've heard them on the radio yet," replied Mrs. Beyerle, who is 95 years old.

Employees' Negotiator Is Studied

The San Rafael Employees Association told its officers yesterday to "investigate the possibility" of hiring professional representation to deal with the city council on salaries, job grievances and other employee matters.

Such negotiations in the past have been handled by committees chosen from the employees or by association officers, according to David F. Marriott, association vice president.

The work in preparing for negotiations is "a terrific load" on the employees who do it, he said, adding that sometimes "isn't too practical for an employee to stand before the employer" to present grievances and requests.

This May the association was aided in salary negotiations by Fred Ward, general manager of the county employees association, but that was "a one-shot occasion," Marriott said.

A report on the proposal to hire an agent will be made at the next employee meeting, which will probably be in September or October, Mrs. McKean said.

Inspector Finds Dynamite Cache

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A termite inspector went into a vacant Sacramento home and made surprising discoveries.

He found four bumper stickers saying "Support Your Right To Keep and Bear Arms." Then he found 40 sticks of super-sensitive dynamite underneath the home.

The neighborhood was evacuated while Army experts took the explosives away and destroyed them. They said the dynamite had decomposed and could have exploded at the slightest jar.

Once The Weapons Are Loaded, Why Not Direct Them To . . .

WASHINGTON — One of the most surprising stories of the past few months has to do with the tiny island of Anguilla in the Caribbean. It seems that Anguilla, with a population of 6,000, declared its independence from the island of St. Kitts and asked the United States for help in defending itself against Kittian government.

Without hesitation, the United States alerted the fleet, ammunition was loaded on planes, a Marine regiment was put on landing barges, and the great war machine of the United States was ready to go into action.

But then someone in the State Department discovered that the United States had no commitment to go to the aid of Anguilla in case of trouble.

"But that's impossible," the White House said. "The United States has commitments all over the world. Surely it has a commitment to Anguilla."

THE STATE DEPARTMENT searched and searched and couldn't come up with any paper ever signed between Anguilla and the United States. "Perhaps," the State Department told the White House, "an American President made a commitment to Anguilla without telling us about it."

Since Anguilla is 300 years old, the White House went through the private papers of every president from George Washington to Lyndon B. Johnson but was unable to find a mention of Anguilla in any of them.

A meeting of the National Security Council was called, and the President spoke his mind in no uncertain terms.

"Can someone explain to me why the United States has no commitment to go to the aid of Anguilla."

THE SECRETARY OF STATE replied, "It was probably an oversight on the part of the previous administrations. We were so sure that another president had gotten us committed in Anguilla that we didn't bother to make a commitment of our own. As a matter of fact, I was certain John Foster Dulles had personally made a commitment to Anguilla, but when I looked it up it turned out he made it to Antigua."

The President said, "Well, how can we go to the aid of Anguilla if no one has made a commitment to them?"

The head of the CIA said, "Couldn't we make up a commitment to Anguilla and sign Abraham Lincoln's name to it? We have this special paper that we can age so no one will know the difference."

The United States Information Agency director said, "It's dangerous. If someone could prove it was a forged commitment, all our other commitments around the world would be suspect."

THE PRESIDENT SAID, "Leonard's right. I could never look Kosygin in the eye again if I knew I had a false commitment to Anguilla."

The chief of the joint chiefs of staff said, "Do you want us to scrub the operation?"

The President said, "I'm afraid we have no choice."

"What should we do with all the stuff?" the secretary of defense asked.

The President said, "Well, as long as it's all loaded, you might as well send it to the Congo."

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By PAUL PETERZELL

In a note to Dr. White, the President suggested the Mayor would "find the attached report from Secretary McNamara highly informative."

SAVINGS WILL be good news to taxpayers in the face of a proposed income tax surcharge.

The report and presidential note, obviously, also went to every mayor in the United States. McNamara's report, dated July 5, was covered by the press, but the President still preferred to send complete copies to the mayors of America. And if the mayors got copies, even more exalted solons must have gotten them, too.

The trouble is, almost no one is going to read more than the nice note from the President. Certainly none of the Mill Valley city councilmen read the report.

One wonders if the cost of this huge mailing was deducted from the $914 million McNamara said he saved in fiscal year 1967.

REGARDLESS of his personal feelings about the Vietnamese war, any taxpayer will be warmed by the secretary's statement, "The great burden imposed on our logistics system by the military operations in Southeast Asia, for example, not only provided a stern test of its capabilities, but also opened up new opportunities for savings."

One of several examples of savings cited by McNamara was elimination of hoisting lugs from MK-81 and MK-82 bombs being sent to Vietnam. "The Navy found that these lugs were being discarded because the bombs were being loaded either by hand or hydraulic lift," he advised the President.

His note that this saved 88 cents per bomb suggests that savings will increase with increased bombing.

Elimination of the lugs saved $620,000 in fiscal year 1967, and $1.9 million for fiscal years 1967-69. A little division, of course, and anyone interested in bomb production figures could come up with some handy intelligence.

PRESUMABLY, if enough bombs were dropped, the saving would be enough to eliminate taxes — and a few other things. The point is that a little doubletalk goes a long way toward distorting statistics.

Among other savings cited were $91,000 by reclaiming lead elements from spent submarine batteries, converting them into lead ingots for use as submarine ballast; $118,526 by reprocessing excess duck fabric purchased for lining Quonset huts and using it to make flight bags; and $1.4 million by modifying Marine Corps fuses to fit excess Army 90mm tracer cartridges.

Mass circulation of the memo, I hope, opens the door to the day when the administration takes the people into its confidence on other affairs of state.

Edward F. Diekmann, partner in the firm that engineered the library, recently advised the architects that his firm had "exhausted the available avenues of investigation in search of an explanation of the cause of this vibration. The floor system design exceeds all the usual criteria used to control such vibration.

"The cause is simply unexplained," he said.

"We are quite frustrated," he told this reporter, "but it is a very conservatively designed floor, and the vibrations are purely a human complaint problem."

The problem could be corrected, he suggested, by installing beams and columns in the lower stack room, below the main floor.

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

Duplications In Administrations Cause County Budget To Rise

Fusselman

On Thursday last week, for the first time in months, I was able to listen to the KTIM Sounding Board program which Kitty Oppenheimer moderates. She had as her guests County Administration Alan Bruce, supervisors Tom Storer, John McInnis and Peter Behr who spoke in that order.

The subject was the county budget for the fiscal year 1967-68, I listened to it on Thursday and then made a tape recording of the Sunday rebroadcast.

BRUCE SAID it was " . . . not just a bunch of dollars — rather it is a bunch of work programs with dollars attached to finance them." He urged the listeners to " . . . get hold of a copy (of the budget) which is absolutely free. It is already paid for."

He said one could speak of the budget in round figures as a $28 million one, although it really wasn't. It was only $27,942,178.

He also said that "the Marin County taxpayer is not in bad shape as compared with those in other counties."

He stressed that only 23 per cent of the total county tax bill you will be receiving was what they were talking about and that the board was not responsible for the cities, school districts and special districts. Today is Friday, July 21, the 202nd day of 1967 with 163 to follow.

The moon is full. The morning star is Saturn. The evening stars are Venus and Mars.

Born on this day in 1899 was American author Ernest Hemingway.

On this day in history:

In 1873, the world's first train robbery took place when Jesse James held up the Rock Island Express at Adair, Iowa, and made off with $3.000.

In 1930, the U.S. Veterans' Administration was formed.

A thought for the day — American author Ernest Hemingway once said: "So far, about morals. I know only that what is moral is what you feel good after and what is immoral is what you feel bad after."

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

Even In Championship Play, Defense Is Sometimes Sloppy

You shouldn't assume that your opponent will defend well just because they are playing in a world championship. Give them their chance to make a mistake and hope for the best. The bigger they are, the harder they fall.

SOME HELP

When today's hand was played a few weeks ago in a qualifying match between Italy and France, Pietro Forquet got both opponents to help. The Italian star needed only three mistakes, and he got them.

Forquet took the queen of diamonds and led the jack of spades, covered by the queen and king. He returned a spade. losing the ten to West's ace.

MISSED CHANCE

West could have defeated the contract by leading another diamond. On taking the nine of spades he would lead a club, and a diamond return would allow him to get the setting trick by ruffing with the four of spades.

Instead, West foolishly switched to a heart. Forquet won with dummy's ace and had to knock out the ace of clubs before drawing trumps. If declarer led the first club from dummy, however, East would surely play low.

ENTERS OWN HAND

Since a club hold-up would be fatal, Forquet ruffed a heart so that he could lead the king of clubs from his own hand. East should have refused the first club. He could take the second club and lead a third club to give West the vital ruffing trick. But East made the scond defensive error by taking the first round of clubs.

East could still defeat the contract by returning a heart. West would lead another heart on taking the nine of spades; and this would give him control of trumps.

Actually, East returned a diamond. Now Forquet had time to draw trumps and take his contract. It was enough to make a fellow think he could win the world championship with his mother-in-law as his partner.

What do you say?

Answer: Bid three spades.

In most American systems the double raise shows 13 to 16 points, counting distribution as well as high cards. This hand counts 12 points in high cards, 1 point for the doubleton and 1 point extra for a high card in parner's bid suit. It is an ideal jump raise. (In the world championship, Benito Barozzo bid two clubs because in the Neapolitan System a jump to three spades would be only invitational, but not forcing.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Even In Championship Play, Defense Is Sometimes Sloppy

You shouldn't assume that your opponent will defend well just because they are playing in a world championship. Give them their chance to make a mistake and hope for the best. The bigger they are, the harder they fall.

SOME HELP

When today's hand was played a few weeks ago in a qualifying match between Italy and France, Pietro Forquet got both opponents to help. The Italian star needed only three mistakes, and he got them.

Forquet took the queen of diamonds and led the jack of spades, covered by the queen and king. He returned a spade, losing the ten to West's ace.

MISSED CHANCE

West could have defeated the contract by leading another diamond. On taking the nine of spades he would lead a club, and a diamond return would allow him to get the setting trick by ruffing with the four of spades.

Instead, West foolishly switched to a heart. Forquet won with dummy's ace and had to knock out the ace of clubs before drawing trumps. If declarer led the first club from dummy, however, East would surely play low.

ENTERS OWN HAND

Since a club hold-up would be fatal, Forquet ruffed a heart so that he could lead the king of clubs from his own hand. East should have refused the first club. He could take the second club and lead a third club to give West the vital ruffing trick. But East made the scond defensive error by taking the first round of clubs.

East could still defeat the contract by returning a heart. West would lead another heart on taking the nine of spades; and this would give him control of trumps.

Actually, East returned a diamond. Now Forquet had time to draw trumps and take his contract. It was enough to make a fellow think he could win the world championship with his mother-in-law as his partner.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one spade, and the next player passes.

What do you say?

Answer: Bid three spades.

In most American systems the double raise shows 13 to 16 points, counting distribution as well as high cards. This hand counts 12 points in high cards, 1 point for the doubleton and 1 point extra for a high card in parner's bid suit. It is an ideal jump raise. (In the world championship, Benito Barozzo bid two clubs because in the Neapolitan System a jump to three spades would be only invitational, but not forcing.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, July 21, the 202nd day of 1967 with 163 to follow.

The moon is full. The morning star is Saturn. The evening stars are Venus and Mars.

Born on this day in 1899 was American author Ernest Hemingway.

On this day in history:

In 1873, the world's first train robbery took place when Jesse James held up the Rock Island Express at Adair, Iowa, and made off with $3,000.

In 1930, the U.S. Veterans' Administration was formed.

A thought for the day — American author Ernest Hemingway once said: "So far, about morals. I know only that what is moral is what you feel good after and what is immoral is what you feel bad after."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

TELEVISION REVIEW

Overseas Video Filming Booming

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—The inevitable trend toward more overseas filming of American television series—reminiscent of the path followed in past years by the movie industry—is becoming more pronounced.

And the growing internationalization of video prime time, even though it is not yet overwhelming, is bound to cause discomfort among the Hollywood-based unions and their workers who depend heavily on local production.

JOB COUNT

The number of jobs parceled out here—despite the relatively healthy state of Hollywood television—has certainly been affected by various developments in recent years.

For example the fact that the three networks now offer a total of six prime time movies each week means that 12 key entertainment hours are no longer completely filled by new film product. It is true that we have had, and will have, new two-hour original movies—as well as some special plays—but the old motion pictures still make up the bulk of those 12 weekly hours.

Furthermore, another new one-hour ABC-TV series this fall, "Off to See the Wizard," is really mainly a collection of films for children. And NBC-TV's weekly one-hour Walt Disney program often presents reruns of movies turned out by the late cartoonist's studio.

In addition, series like "the Avengers," "Secret Agent" and "The Saint," as well as variety shows like "Piccadilly Palace" and "Spotlight," have been produced in England.

LONDON FOOTAGE

It is hard to imagine that a cornball series like "The Beverly Hillbillies" would venture overseas in any way. Yet CBS-TV recently announced that special location footage, to be included in from two to four episodes of the program in the coming season, was to be filmed in London this week.

Last season, Hollywood unions were displeased by the fact that "The Rat Patrol" was filmed, at first, in Spain. But "I Spy" also has overseas locations. ABC-TV's new "Cowboy in Africa" series is to do filming on the dark continent. "Tarzan," although not overseas, shoots in Mexico and "Maya," a new NBC-TV series this fall, is being done in India.

It is all really a very logical development, of course, not only are satellites and the daily course of human events making the public more international-minded, but the television industry—like the movie industry before it—must seek new means to keep viewers interested. And of course it is happy to seek these means in locations where it hopes production costs are cheaper.

FOREIGN TREND

The home audience has been saturated with the usual television entertainment. The novelty of color video will soon wear off now that virtually everything in prime time is in color. Films from abroad, especially television movies, have made the public aware of other dimensions in entertainment. And the time seems ripe in general for video executives to internationalize their wares more and more.

LSD Dreamer Tries Power Once Too Often

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Robert Tupy, 32, dug LSD. It made him indestructible.

He rode his motorscooter into a parked car. Not a scratch.

"This proves that I can't be hurt," he told his friend Frances Goldman recently.

He had jumped in front of a train and was killed.

Miss Goldman said he had become a constant user of the dream drug and recently he became convinced of his supreme power.

Labor Council Back Owners' Density Policy

The Marin County Labor Council Wednesday night voted to back property owners' recommendation of 1.5 units per acre in the West Marin Master plan, James Smith, secretary-treasurer, said today.

Smith said the council feels that higher density will mean "lower cost housing" and therefore, more houses can be built. He said the voice vote was unanimous.

The county board of supervisors had agreed upon an average density of .88 units per acre. However, the subject was reopened by the divided board Tuesday when it asked the planning staff to compile figures on densities in all other municipal general plans. A report comparing these with West Marin's figures is to be submitted in a month.

The plan covers 43,000 acres in the Olema Valley and eastern shore of Tomales Bay and Point Reyes Peninsula.

Howard Crowell of San Rafael, a member of San Francisco Typographical Union No. 21, was appointed to the Marin County Human Rights Commission's employment committee.

To Committee

Mrs. John Manwaring of Ross and San Rafael attorney Roger P. Garety were appointed to the permanent nominating committee of the Bay Area Social Planning Council, it was announced yesterday by the council.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Overseas Video Filming Booming

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—The inevitable trend toward more overseas filming of American television series—reminiscent of the path followed in past years by the movie industry—is becoming more pronounced.

And the growing internationalization of video prime time, even though it is not yet overwhelming, is bound to cause discomfort among the Hollywood-based unions and their workers who depend heavily on local production.

JOB COUNT

The number of jobs parceled out here—despite the relatively healthy state of Hollywood television—has certainly been affected by various developments in recent years.

For example the fact that the three networks now offer a total of six prime time movies each week means that 12 key entertainment hours are no longer completely filled by new film product. It is true that we have had, and will have, new two-hour original movies—as well as some special plays—but the old motion pictures still make up the bulk of those 12 weekly hours.

Furthermore, another new one-hour ABC-TV series this fall, "Off to See the Wizard," is really mainly a collection of films for children. And NBC-TV's weekly one-hour Walt Disney program often presents reruns of movies turned out by the late cartoonist's studio.

In addition, series like "the Avengers," "Secret Agent" and "The Saint," as well as variety shows like "Piccadilly Palace" and "Spotlight," have been produced in England.

LONDON FOOTAGE

It is hard to imagine that a cornball series like "The Beverly Hillbillies" would venture overseas in any way. Yet CBS-TV recently announced that special location footage, to be included in from two to four episodes of the program in the coming season, was to be filmed in London this week.

Last season, Hollywood unions were displeased by the fact that "The Rat Patrol" was filmed, at first, in Spain. But "I Spy" also has overseas locations. ABC-TV's new "Cowboy in Africa" series is to do filming on the dark continent. "Tarzan," although not overseas, shoots in Mexico and "Maya," a new NBC-TV series this fall, is being done in India.

It is all really a very logical development, of course, not only are satellites and the daily course of human events making the public more international-minded, but the television industry—like the movie industry before it—must seek new means to keep viewers interested. And of course it is happy to seek these means in locations where it hopes production costs are cheaper.

FOREIGN TREND

The home audience has been saturated with the usual television entertainment. The novelty of color video will soon wear off now that virtually everything in prime time is in color. Films from abroad, especially television movies, have made the public aware of other dimensions in entertainment. And the time seems ripe in general for video executives to internationalize their wares more and more.

LSD Dreamer Tries Power Once Too Often

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Robert Tupy, 32, dug LSD. It made him indestructible.

He walked across busy streets against traffic lights without a scratch.

He rode his motorscooter into a parked car. Not a scratch.

"This proves that I can't be hurt," he told his friend Frances Goldman recently.

He had jumped in front of a train and was killed.

Miss Goldman said he had become a constant user of the dream drug and recently he became convinced of his supreme power.

Labor Council Back Owners' Density Policy

The Marin County Labor Council Wednesday night voted to back property owners' recommendation of 1.5 units per acre in the West Marin Master plan, James Smith, secretary-treasurer, said today.

Smith said the council feels that higher density will mean "lower cost housing" and therefore, more houses can be built. He said the voice vote was unanimous.

The county board of supervisors had agreed upon an average density of .83 units per acre. However, the subject was reopened by the divided board Tuesday when it asked the planning staff to compile figures on densities in all other municipal general plans. A report comparing these with West Marin's figures is to be submitted in a month.

The plan covers 43,000 acres in the Olema Valley and eastern shore of Tomales Bay and Point Reyes Peninsula.

Howard Crowell of San Rafael, a member of San Francisco Typographical Union No. 21, was appointed to the Marin County Human Rights Commission's employment committee.

To Committee

Mrs. John Manwaring of Ross and San Rafael attorney Roger P. Garety were appointed to the permanent nominating committee of the Bay Area Social Planning Council, it was announced yesterday by the council.

MOLLY MacGOWAN, Mill Valley's new and only meter maid, was photographed as she marked tires during a routine day of checking parking violations. She rides a Harley Davidson police special three-wheel motorcycle. Recipients of tickets often say "Thank you," she says.

A 'THANK YOU'

Going From Rink To Curb

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Molly MacGowan, Mill Valley's first—and only—meter maid, has a rare combination of talents.

A former professional skater with Holiday on Ice International and other shows, she holds medals in riflery and handles her three-wheel Harley-Davidson police special motorcycle as well as any man on the police force. But she loves to cook, especially Lobster Thermidor, and is crocheting her Christmas gifts.

She partially designed her own navy blue uniform with culottes instead of slacks, she says, to make it look as feminine as possible. With the jacket that is styled the same as that of a policeman's she wears a light blue cotton blouse with navy cross tie and a pert overseas cap.

Her uniform complements her five-foot, nine-inch figure that is practically the same as it was when she was a skating star. Her attractive appearance, in fact, is no handicap at all in dealing with parking violators, especially since she also learned to handle public relations and publicity as part of her job as a line captain in skating shows.

"THANK YOU," is frequently the response she receives when she writes a parking violation ticket, she insists.

"I haven't decided whether people are so completely floored that they're in a daze, or they can't think of anything else to say," she laughed.

"I'm concerned with the car rather than the driver, as a traffic officer is," she added.

Now 27, Molly was a skater until 1965, when she quit Holiday on Ice International to marry Jack MacGowan of Mill Valley, who is a service manager for Schuman Chevrolet in Novato. When the company tours 11 months a year, she noted, marriage and show business don't mix.

Born in Palo Alto, Molly started skating when she was six years old.

"I HAD SPINAL meningitis," she explained, "and started skating as therapy. I was a member of the Polar Bear Club at Sutro's in San Francisco and was heartbroken when it burned down. I also studied all kinds of dancing—ballet, modern, acrobatic and jazz.

"When I was 13, I was rated professional because you are rated pro when you audition for a professional show, but this was in name only. I actually became a professional skater at 18 with the Ice Follies and stayed with this show three years as a line skater.

"Then after one year with Holiday on Ice as a line skater, I was trained for a line captain with a little show called Adventures on Ice that was later bought by Holiday on Ice. For three months we did one-night stands that were like being in vaudeville.

"AFTER THAT, I returned to Holiday on Ice, which had become Holiday on Ice International, and skated with the show four years as line captain in Mexico and in and out of the United States and Latin America."

Clowning was part of Molly MacGowan's routines that was often very difficult. Skating almost blind at a 90-degree angle as the rear end of animals, inside a costume that reached a temperature of 120 degrees, was a real test of endurance as well as skill.

One of Molly's unforgettable experiences in a little Mexican town was putting on a show without ice, stumbling around the pipes that freeze the water into ice. A little man who was to supply the water couldn't get enough to the rink on time, since he had to rely on his little

Fergusons To Honor General Director

By MOLLY MARIN

An exceptionally festive party in an unusual theme will be the one to be given Sunday from 2 to 6 p.m. by the A. Barlow Fergusons at their home in Kent Woodlands.

A member of the board of directors of the Merola Program of the San Francisco Opera, Mrs. Ferguson is giving the party to honor general director Kurt Herbert Adler and Merola Program participants who will appear in two operas to be presented on Aug. 12 and 13 at the Paul Masson vineyards in Saratoga.

The Merola Program is sponsored by the San Francisco Opera to give young professional singers training for and opportunity to perform in opera.

The operas this year are "Angelique" by Ibert, which will be staged by Ed Hastings and conducted by George Lawner, and "Dido and Aeneus" by Purcell, staged by William Ball of ACT and conducted by Herbert Grossman.

Taking Diana's fountain that was the center of many festivities in "Dido and Aeneus" as a motif, the hostess will serve refreshments and center activities around the fountain in the garden of the Ferguson's home.

MRS. GEORGE F. Grant was hostess Monday at a bridge-luncheon at her home in Mill Valley.

A special guest was Mrs. Dashwood Darling of Sleepy Hollow, formerly of Mill Valley. Other guests were Mesdames Ralph Martindale of Kent Woodlands and William Searles, Alvin Baukol, Kenyon Spalding, Philip Thornton and Blyth Adams of Mill Valley.

MRS. HERBERT PENDLETON BRANN will be hostess at a "Programme Musical" on July 26 at 8 p.m. at her home in Kentfield.

The program will be presented by pianist Karl Knuth, who has been living in Paris, France, where he is a student of Lucienne Dumont. Son of the former chairman of the Creative Arts Division of San Francisco State College, the young musician worked under Vladimir Brenner in San Francisco. Mr. Knuth will perform works by Beethoven, Debussy and Chopin.

A SUPPER-DANCE for teenagers who are registered in the Mill Valley Tennis Club's Annual Junior Hard Court Tennis Tournament will be held at the clubhouse On Aug. 1 from 6 to 10 p.m.

About 100 young people are expected to attend the party, for which music will be provided by a popular junior band.

Mrs. Cook is being assisted by Mesdames Louis Bartolini and John Beritzhoff and a committee of Mill Valley Tennis Club juniors.

MR. AND MRS. Don Raggio of Sleepy Hollow are moving to a new home in Weston, Conn. The family has lived in Marin for ten years. They have four children, Mrs. Nancy Cady of San Francisco, and Barbara, Guy and Patricia who will accompany their parents when they move to the East Coast.

MR. AND MRS. AL Hutchins of Bel-Marin Keys are back from an extended trip to Yellowstone National Park by motor. They stopped in several states and report wonderful weather on their trip. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Long of Bel-Marin

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Locked Up Churches Symbolizes Fear, Distrust To The Community

DEAR HELEN:

Here's another thought, if you please, on the "where" and "how" of worship.

I know the reasons why it is done, but still I'm saddened by the fact that most churches are closed at night. My date was bringing me home last night, and on the way across town, we passed one of those "9 to 5" churches—big, beautiful, solmn looking and locked up as tight as a bank, obviously for the same reason.

When I was little, I used to wonder whether folks were locking God in, or locking the prayerful out? I know now, of course, that God's houses is not shingles and bricks, but Life in any and every form. With this knowledge came the realization that churches are just symbols — like artifical flowers. But if they are symbols of love and trust and peace, as they are meant to be, then the fact that they are locked is symbolic too.

There stand the churches, forlorn examples of love that knows fear, trust with misgivings, peace with apprehension. It seems so hypocritical, Helen. Wouldn't it be better to have a bare, stark building for a church, and have it open constantly? You can't steal God!

—KAY MACK

DEAR KAY:

Thank you for a fine and thought-provoking letter. May it be the subject of many Sunday sermons.

I once lived in a small town whose church door had no lock. Though we scarcely noticed—it had always been that way—I'm sure (looking back) our open church help create the trust and friendliness that made our town unique. —H.

DEAR HELEN:

"Innocent Bystander" should not believe everyone is like the criminals she reads about. I would like to tell her and others who are "afraid to step out of their doors at night" that she is too fearful.

I have travelled far and wide, north and south, east and west. I have met strange men, gone with them, corresponded with them. I ride with strange men, some have gotten me jobs; some have talked with me about their hopes and dreams. Naturally they all want me to have a beer, etc., but when I say "No Thank you," that's the end of it.

I can't understand why Americans don't turn the thing around and say, "Be kind to everyone," instead of "I'm petrified to walk alone after dark." People must be something like dogs. If you are afraid of a dog, he'll bite you. If not, he'll probably be your friend. We don't give others the chance to be good.

I'm reminded of a paragraph written by Ashley Montague in "The Meaning of Love":

"A friend, an elderly Quaker lady, entered her Paris hotel room to find a burglar rifling the bureau drawers . . . He had a gun which he brandished. She talked to him quietly, told him to go right ahead and help himself . . . as obviously he needed it more than she did. She even told him some places to look where there were valuables he had overlooked. Suddenly the man let out a low cry—and ran from the room taking nothing. The next day she received a letter from him in which he said, 'I'm not afraid of hate. But you showed love and kindness. It disarmed me:"

If we showed more love and kindness to our fellow men, we wouldn't have to worry so much about stealing, etc —O.W.L.

DEAR O:

A lovely thought, and I wish it always worked. Because it doesn't, I'll continue to say, "Have faith in the goodness of man, but don't go looking for it alone, at night, on murky city streets!" —H.

PAPER POSSIBILITIES— With the wide range of paper apparel now available, it's a possibility a modern miss will meet her man in a paper bikini — and then marry him in a paper wedding dress. Americans spent $3.5 million on the cheap cellulos clothing last year, and industry spokesmen say a billion-dollar year isn't for off. Both the "Wild Animal Mini Bikini" and "Poly-coated Wedding Dress" shown above are by James Sterling Paper Fashions of New York. (AP Wirephoto)

Temporary Fashion Has Sent Nation On Wastebasket Binge

NEW YORK (AP) — The fun's in the bag — the paper bag — this summer.

Paper bikinis, paper surf jackets, paper bras, paper culottes, paper sandals-even paper wedding gowns and paper gray flannel suits. Temporary fashion has sent the nation on a wastebasket binge.

"Paper is in now," said Melvin E. Dawley, president of Lord & Taylor, the New York-based department store chain. "Only time will tell if it is a fad. If designing keeps good, it will be lasting."

"THE WHOLE area has begun to expand like crazy," said a spokesman for Kimberly-Stevens Corp., a major supplier of paper-type material which is 93 per cent cellulose and 7 per cent nylon.

Americans spent $3.5 million on paper clothes last year when the first paper toggery was introduced. This summer the paper caper is bigger than ever. Designs are more elaborate, prints are colorful.

By 1980, paper will account for 25 per cent of the apparel business, predicts Oliver James Sterling, 30, a former Texas oilman.

Sterling set up shop just this past year and now has six plants turning out 15,000 to 20,000 items a day — items like cowl-collared caftans, ruffle-skirted mini-dresses, pant suits, evening culottes and tortoise shell-strapped evening dresses — all made from paper.

His newest item is a double breasted suit for men, to sell for about $12. "It looks like gray flannel," he says. "It should be great for businessmen and conventions."

IT BEGAN almost inadvertently last year when Scott Paper Co. offered a paper A-line dress for $1 to promote its colored tissues. It was swamped with orders for 500,000 dresses.

Since then department stores across the country have opened paper boutiques, and dozens of designers and manufacturers have jumped in. Paper prints now are sold by the yard.

There are matching bedspreads and curtains, chests of drawers in dazzling prints, whimsical lampshades, mirrors, chairs and a 7-foot daisy $40 — all made from paper — at Paper Place, the shop the Brooklyn department store Abraham & Straus opened.

Patience was one of the virtues Molly gained at this time, together with toleration for all kinds of weather, since she skated outdoors for three years. Both of these are assets in her present job.

IN 1965 when the show went to Brazil, Molly left and got married.

The new meter maid says she is very happy with her work, which she started on May 1 with the title of parking enforcement officer. Her duties include writing tickets for all municipal parking code violations, winding meters so that coins are accepted readily, collecting the money and banking it and making minor repairs to meters.

Her hours are 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday.

She elarned to ride the motorcycle at the corporation yard in an hour of intensive instruction that included a couple of thrills when she couldn't stop and shot right out through the gate.

"IT WAS FUN," she says, "but I learned to have great respect for the bike. Once you lose your fear of it, it can kill you."

Molly has other hobbies besides crocheting and cooking. Her other sports are bowling, swimming, water skiing and deer hunting with her husband.

A special pride and joy are two purebred dogs, Jo Jo, a Silver German Shepherd, which she says she raised largely on the back seats of Greyhound buses during her tours as a skater, and a German Short-Haired Pointer called Mark Anthony Cicero, that accompanies the MacGowans when they go deer hunting.

MOLLY KEEPS up her skating skill on the new Raydine Ice Rink in Corte Madera during her leisure time.

Locked Up Churches Symbolizes Fear, Distrust To The Community

DEAR HELEN:

Here's another thought, if you please, on the "where" and "how" of worship.

I know the reasons why it is done, but still I'm saddened by the fact that most churches are closed at night. My date was bringing me home last night, and on the way across town, we passed one of those "9 to 5" churches—big, beautiful, solmn looking and locked up as tight as a bank, obviously for the same reason.

When I was little, I used to wonder whether folks were locking God in, or locking the prayerful out? I know now, of course, that God's houses is not shingles and bricks, but Life in any and every form. With this knowledge came the realization that churches are just symbols — like artifical flowers. But if they are symbols of love and trust and peace, as they are meant to be, then the fact that they are locked is symbolic too.

There stand the churches, forlorn examples of love that knows fear, trust with misgivings, peace with apprehension. It seems so hypocritical, Helen. Wouldn't it be better to have a bare, stark building for a church, and have it open constantly? You can't steal God!

—KAY MACK

DEAR KAY:

Thank you for a fine and thought-provoking letter. May it be the subject of many Sunday sermons.

I once lived in a small town whose church door had no lock. Though we scarcely noticed—it had always been that way—I'm sure (looking back) our open church help create the trust and friendliness that made our town unique. —H.

DEAR HELEN:

"Innocent Bystander" should not believe everyone is like the criminals she reads about. I would like to tell her and others who are "afraid to step out of their doors at night" that she is too fearful.

I have travelled far and wide, north and south, east and west. I have met strange men, gone with them, corresponded with them. I ride with strange men, some have gotten me jobs; some have talked with me about their hopes and dreams. Naturally they all want me to have a beer, etc., but when I say "No Thank you," that's the end of it.

I can't understand why Americans don't turn the thing around and say, "Be kind to everyone," instead of "I'm petrified to walk alone after dark." People must be something like dogs. If you are afraid of a dog, he'll bite you. If not, he'll probably be your friend. We don't give others the chance to be good.

I'm reminded of a paragraph written by Ashley Montague in "The Meaning of Love":

"A friend, an elderly Quaker lady, entered her Paris hotel room to find a burglar rifling the bureau drawers . . . He had a gun which he brandished. She talked to him quietly, told him to go right ahead and help himself . . . as obviously he needed it more than she did. She even told him some places to look where there were valuables he had overlooked. Suddenly the man let out a low cry—and ran from the room taking nothing. The next day she received a letter from him in which he said, 'I'm not afraid of hate. But you showed love and kindness. It disarmed me:"

If we showed more love and kindness to our fellow men, we wouldn't have to worry so much about stealing, etc —O.W.L.

DEAR O:

A lovely thought, and I wish it always worked. Because it doesn't, I'll continue to say, "Have faith in the goodness of man, but don't go looking for it alone, at night, on murky city streets!" —H.

FEATURED THIS SATURDAY

How aware are today's youngsters of the wonders of nature around them, and of the importance of protecting those resources? Not nearly enough, conservationists feel. But Marin County is doing something about it. It's being done at the Marin County Outdoor Conservation Science Education School at Redwood Glen in San Mateo County. Tomorrow's Marin Magazine tells you about this unusual educational program.

Marin County is rich in little theater activity and talent. But one group serving a special need by working with the younger theater aspirants is the Green Room Players. A feature story in tomorrow's I-J weekend supplement tells you about that company, and about its cofounder, Greg Norgaard. He's a young man with some strong and provocative ideas about the theater of today.

FEATURED THIS SATURDAY

How aware are today's youngsters of the wonders of nature around them, and of the importance of protecting those resources? Not nearly enough, conservationists feel. But Marin County is doing something about it. It's being done at the Marin County Outdoor Conservation Science Education School at Redwood Glen in San Mateo County. Tomorrow's Marin Magazine tells you about this unusual educational program.

Marin County is rich in little theater activity and talent. But one group serving a special need by working with the younger theater aspirants is the Green Room Players. A feature story in tomorrow's I-J weekend supplement tells you about that company, and about its co-founder, Greg Norgaard. He's a young man with some strong and provocative ideas about the theater of today.

Double Duo Schedules Concerts

A new chamber music group, a double duo, combining two of Marin's best known musician couples, will present a series of three concerts entitled "Music for a Summer Evening."

The double duo is composed of violinist Charles Meacham and his wife, pianist Robaline Meacham, and violist Lucienne Mitchell and his wife Jean Maguire Mitchell, all of Mill Valley.

The first concert of the series is to be presented next Thursday at the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley at 8:15 p.m. Dates for the others will be set if response to this first concert indicates sufficient popular interest.

Featured in the duo's programs will be piano quartets, a form of chamber music which inspired most of the great composers of the past two centuries. It has been virtually unexplored by present day performers.

The first program will consist of: Piano Quartette in F Major, adagio and rondo by Franz Schubert; Violin and Cello Duet in C Major, Opus 7, by Zoltan Kodaly; Viola and Piano Sonata in F Major by Benetto Marcello; and Piano Quartette in A Major, Opus 30, by Ernest Chausson.

'King Lear' To Open Tonight

"King Lear," Marin Shakespeare Festival's second offering of the season, will open at 8:30 p.m., today, at the Forest Meadow Theater on Grand Avenue, San Rafael.

The cast, directed by John Brebner, includes George Ede in the title role, Philip Sheridan, Herman Poppe, John Talt, Robert Rumps, Hope Alexander and Kathleen Thompson. The show will be repeated tomorrow (Sat.) adn Wednesday and Thursday at 8:30 p.m. "Twelfth Night" reopens July 28.

Straw Hat Revue To Open Tonight

The Straw Hat Lemonade Concert Review, "To Soothe the Savage," opens tonight at 8:30 in the Festival Theater in San Anselmo.

It will be performed Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays at 8:30 p.m. and Sundays at 7:30 p.m., through Aug. 27.

MARIN FILM FARE

Michener 'Hawaii' Recreates Tension-Filled Missionary Epic

By LES DARD

NORTHGATE THEATER

The film actually deals with only the segment of the novel that concerns the arrival of American missionaries. Von Sydow plays Abner Hale, a Fundamentalist New England preacher whose literal interpretation of the bible antagonizes rather than converts the islanders. It is only through the influence of his kind, sensitive wife Jerusha (Miss Andrews) that Hale is tolerated at all.

NOVATO THEATER

The plot involves an "impossible theft" of a gold shipment protected by an armored wagon armed with a gatling gun.

LARK THESTER

The beguiling "Loves of a Blonde," a Czech film that was in the front-running for the Best Foreign Film Oscar.

It's a story of a romantic girl who does a lot of fast learning about living and loving. The direction is by Milos Forman and even includes a happy ending.

101 DRIVE-IN

A James Bond of another brand is the bill in "Casino Royale," Charles K. Feldman's uproarious spoof-of-a-spoof, now on screen.

David Niven plays Sir James Bond, who comes out of retirement to work on a particularly difficult international crisis involving SPECTRE, the international crime syndicate, and its cronies.

MOTOR MOVIES

The Best Foreign Film of 1966 is making a return run. It's "A Man and A Woman," and it's well worth anyone's while.

Jean-Louis Trintigant and Anouk Aimee star as the two cautious lovers of the title. Music, too, contributes its meaningful share to this fragile and poignant tale of two people.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

First is Charlie Chaplin's "The Countess From Hong Kong," starring Marlon Brando and Sophia Loren.

SEQUOIA THEATER

Rex Harrison stars in "The Honey Pot," an involved and sophisticated comedy now on screen.

He plays a fabulously wealthy man who decides to play a game with three of his old loves. He pretends to be dying. The three come like vultures to the carrion, waiting for the will.

FAIRFAX THEATER

TAMALPAIS THEATER

When young, naive teacher comes face to face with a slum area school of New York the result is a painfully tragic lesson from life mingled with moments of despair, wry humor and, only sometimes, hope.

This is the intriguing situation presented in "Up the Down Staircase," holding over. Sandy Denis stars. An excellent bill.

RAFAEL THEATER

A more traditional — but still outlandish — James Bond seems to be taking up residence at this theater. He's here in "You Only Live Twice," latest filming of an Ian Fleming espionage thriller.

Mayor Working For Crusade

Larkspur Mayor Earl J. O'Grady is among six Marin County residents who this week took leave of their jobs to work 90 days for the 1967 United Bay Area Crusade.

Their time and regular pay is being donated by their companies.

O'Grady is an executive with Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., San Francisco.

The other participants, all of whom work in San Francisco, are: John M. Vandall of Larkspur, Bank of California; Robert J. Kretz of San Rafael, Wells Fargo Bank; James S. Yaudes of Mill Valley, Fireman's Fund American Insurance Companies; William F. Spence of Greenbrae, United Air Lines, and William J. Noonan of Tiburon, IBM Corp.

10-Year-Old Traveling Shoeshine Boy Philosphizes About Business

By BRUCE COLEMAN

"I'm the only moving shoe shine boy in San Rafael," said 10-year-old Paul Fitzsimmons.

"I mean," he explained, "there are shoe shine people inside buildings in San Rafael but I'm the only one who goes outside from place to place."

The redheaded boy with patched T-shirt spoke earnestly of what is all but a dying trade in Marin.

He explained that he spends most of his time at the courthouse square where business is "best," but that he also haunts the Greyhound bus depot, Saint Raphael's Church and a spot outside of George's Pool Hall on Fourth Street.

Shoe shine needs vary with location, for Paul says that "Business is not all the time good outside the church. Almost everyone there shines their shoes by themselves."

Asked about the bus depot, the boy replied, "Almost everybody needs one there."

On the courthouse lawn Paul gets a lot of teen-age trade. "They like me to shine their boots," he said. He ups his regular 10 cent price to 15 cents for boots, however.

"If teen-agers are with a girl friend, they will take a shoe shine or if they are dressed up they will take it but, if in raggedy clothes, they don't take a shoe shine," said Paul. He also has problems when it comes to suede shoes since he often forgets and leaves his brush at home.

Paul is a fifth grader and plans to go to Davidson School in September. He makes about a dollar a day when he works. "I work Saturday through Friday when I feel pretty good. Or, when all my friends are home, I go play."

Asked what he does with his earnings, he replied, "I save part of it for education or go and buy something I might need. I don't buy my own clothes.

"I've been doing this since I was six. I started out when we lived in San Francisco. My brother, Steve, taught me. I used to do Mayor Shelley's shoes sometimes. If I did a real good job, the mayor gave me a silver dollar. If not, I got a paper dollar."

The young merchant, who carries a small wooden shoe shine box, lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Fitzsimmons at 1532 Third Street. He says he will probably continue in his mobile business until he is 14 and, when he grows up, would like to work in a service station.

He has come a long way since he was six. "My first customer — he was lucky he had black boots. I was pretty bad then but when I got older, I started getting better."

Sanitary District's Budget Carries Drop In Tax Rate

The San Rafael Sanitation District Board yesterday adopted a budget for fiscal 1967-68, carrying a predicted one-half cent drop in the tax rate.

The tax rate was estimated at 33 cents per $100 assessed valuation, including 5 cents for bond redemption, according to Norris M. Rawles, district administrator.

The budget totaled $716,054, down $19,595 from last year's budget, with the amount to be raised by property taxes, $222,974. Last year's property tax revenue was $220,490.

Included in the budget is a 2.5 per cent cost of living raise for the district's five employees, the same boost granted city employees.

The board also granted employees major medical insurance coverage, but took no action on a request from employees to boost the salary schedules in various categories. The employees had contended their salary schedules were lower than those in comparable sanitary districts.

Directors asked Norris M. Rawles, district administrator, to compile a report on salaries in other sanitary districts and report back in a month.

Probation On Drunken Driving

A 67-year-old San Rafael man, who told Marin Municipal Court yesterday he had been given one ticket only — for overdue parking — in 47 years' driving, was placed on probation for a year for drunken driving.

Judge Alvin H. Goldstein Jr., said he was being lenient with Joseph Albertson of 149 Solano Street "because of your excellent driving record." A $250 fine was imposed but the sentence suspended.

Albertson was arrested by San Rafael police in E Street March 17.

Assessment Board Must Act In Public

All decisions by the newly formed county assessment appeals board must be made in open meetings, County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney told board members yesterday.

Asked if assessment appeal cases taken under submission had to be decided in public, Maloney said they did.

"Decided, or announced?" asked chairman Julius H. Selinger.

"Decided and announced," Maloney said. "You may have donnybrooks" in public but that is how decisions must be made, he added.

Maloney and other county officials briefed the board on operating procedures when it starts appeal hearings in September.

The board adjourned to 10 a.m. Aug. 15 at the Civic Center, when it will hear a progress report on state assessment legislation and a report on this year's appeals case load.

Celebration Head Awarded Plaque

The Corte Madera Chamber of Commerce Wednesday awarded Carl K. Brown, chairman of the July Fourth celebration, a plaque in appreciation of his work, and began plans for next year's Fourth of July celebration.

The chamber allocated $1,500 toward next year's parade, mainly for cash prizes for entries.

Tiburon Waterfront Fight Brewing

By GENE CRESCI

Two of Tiburon's major property owners are on a collision course with the city over development of empty waterfront and acreage there.

Private and city interests have already clashed head-on over zoning proposals in a new ordinance being drafted, and the argument with one owner is now in the courts.

At stake is the future of the city and its waterfront and especially the empty but high-priced real estate at the tip of the peninsula.

The struggle in Tiburon reflects growing controversy between the public's desire, and parks and pleasant open spaces and the desire of owners to realize maximum income from their investment.

FIRST HEARINGS

Next showdown will come Monday at 8 p.m. when Tiburon City Council holds the first public hearing on the prospect zoning ordinance in the council chamber.

Tiburon Peninsula Co. has detailed plans, prepared by John Carl Warnecke and Associates of San Francisco, for development of 18 acres, of which 14 are submerged. They call for specialty shops at the water's edge, apartments above the shops, a strip of park at the end of Tiburon Boulevard, and a waterside boardwalk as access to a yacht harbor.

The shoreland controlled by Tiburon Peninsula Co. stretches about a thousand feet from West Mar to Main Street at Tiburon Boulevard and varies from 80 feet to 200 feed wide.

NWP PLANS

Northwestern Pacific has not announced a detailed plan for development of its property that begins at the waterfront strip it once owned and stretches inland. The railroad's 35.5 acres spread through more than half of what some day will be Tiburon's main shopping and business district, and thus may largely determine the character of the city. It will become available for development when the railorad is permitted to abandon its Tiburon operation on reopening of the Puerto Suello tunnel portion of its line.

Value of the undeveloped NWP land has been estimated at $4 million by City Mgr. Lawrence M. Rose, but he also said that land there now sells for $6 to $10 a square foot — which would mean market value exceeding $15 million.

Tiburon has no permantnt zoning ordinance under which it has operated for two years will expire Sept. 15.

NWP has argued for more apartment and village commercial zoning than shown in the waterfront plan prepared for the city. The changes would be at the expense of parks, open space, recreation areas, and single-family homes.

NEW ZONE

As a compromise, new zoning category was added to the ordinance — "planned development," under which plans can be tailored for specific property.

To further complicate the picture, ownership of the Tiburon Peninsula Co.'s acreage is in dispute. The land was sold by NWP to Milton Tonini, then transferred to Robert Moore. He began the plannign, then transferred the property to Michel Demaurex, who organized Tiburon Peninsula Co. The City of Tiburon filed suit challenging all the transfers because no subdivision map was ever filed when the acreage was split from the NWP's other holding.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court has ruled against the city but has under study an application for reconsideration.

Tennis Court Light Request Turned Down

Sausalito Recreation Commission last night voted against installation of lights at the tennis court in South View Park, reported chairman Elmo V. Maggiora.

Approximately 20 users of the court requested metered lights, he said, but about 25 residents of the neighborhood opposed the proposal. The commission rejected the same proposal several years ago.

Maggiora said the commission's first priority someday will be to light three of the five courts at Richardson Bay School. Cost of the lighting there, he said, was estimated at $4,000.

Lights for the single court at South View Park would cost about $2,000, he said.

Commissioners also voted to install three additional covered trash cans to help control litter at Vina Del Mar Plaza, at a cost of about $200.

Commissioner Eleanor Cruikshank was absent.

Novato Sanitary Board Approves Sewer Changes

The Novato Santary District board last night approved the relocation of sewers for two public works projects at its regular meeting in the North Marin County Water District office.

It authorized spending $698 for relocation of sewer mains on Machin Avenue in connection with the City of Novato's Diablo-De Long Realignment project which will terminate at Machin Avenue. At its last meeting the board authorized $2,000 for sewer relocation along the front street portion of the project.

The board authorized spending $1,600 for lowering the sewers on Center Road near Wilmac in connection with the improved drainage of Vineyard Creek at Center Road. This is a project of Novato and the Marin County Flood Control District.

The district staff was authorized to sell three used vehicles, which have been replaced, at the Marin County auction about the middle of August.

LAW IN ACTION

From the State Bar Of California

Don't 'Kill' For Estate

THE BUTLER DID IT

Many a murder mystery tells of the relative or butler who kills a person to get his estate. The mystery solved, the murderer cannot get any part of the estate.

By specific statute a murderer may not take any part of his victim's estate. Under recent changes in the law, any one "who has unlawfully caused the death of the decedent on purpose" cannot claim the estate.

The person need not be convicted of murder. But if he brings about the death he loses claim to any part of the estate. The death must have been brought about on purpose and not by accident.

Sometimes a person acts so recklessly that his act becomes unlawful and the court may declare it to be "intentional." In such cases the person would also be barred from inheriting.

Any person who causes death while he's attempting to commit arson, robbery, burglary, or mayhem is also barred from inheriting from the victim. Thus the butler who tries to rob his benefactor and accidently kills him, still has no claim against the victim's estate.

He would also be barred if he burned down the benefactor's cabin, not knowing that he was in the building. He still has committed such a dangerous crime that his unintentional killing would bar him from claiming any part of the estate.

A person accused of a murder or manslaughter but acquitted is considered not to have caused the death. That person could still inherit if in the probate proceedings, a civil matter, he proved that he did not "unlawfully cause the death."

If the wrongdoer cannot inherit the estate others named in the will may take his share. But if the will provides for no alternate beneficiaries, the estate will be distributed to the decedent's closest relatives as if there were no will.

The court will make a thorough search to find such relatives, even overseas if necessary.

If no relatives can be found, which is rare, the estate "escheats" to the State. After five years California can take steps to take over the estate. (Note: California lawyers offer this column so you may know about our laws.)

Reagan Urged To Reopen South Bay Bridge Study

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Toll Bridge Authority and Gov. Ronald Reagan have been urged to reopen consideration of choosing a route for a bridge across the southern part of San Francisco Bay.

The appeal came Wednesday from Assemblyman Leo Ryan, D-South San Francisco. He said the route selected by the authority 18 months ago from India Basin to Bay Farm Island—would aggravate San Francisco's traffic problems.

He requested substitution of a route from Sierra Point in San Mateo County to Roberts Landing in San Leandro.

State Medical Plan Running Over Budget

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Health and Welfare Administrator Spencer Williams says costs for the state's medical assistance program are running above budget estimates.

Williams told the Health Review and Program Council Wednesday that the Medic-Cal deficit for last fiscal year could run as high as $150 million.

Earlier, Gov. Ronald Reagan had estimated the state would have to appropriate $99 million this year to pay Medi-Cal's deficit.

Williams told the council he will call it into emergency session if the preliminary estimates on the Medi-Cal deficit are confirmed.

If all the progeny of just two parent flies in April survived, there would be 191,010,000,000,000,000 descendants to swat by the end of August.

Sloop Found; Pair Missing

MONTEREY (AP)—A deserted 21-foot sloop, under full sail, was found yesterday two and one-half miles off Monterey Bay.

The yacht was registered to Dr. and Mrs. Albert B. Jones of Yuba City who vanished after visiting the physician's mother at nearby Soquel.

The mother, Mrs. Arthur Jones, said they left her home for a short sail to Monterey and planned to cruise up the Pacific Ocean coast.

A party of skindivers in another boat found the yacht and towed it to Monterey. There was no sign of violence or mishap aboard except that the boom was disconnected from its gooseneck fitting at the mast.

Coast Guard aircraft and ships hunted yesterday for the missing pair and are resuming the search today.

30 Seek Spaces In Waterfront Parking Lot

Written requests for about 30 reserved spaces in Sausalito's new waterfront parking lot were received as of yesterday, City Mgr. George M. Patterson reported.

He told city councilmen Tuesday that he had received four requests, but said yesterday that on Tuesday he had not received an up-to-date count of requests.

Councilmen Tuesday set a $10 monthly fee for spaces in the lot behind the U.S. Post Office and Shell station, with fees to be collected quarterly. Installation of the 124-space lot is to begin late this month.

Counicimen also introduced an ordinance to allow a flexible number of spaces to be reserved for permit parking.

Girl Saves Her Drowning Dog

Mrs. Thomas L. Hollister of 621 Woodbine Drive, Terra Linda, reported that the dog, Musette, was found at the bottom of the pool. Her daughter, Chaun, gave the animal resuscitation for several minutes while her father drove to a veterinarian's. On arrival at the animal hospital, the dog had been revived and was pronounced in fine condition.

Mrs. Hollister praised her daughter's quick thinking, saying, "Chaun had had no training in resuscitation but was determined to keep the 12-week-old dog alive."

Cross Atop Whitney Friendship Symbol

LONE PINE (UPI)—A 10-foot high cross stood today in solitude atop the highest peak in the United States outside of Alaska, as a symbol of Mexican-American friendship.

The steel cross, which bears the national emblems of Mexico and the United States, was erected atop 14,495-foot Mount Whitney by a team of Mexican mountain climbers.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Insomnia Takes Many Forms; Cure Not Always Just A Pill

VAN DELLEN

Insomnia comes in various types. The depressed individual awakens early in the morning and cannot go back to sleep. Those ridden by anxiety are fitful sleepers. Inability to turn off the events of the day is the most common form. This type of insomnia usually is associated with tension, resentment, excitement or frustration.

Sedatives may be relied upon to relax at bed time, but these drugs are not always necessary, especially when they are used as a crutch. Much can be accomplished by avoiding all stimulants, such as coffee, tea, and cola drinks after 4 p.m. Eat dinner or supper earlier and make it a lighter meal. This may be the reason why our forefathers ate the big meal at noon and a light supper at night. A snack is not harmful, but it ought to be confined to a glass of milk or its equivalent. This applies also to competitive sports late in the day.

DISENGAGING oneself from daily activities is more difficult. It may be necessary to read, listen to music, or visit with the family to approach retirement completely relaxed. Some find a brisk walk or hot bath immediately before bed relaxes them. Keep your hours of sleep as regular as possible and select those that suit you the best.

Daily exercise promotes relaxation when it induces healthy fatigue. Recreation permits the discharge of tension and other emotional deterrents, especially when it distracts from the daily routine.

SEX IS AN excellent soporific but many insomniacs have some problem that is interfering with this normal relatioship.

HARD COUGHING

J. McL. writes: My father has chronic bronchitis and sometimes coughs so hard he passes out. What makes this happen?

REPLY

This is known as cough syncope. Coughing initiates a reflex that causes the blood pressure to fall so low the victim faints. Many with bronchitis cough violently in an effort to bring up the secretions. If your father would use less force or take medicine to liquify the sputum, fainting might not occur.

OVULATION AND TEMPERATURE

Mrs. O. writes: Does the body temperature rise at the time of ovulation?

REPLY

Yes. If the temperature is taken every morning before getting out of bed, a slight increase (a few tenths of a degree) will be noted on the day of ovulation. This usually occurs halfway between the menstrual period and the rise lasts until the next menses.

MIGRAINE

REPLY

The usual migraine remedies may be tried. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on this disorder.

HICCUP REMEDY

B. N. writes: Is chlorpromazine established as a hiccup remedy?

REPLY

Yes, along with at least two dozen other drugs.

STOOL COLOR

Mrs. F. writes: What causes greenish, watery stools in an infant?

REPLY

LAW IN ACTION

From the State Bar Of California

Don't 'Kill' For Estate

THE BUTLER DID IT

Many a murder mystery tells of the relative or butler who kills a person to get his estate. The mystery solved, the murderer cannot get any part of the estate.

By specific statute a murderer may not take any part of his victim's estate. Under recent changes in the law, any one "who has unlawfully caused the death of the decedent on purpose" cannot claim the estate.

The person need not be convicted of murder. But if he brings about the death he loses claim to any part of the estate. The death must have been brought about on purpose and not by accident.

Sometimes a person acts so recklessly that his act becomes unlawful and the court may declare it to be "intentional." In such cases the person would also be barred from inheriting.

Any person who causes death while he's attempting to commit arson, robbery, burglary, or mayhem is also barred from inheriting from the victim. Thus the butler who tries to rob his benefactor and accidently kills him, still has no claim against the victim's estate.

He would also be barred if he burned down the benefactor's cabin, not knowing that he was in the building. He still has committed such a dangerous crime that his unintentional killing would bar him from claiming any part of the estate.

A person accused of a murder or manslaughter but acquitted is considered not to have caused the death. That person could still inherit if in the probate proceedings, a civil matter, he proved that he did not "unlawfully cause the death."

If the wrongdoer cannot inherit the estate others named in the will may take his share. But if the will provides for no alternate beneficiaries, the estate will be distributed to the decedent's closest relatives as if there were no will.

The court will make a thorough search to find such relatives, even overseas if necessary.

If no relatives can be found, which is rare, the estate "escheats" to the State. After five years California can take steps to take over the estate. (Note: California lawyers offer this column so you may know about our laws.)

Reagan Urged To Reopen South Bay Bridge Study

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Toll Bridge Authority and Gov. Ronald Reagan have been urged to reopen consideration of choosing a route for a bridge across the southern part of San Francisco Bay.

The appeal came Wednesday from Assemblyman Leo Ryan, D-South San Francisco. He said the route selected by the authority 18 months ago from India Basin to Bay Farm Island—would aggravate San Francisco's traffic problems.

He requested substitution of a route from Sierra Point in San Mateo County to Roberts Landing in San Leandro.

State Medical Plan Running Over Budget

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Health and Welfare Administrator Spencer Williams says costs for the state's medical assistance program are running above budget estimates.

Williams told the Health Review and Program Council Wednesday that the Medic-Cal deficit for last fiscal year could run as high as $150 million.

Earlier, Gov. Ronald Reagan had estimated the state would have to appropriate $99 million this year to pay Medi-Cal's deficit.

Williams told the council he will call it into emergency session if the preliminary estimates on the Medi-Cal deficit are confirmed.

If all the progeny of just two parent flies in April survived, there would be 191,010,000,000,000,000,000 descendants to swat by the end of August.

Sloop Found; Pair Missing

MONTEREY (AP)—A deserted 21-foot sloop, under full sail, was found yesterday two and one-half miles off Monterey Bay.

The yacht was registered to Dr. and Mrs. Albert B. Jones of Yuba City who vanished after visiting the physician's mother at nearby Soquel.

The mother, Mrs. Arthur Jones, said they left her home for a short sail to Monterey and planned to cruise up the Pacific Ocean coast.

A party of skindivers in another boat found the yacht and towed it to Monterey. There was no sign of violence or mishap aboard except that the boom was disconnected from its gooseneck fitting at the mast.

Coast Guard aircraft and ships hunted yesterday for the missing pair and are resuming the search today.

30 Seek Spaces In Waterfront Parking Lot

Written requests for about 30 reserved spaces in Sausalito's new waterfront parking lot were received as of yesterday, City Mgr. George M. Patterson reported.

He told city councilmen Tuesday that he had received four requests, but said yesterday that on Tuesday he had not received an up-to-date count of requests.

Councilmen Tuesday set a $10 monthly fee for spaces in the lot behind the U.S. Post Office and Shell station, with fees to be collected quarterly. Installation of the 124-space lot is to begin late this month.

Counicimen also introduced an ordinance to allow a flexible number of spaces to be reserved for permit parking.

Girl Saves Her Drowning Dog

Mrs. Thomas L. Hollister of 621 Woodbine Drive, Terra Linda, reported that the dog, Musette, was found at the bottom of the pool. Her daughter, Chaun, gave the animal resuscitation for several minutes while her father drove to a veterinarian's. On arrival at the animal hospital, the dog had been revived and was pronounced in fine condition.

Mrs. Hollister praised her daughter's quick thinking, saying, "Chaun had had no training in resuscitation but was determined to keep the 12-week-old dog alive."

Cross Atop Whitney Friendship Symbol

LONE PINE (UPI)—A 10-foot high cross stood today in solitude atop the highest peak in the United States outside of Alaska, as a symbol of Mexican-American friendship.

The steel cross, which bears the national emblems of Mexico and the United States, was erected atop 14,495-foot Mount Whitney by a team of Mexican mountain climbers.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Insomnia Takes Many Forms; Cure Not Always Just A Pill

VAN DELLEN

Insomnia comes in various types. The depressed individual awakens early in the morning and cannot go back to sleep. Those ridden by anxiety are fitful sleepers. Inability to turn off the events of the day is the most common form. This type of insomnia usually is associated with tension, resentment, excitement or frustration.

Sedatives may be relied upon to relax at bed time, but these drugs are not always necessary, especially when they are used as a crutch. Much can be accomplished by avoiding all stimulants, such as coffee, tea, and cola drinks after 4 p.m. Eat dinner or supper earlier and make it a lighter meal. This may be the reason why our forefathers ate the big meal at noon and a light supper at night. A snack is not harmful, but it ought to be confined to a glass of milk or its equivalent. This applies also to competitive sports late in the day.

DISENGAGING oneself from daily activities is more difficult. It may be necessary to read, listen to music, or visit with the family to approach retirement completely relaxed. Some find a brisk walk or hot bath immediately before bed relaxes them. Keep your hours of sleep as regular as possible and select those that suit you the best.

Daily exercise promotes relaxation when it induces healthy fatigue. Recreation permits the discharge of tension and other emotional deterrents, especially when it distracts from the daily routine.

SEX IS AN excellent soporific but many insomniacs have some problem that is interfering with this normal relatioship.

HARD COUGHING

J. McL. writes: My father has chronic bronchitis and sometimes coughs so hard he passes out. What makes this happen?

REPLY

This is known as cough syncope. Coughing initiates a reflex that causes the blood pressure to fall so low the victim faints. Many with bronchitis cough violently in an effort to bring up the secretions. If your father would use less force or take medicine to liquify the sputum, fainting might not occur.

OVULATION AND TEMPERATURE

Mrs. O. writes: Does the body temperature rise at the time of ovulation?

REPLY

Yes. If the temperature is taken every morning before getting out of bed, a slight increase (a few tenths of a degree) will be noted on the day of ovulation. This usually occurs halfway between the menstrual period and the rise lasts until the next menses.

MIGRAINE

REPLY

The usual migraine remedies may be tried. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on this disorder.

HICCUP REMEDY

B. N. writes: Is chlorpromazine established as a hiccup remedy?

REPLY

Yes, along with at least two dozen other drugs.

STOOL COLOR

Mrs. F. writes: What causes greenish, watery stools in an infant?

REPLY

DOUG DICKER CHRYSLER-PLYMOUTH

535 FRANCISCO BLVD. SAN RAFAEL 456-7744

Perry Dreams The Impossible Dream

"I thought sure someone else was pitching when I saw all those runs up there for us," he said.

The Pittsburgh Pirates probably wished Perry was dreaming as he fashioned a seven-hitter and San Francisco beat the Pirates 6-1 last night. It was Perry's first victory after six straight losses since June 10.

"I can't remember how long it's been since I had that many runs," said Perry, a 21-game winner last season who is now 6-11.

The strapping righthander had an easy time of it after his mates combed Vern Law and Pete Mikkelsen for a 5-0 lead in the fifth.

"It felt great — there wasn't anything bothering me out there," Perry said. "It's a lot easier when you get runs. It's easier to work. It's just a different ball game altogether.

"You can do things and don't have to be afraid if you miss. If you miss the corner you can come in with the next pitch and let them take a swing because you have five runs."

Hal Lanier and Tom Haller each socked three hits but the big blast was Willie McCovey's two-run smash off reliever Mikkelsen, who has made a habit in the last month of playing long ball with the first batter he faces.

Mikkelsen went to one knee as McCovey's blast richocheted off the upper deck seats in deepest rightfield.

Pittsburgh's only run was unearned, coming in the sixth inning on an error and two singles. Perry worked his way out of danger in the ninth after the first two batters reached base.

Perry said he pitched badly only once during his winless streak and that was Sunday when the Cubs got to him for eight runs — only three earned — and five hits in six innings. The Giants didn't score, losing 9-0.

A year ago at this time Perry was coasting with a 13-2 record on the way to his finest year. He won't win 21 again, but he'd like to come close. He admits it won't be easy.

"I got a lot of catching up to do, don't I?" Perry said.

Southpaw Ray Sadecki (3-1) hurled today for San Francisco against the Chicago Cubs, the surprise second place challengers who swept three games from the Giants in Candlestick Park last weekend.

Sadecki opposed young Bill Stoneman (0-0). Stoneman went five innings against the Giants last Sunday in his first Cub start. The Cubs won it 3-2.

CERRUDO ROMPS, RATED TRANS-MISS. FAVORITE

Ron Cerrudo of San Rafael, along with Texas champion Lee McDowell and Chula Vista giant-killer Jim Rheim, were the favorites in a skimmed-down field of 16 as the Trans-Mississippi golf tournament moved into the semi-finals today at San Antonio, Texas.

Cerrudo, runnerup in the British Amateur this summer, disposed of another Texan, Lester Lundell of Austin, rather hurriedly, 8 and 7 yesterday.

Rheim, runnerup in the California state amateur where he downed San Rafael's Don Hawken, hung up the biggest scalp of his carreer by eliminating Marty Fleckman, the Port Arthur, Tex., sensation of the U.S. Open, two-up.

San Rafael's Braves 'Invade' Colorado

BRAVERY — Sportsman Irving B. Litchfield's athletic foster children, alias the San Rafael Braves, were off on another road trip today and we should all kneel in prayer for their safe return.

This fun-loving semi-professional baseball club seems to attract (perhaps GENERATE would be a better word) excitement wherever it goes.

This weekend it's a three-game weekend in Grand Junction and that Colorado community will have to go some to top Fallon, Nev. and Ukiah as the Fun Cities of the Golden West.

Last weekend, for example, the Braves spent part of their time in Ukiah fighting a $100,000 fire. And no, smartie pants, they didn't singe the pennant, but would you believe a few eyelashes?

But Fallon really takes the cake. The Braves came home from that Gateway to Nowhere, described it to some blabbermouth (little old line maker ME) and touched off an interstate feud.

Love Letter From Two-Gun Butler

The Braves sent all their enemies ". . .wish you were here" postcards from Fallon, that's how much they enjoyed the place. And the feeling was mutual, according to a love letter I have received from Fallon Eagle-Standard noose-paper publisher Norman "Two-Gun" Butler who fumed: "The club (Braves, natch) which had rooms in the Western here caused several of the other motel guests to leave because of the unnecessary noise and commotion they caused during the entire night!" (Gasp!) What did they expect, the Audubon Society?

Mr. Butler even suggested I send the Braves to Vietnam if they think Fallon is a hell hole. (Okay, you guys. Fall in! Right shoulder, bats! Forward march! Dum-dum, dee-dum dee-dum-dum-dum . . .)

An All-Expense Paid Weekend

Also, I understand the Fallon Chamber of Commerce and Vigilante Committee has awarded me an all-expenses paid weekend there, but I'll be hanged if I'll go. (What 's a bring-your-own tar party?)

I guess that's just their way of thanking me for my "Save Fallon" campaign in which I urge all Marinites to send CARE packages of mosquito eggs and used sun lamps to Mr. Butler.

Anyway, this weekend's junket to Colorado is the highlight of the Braves' season. Team sponsor Litchfield, the sportsman-about-town and owner of Bermuda Palms, is spending about three thou on the trip so it had better be good.

They Have A Ball In 'Junction'

While the Braves played before a sitting room only crowd of seven (7) in Fallon and don't draw much better at their home diamond, they expect 10,000 at tonight's Grand Junction series opener and 8,000 at each of the two remaining games in that red hot baseball town. As Grand Junction's population is an estimated 15,000, I guess all the folks back there do is raise families and watch the ball games. Or vice versa.

I think it is significant that the Braves' flight out of San Francisco International this morning included several wives.

Den mothers yet!

HAWAII CALLING — John Boccabella wasted little time adjusting to minor league pitching. Farmed out to their Tacoma farm club of the Pacific Coast League by the Chicago Cubs earlier this week, the San Anselmo first baseman banged a home run in last night's 9-5 victory over Hawaii in Honolulu.

'I LEFT MY HEART IN SAN FRANCISCO . . .'

Looking more like a blues singer than a swinger, Giant Ollie Brown expressed dissatisfaction with a called third strike in game at Pittsburgh last night, although San Francisco won 6-1. The umpire didn't swoon over Brown's whiffenpoof song. (AP Wirephoto)

BABE RUTH TOURNAMENT

Whiz Kid Dillon Pitches Novato To District Title

There may be another Dillon in Dodge City soon, the way Russ Dillon is gunning down batters.

The amazing 15-year-old added to his already imposing record by mowing down 14 batters on strikeouts, allowing just one hit and shutting out Vacaville, 7-0, to help push the Novato All-Stars to the District 7 Babe Ruth baseball title in Vacaville yesterday.

The win give Novato a spot in the Northern California District Six Tournament at Auburn beginning tomorrow afternoon with a 2:30 game against Palo Alto.

Novato now has rolled undefeated through two double elimination tournaments.

The two teams were locked in a scoreless tie for the first four innings until Novato uncorked for a five-run outburst in the fifth. Glen Holsclaw provided the big blow, a 410-foot, bases loaded triple.

Holsclaw had two hits for the day as did Ken Gnoss.

GREAT RECORD

Dillon, in 21 innings of tournament play, has allowed just 4 hits, 3 earned runs and has struck out 41 batters. On the season he's allowed 6 hits in 42 innings and whiffed 82 batters, 15 in a no-hit effort.

Novato hitters have been giving him good support. The team batting average through six games of tourney play is .320.

The Babe Ruth League is composed of boys aged 13-15.

It's Showdown Time In Li'l League Race

Running on a schedule of one no-hitter per night, the Marin County Little League team champions tourney moves into its semifinal ruond tonight with 6 o'clock games at Larkspur and Sausalito.

The Sausalito Rotary Oaks, who have not allowed a run against them in two games, play the Novato National League Braves at the Twin Cities League park in Larkspur.

Sausalito's Leevester Hall pitched Wednesday's no-hitter against the San Geronimo representative and singled in the first run in a 5-0 win. The Braves have won 15 of 16 games this year, including a 2-0 shutout over the Novato American League Yankees Wednesday in their only tourney game.

Taveggia-Brusati of the San Rafael American League, whose Dave Bacon pitched a no-hitter Tuesday, plays the Tiburon Peninsula Pirates at Sausalito. The San Rafael team has scored 21 runs in two games.

The championship game will be played at Novato at 1 p.m. tomorrow.

The Marin All-Star tournament that can lead to the Little League World Series in Williamsport, Pa., starts Tuesday.

Victory Dinner For The Champs

San Anselmo American Legion Post 179 will honor its championship Little League baseball team tomorrow night at a dinner at Deer Park Villa in Fairfax. The festivities, including all-star and improvement awards, will begin at 7:30 o'clock. Manager John McAuliffe is handling reservations.

Park, Radio-TV Deal Impressive

CHICAGO (AP)—Oakland made its pitch yesterday for an American League baseball team and Charles O. Finley, owner of the money-losing Kansas City Athletics said, "I'm very much impressed."

Robert Nahas, president of the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum Corp., presented a lease proposal which he said he hopes will persuade Finley and the American League to move the Kansas City franchise to what Nahas called "the finest spectator stadium in the United States."

Finley said representatives of KCBS also discussed with him radio and television coverage by the CBS-owned station at San Francisco. Finley said he expected a concrete offer later from Julius Dundes, vice president and general manager, and Don Klein, sports director of KCBS.

Finley said he doesn't expect to decide whether to ask the league for permission to move the franchise until some time in October. That's when his current lease of the Kansas City Stadium expires.

NOTHING SPECIFIC

Earlier this week, Finley talked with representatives of the Kansas City Sports Authority, which plans to build a $43 million sports complex. They said the meeting did not get down to specific terms by which Kansas City hopes to keep the Athletics.

At a joint news conference yesterday, Nahan said he is hopeful of getting the American League team for Oakland for the 1968 season.

Finley said items that particularly impressed him were that Oakland "has a stadium ready and available immediately" and a four million population in the San Francisco-Oakland Bay area from which to draw customers.

MILWAUKEE BID

Finley said he would be pleased to listen to a proposal to move the Athletics to Milwaukee, which has a major league stadium and no one to play in it since the National League Braves moved to Atlanta.

"But no one associated with Milwaukee has contacted me," Finley said.

The A's owner said the club has lost $4,283,000 in the last six years at Kansas City.

PGA Leader Hill Once Scored 178

By BOB MYERS

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Good looking Dave Hill, a professional golfer who once managed to record 178 strokes for one round of golf—well, that's the way it came out on his card and he signed it—was in far better circumstances today.

Hill, 30, from the little mountain resort town of Evergreen, 30 miles from Denver, led such heroes of the game as Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Billy Casper into the second round of the $150,000 Professional Golfers Association Championship.

Hill got a six-under par 66 yesterday, a record for the site of this 49th PGA title romp, the 7,436-yard, par 36-36—72 Columbine Country Club course.

Nicklaus, the U.S. Open champion, who banged out five birdies and then an eagle in a seven-hole span, finished with a 67 and observed ruefully:

PALMER AT 70

Taylor Joins Raider Camp

SANTA ROSA (UP) — End Lionel Taylor, received in a trade with Denver earlier this week, reported for training at the Oakland Raiders camp yesterday.

Taylor, top pass receiver in the American Football League in several seasons, was put to work in two drills and Coach John Rauch said he was pleased with Taylor's condition.

Also reporting, but not in time to work out, was tackle Bob Svihus.

Rauch indicated he was satisfied with workouts of the Raiders thus far, but admitted he would have to step up activity to get the team ready for its Aug. 5 game with San Diego in Oakland.

Guard Jerry Sturm, also involved in the trade with Denver, still had not reported yesterday. Rauch said it was up to Sturm whether he reported.

Perry Dreams The Impossible Dream

"I thought sure someone else was pitching when I saw all those runs up there for us," he said.

The Pittsburgh Pirates probably wished Perry was dreaming as he fashioned a seven-hitter and San Francisco beat the Pirates 6-1 last night. It was Perry's first victory after six straight losses since June 10.

"I can't remember how long it's been since I had that many runs," said Perry, a 21-game winner last season who is now 6-11.

The strapping righthander had an easy time of it after his mates combed Vern Law and Pete Mikkelsen for a 5-0 lead in the fifth.

"It felt great — there wasn't anything bothering me out there," Perry said. "It's a lot easier when you get runs. It's easier to work. It's just a different ball game altogether.

"You can do things and don't have to be afraid if you miss. If you miss the corner you can come in with the next pitch and let them take a swing because you have five runs."

Hal Lanier and Tom Haller each socked three hits but the big blast was Willie McCovey's two-run smash off reliever Mikkelsen, who has made a habit in the last month of playing long ball with the first batter he faces.

Pittsburgh's only run was unearned, coming in the sixth inning on an error and two singles. Perry worked his way out of danger in the ninth after the first two batters reached base.

Perry said he pitched badly only once during his winless streak and that was Sunday when the Cubs got to him for eight runs — only three earned — and five hits in six innings. The Giants didn't score, losing 9-0.

A year ago at this time Perry was coasting with a 13-2 record on the way to his finest year. He won't win 21 again, but he'd like to come close. He admits it won't be easy.

"I got a lot of catching up to do, don't I?" Perry said.

Southpaw Ray Sadecki (3-1) hurled today for San Francisco against the Chicago Cubs, the surprise second place challengers who swept three games from the Giants in Candlestick Park last weekend.

CERRUDO ROMPS, RATED TRANS-MISS. FAVORITE

Ron Cerrudo of San Rafael, along with Texas champion Lee McDowell and Chula Vista giant-killer Jim Rheim, were the favorites in a skimmed-down field of 16 as the Trans-Mississippi golf tournament moved into the semi-finals today at San Antonio, Texas.

Cerrudo, runnerup in the British Amateur this summer, disposed of another Texan, Lester Lundell of Austin, rather hurriedly, 8 and 7 yesterday.

Rheim, runnerup in the California state amateur where he downed San Rafael's Don Hawken, hung up the biggest scalp of his carreer by eliminating Marty Fleckman, the Port Arthur, Tex., sensation of the U.S. Open, two-up.

JIM GILMARTIN

San Rafael's Braves 'Invade' Colorado

BRAVERY — Sportsman Irving B. Litchfield's athletic foster children, alias the San Rafael Braves, were off on another road trip today and we should all kneel in prayer for their safe return.

This fun-loving semi-professional baseball club seems to attract (perhaps GENERATE would be a better word) excitement wherever it goes.

This weekend it's a three-game weekend in Grand Junction and that Colorado community will have to go some to top Fallon, Nev. and Ukiah as the Fun Cities of the Golden West.

Last weekend, for example, the Braves spent part of their time in Ukiah fighting a $100,000 fire. And no, smartie pants, they didn't singe the pennant, but would you believe a few eyelashes?

But Fallon really takes the cake. The Braves came home from that Gateway to Nowhere, described it to some blabbermouth (little old line maker ME) and touched off an interstate feud.

Love Letter From Two-Gun Butler

The Braves sent all their enemies ". . .wish you were here" postcards from Fallon, that's how much they enjoyed the place. And the feeling was mutual, according to a love letter I have received from Fallon Eagle-Standard noose-paper publisher Norman "Two-Gun" Butler who fumed: "The club (Braves, natch) which had rooms in the Western here caused several of the other motel guests to leave because of the unnecessary noise and commotion they caused during the entire night!" (Gasp!) What did they expect, the Audubon Society?

Mr. Butler even suggested I send the Braves to Vietnam if they think Fallon is a hell hole. (Okay, you guys. Fall in! Right shoulder, bats! Forward march! Dum-dum, dee-dum dee-dum-dum-dum . . .)

An All-Expense Paid Weekend

Also, I understand the Fallon Chamber of Commerce and Vigilante Committee has awarded me an all-expenses paid weekend there, but I'll be hanged if I'll go. (What 's a bring-your-own tar party?)

I guess that's just their way of thanking me for my "Save Fallon" campaign in which I urge all Marinites to send CARE packages of mosquito eggs and used sun lamps to Mr. Butler.

Anyway, this weekend's junket to Colorado is the highlight of the Braves' season. Team sponsor Litchfield, the sportsman-about-town and owner of Bermuda Palms, is spending about three thou on the trip so it had better be good.

They Have A Ball In 'Junction'

While the Braves played before a sitting room only crowd of seven (7) in Fallon and don't draw much better at their home diamond, they expect 10,000 at tonight's Grand Junction series opener and 8,000 at each of the two remaining games in that red hot baseball town. As Grand Junction's population is an estimated 15,000, I guess all the folks back there do is raise families and watch the ball games. Or vice versa.

I think it is significant that the Braves' flight out of San Francisco International this morning included several wives.

HAWAII CALLING — John Boccabella wasted little time adjusting to minor league pitching. Farmed out to their Tacoma farm club of the Pacific Coast League by the Chicago Cubs earlier this week, the San Anselmo first baseman banged a home run in last night's 9-5 victory over Hawaii in Honolulu.

'I LEFT MY HEART IN SAN FRANCISCO . . .'

Looking more like a blues singer than a swinger, Giant Ollie Brown expressed dissatisfaction with a called third strike in game at Pittsburgh last night, although San Francisco won 6-1. The umpire didn't swoon over Brown's whiffenpoof song. (AP Wirephoto)

Marin Tennis Girls Pull 'Little Miracle'

Darby Auerbach of Belvedere and Sharon Walsh of San Rafael are competing this weekend in the Washington State Tennis Championships at the Seattle Tennis Club, first-seeded in the Girls 16 doubles after pulling off a little miracle last weekend in the Northwest Championships at Tacoma.

Playing in the finals against Gay Harris of La Jolla and Lark Walters of Northridge, Calif., they were down and almost out at match point when their opponents served to 40-30 at 2-6, 6-2, 5-1. Darby made a bad return on the next point, but she and Sharon got another chance when a ball from an adjacent court rolled onto their court.

They came back to win that game and suddenly regained the momentum they had in the first set. They reeled off five more games to take the final set 7-5.

Darby, Sharon and a handful of other Bay Area junior players are playing in northwest tournaments under sponsorship of the Northern California Tennis Association. Sponsored players are housed in homes of members of the host tennis clubs. Mrs. Les Walsh reports that her daughter and Miss Auerbach are presently residing in a mansion overlooking Lake Washington in Seattle.

Heavyweight Tourney Cast Is Complete

By JACK STEVENSON

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Jerry Quarry completed the cast for the heavyweight boxing title eliminations when he agreed to meet Floyd Patterson again Oct. 28.

The Bellflower fighter agreed to terms yesterday to meet Patterson in Los Angeles despite a reported $70,000 offer to battle Philadelphia's Joe Frazier at New York's Madison Square Garden.

Quarry knocked ex-champion Patterson down twice in their initial meeting on June 9 but went down himself later and the verdict came out a draw.

BOTH WILLING

Both apparently are willing to go through with tournament action, but Quarry wants to box again in Los Angeles should he win.

The California Athletic Commission, which sanctioned the 12-round bout as a title elimination, maintains no single group should have control over an entire tournament.

Thus, the entry of Quarry guarantees an open tournament through the initial stages for the quest to determine a successor to Cassius Clay, stripped of the crown when he was convicted of draft evasion.

EXTRA ROUNDS

"I think I can beat him in 12 rounds and I thought I beat him in 10," the young California declared. "The extra two rounds should help me. After all, he's 10 years my elder."

Many thought the 32-year-old Patterson had beaten Quarry, 22, the first time they met even though he went down twice in the second round.

"I learned in that one to stay off the ropes and punch a little more," said Quarry at the conference announcing the bout. "I'm getting stronger and more experienced."

DOUBLEHEADER

Astro Rookie Continues Streak

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jackie Brandt already knows it is easier to hit for teammate Don Wilson than against him, and the rest of the National League hitters are quickly learning it, too.

Wilson, a rookie right-hander who pitched a no-hitter a month ago and a three-hitter 11 days ago, cut down New York on two hits last night as the Houston Astros belted the Mets 7-0.

It was his third straight victory and while he has discouraged opposing hitters, his pitching has brought out the best in Brandt. The veteran reserve outfielder, hitting only .237, had 6 hits in 11 at bats with his only triple and homer and 8 of his 10 runs batted in during those games.

"I don't know what it is, but I sure do well when he's pitching," Brandt said.

Another part-time performer, Gene Oliver, also had a good night, stroking three singles and a two-run homer as he led Philadelphia over Los Angeles 10-4.

League-leading St. Louis unleashed Julian Javier, Orlando Cepeda and Bob Tolan, who each homered, and whipped Cincinnati 7-3.

Pat Jarvis snapped the Chicago Cubs' five-game winning streak with a four-hitter that lifted Atlanta to a 2-1 victory, and Gaylord Perry broke his own six-game losing string by pitching San Francisco to a 6-1 triumph over Pittsburgh.

Wilson, 22, now 7-5, allowed only singles by Ed Charles in the first inning and Larry Stahl in the ninth. He struck out nine, walked two and hit one and extended his shutout string to 25 innings, breaking the club record of 24 set by Robin Roberts.

"I wasn't concerned with getting a one-hitter, only the shutout," Wilson said, "but I had no idea about the record."

The Astros and Brandt made the rest easy. Brandt drove in one of four second-inning runs with his fly and then hit a three-run homer in the fifth off Bob Shaw and later doubled off Shaw, who could be Brandt's favorite pitcher to hit against.

The hits gave Brandt 12 straight safeties against Shaw, 10 when they were in the American League and now two in the N.L.

Oliver's first hit helped the Phillies to a four-run second inning against Claude Osteen, and his homer made it 6-0 in the third. Bobby Wine belted his first homer of the season in the fifth with two on as Larry Jackson, 7-9, breezed.

Javier slammed a three-run shot, Cepada a two-run blow and Tolan a solo homer as the Cardinals hammered Mel Queen and Don Nottebart and increased their lead to two games over the Cubs.

The Cubs played their game under protest when Ernie Banks hit a short fly to left-center field in the sixth inning with the bases loaded and Glenn Becker, trying to score from third, was tagged out at the plate after bouncing off catcher Joe Torre. Cub Manager Leo Durocher claimed Torre blocked the plate before he had the ball, thereby interfering with the runner.

The Braves had taken a 2-1 lead in the inning on hits by Hank Aaron and Torre and an infield out after Tito Francona homered earlier.

Arnie, Jack Et Al Trail Davey Hill

Hill's famous score came in last summer's Thunderbird. He actually had a 78 in the second round, but somehow it came out 178—and his 36-hole total was 257.

"Yes," Dave recalled, "I missed the cut."

WHO'S MRS. MURPHY?

"I played like Mrs. Murphy the first few holes," said Hill, neglecting to identify Mrs. Murphy, in describing yesterday's round. He was consistent off the tees, also. He drove into the rough on 14 holes, finding the fairway only twice on each nine.

Hill won the Memphis Open in June but otherwise he said he'd captured a lot of nothing in tournament play.

Boros, at 47, the elder statesman of the cast, was asked if he was pooped at the finish. Laughing easily, Boros replied, "I'm pooped when I start."

"I played very erratic," Palmer said. "My real trouble was with my short irons. I played some of them like I'd never seen a golf course before."

Nicklaus got his eagle three on the 440-yard 12th. A one-iron left him 27 feet short but he holed out. Hill's eagle 2 came on an eight iron on the 473-yard 14th.

CUBS PROTEST

Lip Flips Lid, Quips: 'Tis Gyp

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cubs are going so good these days that even in defeat Manager Leo "The Lip" Durocher is seeking victory.

"This time I've got 'em," shouted Durocher in glee yesterday after filing a protest in the Cubs' 2-1 loss to the Atlanta Braves.

"I'm not protesting the umpires' judgment, I'm protesting the rule, and there it is in black and white," said Durocher.

The controversy arose in the sixth inning when the Cubs had the bases loaded with one out and were trailing by the ultimate 2-1 score.

SHORT FLY

Ernie Banks lifted a fly in short left and shortstop Denis Menke went back to grab the ball. Menke fired to the plate as Glenn Beckert came storming in from third base. Beckert bounced off catcher Joe Torre and then scrambled for the plate. Before he could touch home with what would have been the tying run, Torre put the tag on him and Umpire Paul Pryor called Beckert out.

"You can block home plate but you can't be three yards up the line and knock my man down even before having the ball," said Durocher.

"He gave Beckert the hip, then caught the ball and put the tag on him," shouted Durocher. "If that isn't obstruction then I don't know what obstruction is. Here's the rule, read it."

In the National League's Book of Instructions for Umpires, rule 7.06 states "Umpires should watch attempts by the catcher to block the plate or hold a runner when the catcher is not in possession of the ball. This is obstruction."

'BECKERT SAFE'

"If Torre doesn't hit Beckert, Beckert is safe," said Durocher.

"When I went out to argue with Pryor I asked him to admit Torre didn't have the ball, and Pryor admitted it," continued Durocher, "I asked him to admit he was up the line, and he admitted that. Two of the other umpires—Tom Gorman and Tony Venzon—were there and heard Pryor's admissions. Then I told them to make sure they didn't change their stories in their reports to the league office."

UMPIRE'S VIEW

"The catcher can block the plate as long as he is in the act of fielding the ball," said Gorman. "Once the ball leaves the fielder's hand and is on its way to the catcher, the catcher is fielding it. That's a lot of latitude but that's the rule we have to go by."

Mill Valley Wins DiMag League Game

Mill Valley Chiefs moved into a two-way tie for second place with the Presidio by ripping San Anselmo 14-6 yesterday at Tamalpais High School in a Joe DiMaggio League encounter.

The Chiefs are now 4-3, same as the faltering Presidio.

Mill Valley overcame a 3-0 first inning deficit with a seven-run blitzkrieg in the second inning. A four-run bombardment in the fourth insured the win.

San Anselmo is now 1-6.

Marin Tennis Girls Pull 'Little Miracle'

Darby Auerbach of Belvedere and Sharon Walsh of San Rafael are competing this weekend in the Washington State Tennis Championships at the Seattle Tennis Club, first-seeded in the Girls 16 doubles after pulling off a little miracle last weekend in the Northwest Championships at Tacoma.

Playing in the finals against Gay Harris of La Jolla and Lark Walters of Northridge, Calif., they were down and almost out at match point when their opponents served to 40-30 at 2-6, 6-2, 5-1. Darby made a bad return on the next point, but she and Sharon got another chance when a ball from an adjacent court rolled onto their court.

They came back to win that game and suddenly regained the momentum they had in the first set. They reeled off five more games to take the final set 7-5.

Darby, Sharon and a handful of other Bay Area junior players are playing in northwest tournaments under sponsorship of the Northern California Tennis Association. Sponsored players are housed in homes of members of the host tennis clubs. Mrs. Les Walsh reports that her daughter and Miss Auerbach are presently residing in a mansion overlooking Lake Washington in Seattle.

Heavyweight Tourney Cast Is Complete

By JACK STEVENSON

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Jerry Quarry completed the cast for the heavyweight boxing title eliminations when he agreed to meet Floyd Patterson again Oct. 28.

The Bellflower fighter agreed to terms yesterday to meet Patterson in Los Angeles despite a reported $70,000 offer to battle Philadelphia's Joe Frazier at New York's Madison Square Garden.

Quarry knocked ex-champion Patterson down twice in their initial meeting on June 9 but went down himself later and the verdict came out a draw.

Mrs. Aileen Eaton, promoting the rematch, declared, "Neither Quarry nor Patterson have any contract whatsoever for future fights."

BOTH WILLING

Both apparently are willing to go through with tournament action, but Quarry wants to box again in Los Angeles should he win.

The California Athletic Commission, which sanctioned the 12-round bout as a title elimination, maintains no single group should have control over an entire tournament.

Thus, the entry of Quarry guarantees an open tournament through the initial stages for the quest to determine a successor to Cassius Clay, stripped of the crown when he was convicted of draft evasion.

EXTRA ROUNDS

"I think I can beat him in 12 rounds and I thought I beat him in 10," the young California declared. "The extra two rounds should help me. After all, he's 10 years my elder."

Many thought the 32-year-old Patterson had beaten Quarry, 22, the first time they met even though he went down twice in the second round.

"I learned in that one to stay off the ropes and punch a little more," said Quarry at the conference announcing the bout. "I'm getting stronger and more experienced."

DOUBLEHEADER

Astro Rookie Continues Streak

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jackie Brandt already knows it is easier to hit for teammate Don Wilson than against him, and the rest of the National League hitters are quickly learning it, too.

Wilson, a rookie right-hander who pitched a no-hitter a month ago and a three-hitter 11 days ago, cut down New York on two hits last night as the Houston Astros belted the Mets 7-0.

It was his third straight victory and while he has discouraged opposing hitters, his pitching has brought out the best in Brandt. The veteran reserve outfielder, hitting only .237, had 6 hits in 11 at bats with his only triple and homer and 8 of his 10 runs batted in during those games.

"I don't know what it is, but I sure do well when he's pitching," Brandt said.

Brandt drove in four runs last night with a sacrifice fly and the homer and added a double.

Another part-time performer, Gene Oliver, also had a good night, stroking three singles and a two-run homer as he led Philadelphia over Los Angeles 10-4.

League-leading St. Louis unleashed Julian Javier, Orlando Cepeda and Bob Tolan, who each homered, and whipped Cincinnati 7-3.

Pat Jarvis snapped the Chicago Cubs' five-game winning streak with a four-hitter that lifted Atlanta to a 2-1 victory, and Gaylord Perry broke his own six-game losing string by pitching San Francisco to a 6-1 triumph over Pittsburgh.

Wilson, 22, now 7-5, allowed only singles by Ed Charles in the first inning and Larry Stahl in the ninth. He struck out nine, walked two and hit one and extended his shutout string to 25 innings, breaking the club record of 24 set by Robin Roberts.

"I wasn't concerned with getting a one-hitter, only the shutout," Wilson said, "but I had no idea about the record."

The Astros and Brandt made the rest easy. Brandt drove in one of four second-inning runs with his fly and then hit a three-run homer in the fifth off Bob Shaw and later doubled off Shaw, who could be Brandt's favorite pitcher to hit against.

The hits gave Brandt 12 straight safeties against Shaw, 10 when they were in the American League and now two in the N.L.

Oliver's first hit helped the Phillies to a four-run second inning against Claude Osteen, and his homer made it 6-0 in the third. Bobby Wine belted his first homer of the season in the fifth with two on as Larry Jackson, 7-9, breezed.

Javier slammed a three-run shot, Cepada a two-run blow and Tolan a solo homer as the Cardinals hammered Mel Queen and Don Nottebart and increased their lead to two games over the Cubs.

The Cubs played their game under protest when Ernie Banks hit a short fly to left-center field in the sixth inning with the bases loaded and Glenn Becker, trying to score from third, was tagged out at the plate after bouncing off catcher Joe Torre. Cub Manager Leo Durocher claimed Torre blocked the plate before he had the ball, thereby interfering with the runner.

The Braves had taken a 2-1 lead in the inning on hits by Hank Aaron and Torre and an infield out after Tito Francona homered earlier.

Hill's famous score came in last summer's Thunderbird. He actually had a 78 in the second round, but somehow it came out 178—and his 36-hole total was 257.

"Yes," Dave recalled, "I missed the cut."

WHO'S MRS. MURPHY?

"I played like Mrs. Murphy the first few holes," said Hill, neglecting to identify Mrs. Murphy, in describing yesterday's round. He was consistent off the tees, also. He drove into the rough on 14 holes, finding the fairway only twice on each nine.

Hill won the Memphis Open in June but otherwise he said he'd captured a lot of nothing in tournament play.

Boros, at 47, the elder statesman of the cast, was asked if he was pooped at the finish. Laughing easily, Boros replied, "I'm pooped when I start."

"I played very erratic," Palmer said. "My real trouble was with my short irons. I played some of them like I'd never seen a golf course before."

Asked how he felt, Arnie exclaimed, "I feel great. Maybe that's my trouble."

Nicklaus got his eagle three on the 440-yard 12th. A one-iron left him 27 feet short but he holed out. Hill's eagle 2 came on an eight iron on the 473-yard 14th.

Mill Valley Wins DiMag League Game

Mill Valley Chiefs moved into a two-way tie for second place with the Presidio by ripping San Anselmo 14-6 yesterday at Tamalpais High School in a Joe DiMaggio League encounter.

The Chiefs are now 4-3, same as the faltering Presidio.

Mill Valley overcame a 3-0 first inning deficit with a seven-run blitzkrieg in the second inning. A four-run bombardment in the fourth insured the win.

San Anselmo is now 1-6.

CUBS PROTEST

Lip Flips Lid, Quips: 'Tis Gyp

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cubs are going so good these days that even in defeat Manager Leo "The Lip" Durocher is seeking victory.

"This time I've got 'em," shouted Durocher in glee yesterday after filing a protest in the Cubs' 2-1 loss to the Atlanta Braves.

"I'm not protesting the umpires' judgment, I'm protesting the rule, and there it is in black and white," said Durocher.

The controversy arose in the sixth inning when the Cubs had the bases loaded with one out and were trailing by the ultimate 2-1 score.

SHORT FLY

Ernie Banks lifted a fly in short left and shortstop Denis Menke went back to grab the ball. Menke fired to the plate as Glenn Beckert came storming in from third base. Beckert bounced off catcher Joe Torre and then scrambled for the plate. Before he could touch home with what would have been the tying run, Torre put the tag on him and Umpire Paul Pryor called Beckert out.

"You can block home plate but you can't be three yards up the line and knock my man down even before having the ball," said Durocher.

"He gave Beckert the hip, then caught the ball and put the tag on him," shouted Durocher. "If that isn't obstruction then I don't know what obstruction is. Here's the rule, read it."

In the National League's Book of Instructions for Umpires, rule 7.06 states "Umpires should watch attempts by the catcher to block the plate or hold a runner when the catcher is not in possession of the ball. This is obstruction."

'BECKERT SAFE'

"If Torre doesn't hit Beckert, Beckert is safe," said Durocher.

"When I went out to argue with Pryor I asked him to admit Torre didn't have the ball, and Pryor admitted it," continued Durocher, "I asked him to admit he was up the line, and he admitted that. Two of the other umpires—Tom Gorman and Tony Venzon—were there and heard Pryor's admissions. Then I told them to make sure they didn't change their stories in their reports to the league office."

UMPIRE'S VIEW

"The catcher can block the plate as long as he is in the act of fielding the ball," said Gorman. "Once the ball leaves the fielder's hand and is on its way to the catcher, the catcher is fielding it. That's a lot of latitude but that's the rule we have to go by."

No Rhyme Or Reason, It's Just That Season

I don't know if Bennett Cerf will understand them all, but I thought I would bring you a few limericks from the back of an old scorecard. Please refer all complaints to the management, so as to leave my phone free for my bookie. Here goes:

Oh, Alvin O'Neill McBean
His fast ball could scarcely be seen
Still, he so seldom won
'Cause his team couldn't run
And the manager treated them mean.

And Tony Conigliaro
A base hit he couldn't borrow
Till his manager said,
"It's all in the head
"And you'll be all right tomorrow"

Now, Rico Petrocelli
Had this big pain in the belly
Though his eyes were just fine
And his hits on a line
Still he had to give up mostacciole.

There was a young man named Durocher
Whose tactics were strictly not kosher
To win by a run
This son-of-a-gun
Would kill everyone in Kenosha!

A golfer whose name was A. Palmer
Whose manners could hardly be calmer
Till he hit in the trees
Which his fans failed to please
And his game went to an embalmer.

There was a young boxer named Clay
From his mouth came a constant fine spray
Then he changed to Egyptian
Which caused a conniption
But if he'd go there we'd all say "Hurray!"

The coach was named Ara Parseghian
Whose tie was deplored by a legion
Not the one 'round his neck
Which was a Toulouse Lautrec
But in the game that was hardly collegian.

An ambition indubitably curious
Is the Dodgers to win the World Serious
For when they traded their stars
Like old-model cars
Their sincerity seemed to be the least spurious.

Barkeep A Good Bet In Bowling

By GARY TISCHLER

Like the mailman, Sandy Koufax and Calvin Coolidge, Silva gives a recurring performance. He is always high something or other on the bulletin boards at one Marin County bowling lane or another.

Last week it was high series at Greenbrae. This week, Silva, va, a Sausalito tavern owner, smashed out a 254 game for high game honors at Country Club Bowl in San Rafael.

MILLER HIGH

For an example of one night consistency, let's take Ray Miller, a lane man at Nave Lanes near Ignacio. Miller rolled a steady 857 for four games, capped by a 232 to take the four-game series high at Greenbrae Lanes last week.

At Country Club Bowl, it was a week for doing better than average.

Lorry Azevedo, a 147 average bowler, came through with a 226-561 series. He also races hardtops at Vallejo. Delores Benson of the Bowlerettes, averaging 151, did considerably better, rolling six straight strikes and coming up with a 236 for high game honors for the ladies. Without a handicap system.

WALT SILVA

Other outstanding performances at Country Club Bowl included a 254 game by Frank Del Villar and a 245 by Leo Gorman, a Country Club Bowl employee. Rick Posusney, making only his second start in adult bowling after an impressive junior bowling career, rolled a hot 244.

At Greenbrae, Sylvia Knutson, treasurer of the Marin County Women's Bowling Association, put together a 243-775 series to top the distaffers in the four-game set and high game races. Dolores Ray's 548 was the best three-game set and her 213 was second in the high game derby.

There was no report of highs or lows or neutrals from Nave Lanes, where apparently all is quiet.

STATE LEADER

Meanwhile, at the California State Men's championships in Modesto, Dick Treadway of Larkspur continues to lead the all-events scratch competition with his score of 607-645-665—1917. This gave him a five-pin lead on E. G. Mock of Lynwood.

Frank Therriault of Kentfield still has the third highest scratch series, a 207-219-275—701.

Beaten Richey Quits Tourney

COMBINED AP & UPI

MILWAUKEE — Defending champion Cliff Richey of Dallas left the National Clay Courts tournament here yesterday, disgusted and fatigued after Mike Belkin of Canada beat him for the second straight week, 7-9, 6-2, 6-3, 6-1.

Richey withdrew from the doubles competition, where he was teamed with Arthur Ashe, and headed for home. "I've never reached this stage before," said the intensely competitive 20-year-old Texan. "I can't even talk."

Belkin, a rival of Richey since their junior days, advanced to a semifinal match with Marty Riessen of Evanston, Ill., 6-4, 6-4, 3-6, 6-0 winner over Ray Ruffels of Australia. The other two quarterfinals will be played today, matching Ashe against John Cooper of Australia and George Seewagen of New York against Ron Barnes of Brazil.

In women's action, top-seeded Mrs. Billie Jean King and defending champ Nancy Richey, Cliff's sister, Moved on to the semifinals. Mrs. King will meet her doubles partner, Rosemary Casals of San Francisco, while Miss Richey will play the top-seeded foreigner, Kerry Melville of Australia.

BASEBALL

CINCINNATI — Dave Bristol, 34-year-old manager of the Cincinnati Reds, was given a new two-year contract yesterday for an estimated $40,000. Bristol, who never played in the major leagues, took over a year ago and has had the Reds in pennant contention this year despite a rash of injuries.

ATLANTA — Brave pitcher Tony Cloninger has returned here for further medical examinations of his eyes that may result in a decision to put him on the disabled list for the rest of the season. Medicine the ace righthander took for a recent eye infection has affected his weight and stamina, reported a Brave official.

FOOTBALL

SAN DIEGO — Bert E. Rose Jr., a veteran of 20 years in college and professional athletic front offices, athletics, was named the first general manager of the new National Football League team in New Orleans.

SOCCER

BALTIMORE — The coach and two players of the Baltimore Bays of the National Professional Soccer League were fined a total of $325 and suspended for one game yesterday for abusing a referee in Baltimore's 2-1 loss to New York Sunday.

DALLAS — Bob Kap, former player in Yugoslavia and Hungary, was named coach of the Dallas team in the United Soccer Association.

GOLF

LONDON, Ont. — Mickey Wright, Carol Mann and three others share the first-round lead in the Canadian Women's Open with two-under-par 70's.

HORSE RACING

INGLEWOOD — Jockey Johnny Sellers will miss the Hollywood Juvenile Saturday and the Sunset Handicap Monday at Hollywood Park because of a fractured shoulder bone he suffered when thrown by Quita Dude after they crossed the finish line in the seventh race Wednesday. Sellers, who was to ride Jim White in the Juvenile and Pretense in the Sunset, will be shelved for two or three weeks.

Marin Team Leads Marathon Touney

Marin Country Club's women's team of 26 golfers outscored the team from the Presidio yesterday 26-13 in nest-ball match play of twosomes at the Marin club.

The Marin women thus took a 143-115 lead into the final match of their three-year tourney with the Presidio women for a large trophy. Points are given on a basis of one for the front nine, one for the back nine and an extra one if a team wins both nines.

A Presidio entry won Class A at the Meadow Club, as Mrs. C. G. De Kay carded 87-15-72 to beat Mrs. Aubrey Babson's 83-9-74. Mrs. Harry Hensen had 91-16-75.

Braves Face Top Team In Colorado

San Rafael Braves, leading the Coastal Division of the semi-pro Western Baseball Association, traveled east today to Grand Junction, Colorado, home of the top team in the WBA's Interstate division and, according to Brave Manager Joe Anselmo, the best non-professional outfit in the country.

The Braves will play three games at Grand Junction and it should be a tremendous series. San Rafael takes a 28-6 record against the Eagles' 23-7.

San Rafael's pitching is spotty but the hitters have had a joyous summer thrashing the pitchers in the Coastal division, which seems to be distinctly weaker than the Interstate division. The Braves sport a team batting average of .317.

Rich Jeffries leads the regulars with 30 hits in 72 at bats for .417. Pitcher Ben Burch has nine for 17, .529, in addition to his 6-1 mound record with a 2.48 earned run average.

Burch will start tonight at Grand Junction, where crowds of 8,000 are not unusual for Eagle games. Anselmo expects to pitch Bob De Rosa tomorrow and Bill Clark Sunday.

Last year the Braves played at Grand Junction after a 21-hour bus ride. Baseball clubs often play good ball under such conditions and the weary Braves won the first game of the series. Grand Junction took the last two, however.

This year team sponsor Whitey Litchfield's men are flying back to Colorado, so it will be just Grand Junction pitching they have to overcome.

Catcher Ejected, Game Forfeited

Presidio and Brandon Tires were winners in last night's play of the San Rafael Recreation Department's Adult Softball League.

The Presidio nicked Indian Valley, 6-5, and Brandon Tires topped the Bushers, 6-2. The losers had to forfeit in the last inning when their catcher was ejected from the game.

Pandiani, O'Connell Pace Teams In Rec Basketball

A and E Garage nipped Drake Market 58-56 in the Drake High Summer Basketball League last night, while Paradise Pharmacy remained unbeaten through five games by whipping MacArthur Brothers 71-50.

Bill Pandiani led Paradise with 20 points and Ron O'Connell was high for MacArthur with 11. Both formerly starred at College of Marin. Taveggia-Brusati, one of the other two adult league teams with a winning record, got that way last night when the Olympic Club of Marin forfeited. T-B and MacArthur are now 3-2, the other are 2-3.

Wednesday's high school action saw Schafer's hike its record to 3-2 by downing McGillicuddy Co. 49-37, as Tom Seidenberg scored 12 points and Roger Smith 10. The Pirates took their first win by blanking the Indians 11-0 in the first quarter and maintaining that lead for a 43-32 victory. Leroy Barrow of the losers had 11, while his teammate, Pat Schafer, and Pirates Mike Gaffney and Clark Jamison each had 10.

In the lone adult league game Wednesday, the Old Soldiers drubbed Anthony Painting 85-63 as Terry Overlid meshed 23 and Don Hansen 20. The winners are now 4-1, the loser 1-4.

Treemen Teeter, But Win Again

Sohner Tree Service of San Anselmo teetered on the edge of elimination but, like a high wire clown, straightened itself out and squeezed by Good Spot, 4-3, to stay alive in the Tri-County District Softball Tournament in Santa Rosa last night.

Tonight, the Treemen will have to do it all over again in a survival meeting with the Coast Merchants at 7:30 o'clock in the double elimination tourney.

The Treemen won hairily again even though Morey Swarm suffered another first-inning disaster, getting belted for a three-run homer. But a homer by Ron McCamish, and clutch hitting by Nolan Wilson and Jess Munyon pulled the Treemen ahead while Swarm pitched one-hit ball the rest of the way.

Bicyclists Race In San Rafael This Weekend

The Marin Cyclists bicycle club will hold its San Rafael Bicycle Races Sunday on a rectangular .8-mile course in downtown San Rafael.

There will be five events and prizes and trophies worth a total of $500 will go to the winners. The events are a 15-mile junior race, a five-mile girls' race, a 20-mile senior men's race, a 20-mile veteran men's race and a 30-mile senior men's race. Entry fees are $2 for the senior men's races, $1 for the others and double for non-members of the club.

Punt Return Record

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Charley Trippi of the then Chicago Cardinals ran a punt 75 yards for a touchdown against the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1947 NFL championship game, the only time a score was ever made on a punt return in title play.

Triple Swim Winners

Pandiani, O'Connell Pace Teams In Rec Basketball

A and E Garage nipped Drake Market 58-56 in the Drake High Summer Basketball League last night, while Paradise Pharmacy remained unbeaten through five games by whipping MacArthur Brothers 71-50.

Bill Pandiani led Paradise with 20 points and Ron O'Connell was high for MacArthur with 11. Both formerly starred at College of Marin. Taveggia-Brusati, one of the other two adult league teams with a winning record, got that way last night when the Olympic Club of Marin forfeited. T-B and MacArthur are now 3-2, the other are 2-3.

Wednesday's high school action saw Schafer's hike its record to 3-2 by downing McGillicuddy Co. 49-37, as Tom Seidenberg scored 12 points and Roger Smith 10. The Pirates took their first win by blanking the Indians 11-0 in the first quarter and maintaining that lead for a 43-32 victory. Leroy Barrow of the losers had 11, while his teammate, Pat Schafer, and Pirates Mike Gaffney and Clark Jamison each had 10.

In the lone adult league game Wednesday, the Old Soldiers drubbed Anthony Painting 85-63 as Terry Overlid meshed 23 and Don Hansen 20. The winners are now 4-1, the loser 1-4.

Treemen Teeter, But Win Again

Sohner Tree Service of San Anselmo teetered on the edge of elimination but, like a high wire clown, straightened itself out and squeezed by Good Spot, 4-3, to stay alive in the Tri-County District Softball Tournament in Santa Rosa last night.

Tonight, the Treemen will have to do it all over again in a survival meeting with the Coast Merchants at 7:30 o'clock in the double elimination tourney.

The Treemen won hairily again even though Morey Swarm suffered another first-inning disaster, getting belted for a three-run homer. But a homer by Ron McCamish, and clutch hitting by Nolan Wilson and Jess Munyon pulled the Treemen ahead while Swarm pitched one-hit ball the rest of the way.

Losers Over Gainers During Today's Trade

Volume for the first four hours was 8.6 million shares compared with 7.73 million on yesterday.

For a while the Dow Jones industrial average was well above the 1967 closing high posted May 8 but it backed down below that level and then hovered around it, showing a small advance.

American Broadcasting was down about 21 points after a delayed opening. Selling pressure built up on late Thursday's news that the Justice Department had asked a court to overturn approval of the proposed merger of ABC with International Telephone. IT&T held a fractional gain.

Up about 2 were Schenley and General Electric.

Gains of a point or so were made by Glen Alden, General Motors, Goodrich, Caterpillar, Sperry Rand, Swift, Texaco and U.S. Gypsum.

Bank Figures Up In June

The Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco reported unadjusted debits of $184,166,000, compared with $159,468,000 in June, 1966. Unadjusted deposits were $85,699,000 — up from $74,864,000 a year ago.

No seasonally adjusted debits, deposits or turnover rations are yet being reported for Marin County.

ELECTRONIC LIGHTNING BUG

A technician at Sperry Rand Corp. in Phoenix, Ariz. checks out an experimental dial that may help pilots of supersonic aircraft get flight information faster and more accurately. In response to directions from a computer aboard a plane, it uses electrical currents to display instant changes in instrument figures, similar to the way a lightning bug uses chemical action. When voltage is applied, glowing gas, viewed through an anode plate, forms numerals or letters in the four center patterns. (AP Wirephoto)

Losers Over Gainers During Today's Trade

The industrial average was dallying with a 1967 high in late trading but the score was not yet totaled at the final bell.

Volume for the first four hours was 8.6 million shares compared with 7.73 million on yesterday.

For a while the Dow Jones industrial average was well above the 1967 closing high posted May 8 but it backed down below that level and then hovered around it, showing a small advance.

American Broadcasting was down about 21 points after a delayed opening. Selling pressure built up on late Thursday's news that the Justice Department had asked a court to overturn approval of the proposed merger of ABC with International Telephone. IT&T held a fractional gain.

Up about 2 were Schenley and General Electric.

Gains of a point or so were made by Glen Alden, General Motors, Goodrich, Caterpillar, Sperry Rand, Swift, Texaco and U.S. Gypsum.

Bank Figures Up In June

The Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco reported unadjusted debits of $184,166,000, compared with $159,468,000 in June, 1966. Unadjusted deposits were $85,699,000 — up from $74,864,000 a year ago.

No seasonally adjusted debits, deposits or turnover rations are yet being reported for Marin County.

ELECTRONIC LIGHTNING BUG

A technician at Sperry Rand Corp. in Phoenix, Ariz. checks out an experimental dial that may help pilots of supersonic aircraft get flight information faster and more accurately. In response to directions from a computer aboard a plane, it uses electrical currents to display instant changes in instrument figures, similar to the way a lightning bug uses chemical action. When voltage is applied, glowing gas, viewed through an anode plate, forms numerals or letters in the four center patterns. (AP Wirephoto)

SUCESSFUL INVESTING

Risks Must Be Made On Growth

By ROGER SPEAR

Q. "We are young parents of a 4-year-old with another on the way. We are soon to receive an inheritance of $25,000. Our income is about $13,000 from a government project but the job will end when my husband gets his doctorate. We have no idea as to what to do with our inheritance. We would like, of course, the least risk and the most return. We want to build up our capital in the next 10-15 years for our children's education. We have $4,000 in savings. What do you suggest?" H. L.

A. I should first like to congratulate you on your growing family and on your fine inheritance. I believe that the major problem facing young people in your situation is the protection of your capital from decline in its real value over the years ahead. Inflation has been an almost constant factor in our national life during this century and it is always accelerated by war conditions.

To counteract dollar devaluation and perhaps build capital in excess of it, I suggest the reverse of your first thinking. I advise you instead to accept more near-term market rise and lower current income in order to aim for strongest growth. I suggest adding $5,000 to savings and investing the balance in American Home Products, Bristol-Myers, International Tel. & Tel., and Plough, Inc.

Q. "I want to have the ownership title on our stock certificates changed to joint tenants with right of survivorship (my wife and I). To whom should I write to have changes made on the following: American Telephone, Schick Electric, Reynolds Tobacco, and Woolworth?" G. B.

A. In all cases where you wish to register a change of title, you should write to the transfer agent. For the stocks you own these are, respectively: the company's office, 195 Broadway; Morgan Guaranty Trust Co.; Chase Manhattan Bank; First National City Bank. All of these offices are in New York City.

Redwood Bank Sets 10-Cent Dividend
